The Editor's column

By S. R. PADDOCK

Luck was with the editor last week. We found right here in Arlington Heights the best homemaker in all Chicagoland—and she was a minister's wife.

Little credit is due this newspaper for the discovery. With a reader to point the way, we discovered that many people have recognized the home-making ability of this mother of 9 children.

And we were not surprised when the two judges from the Modern Living Exposition reported that "our candidate" stood head and shoulders above all the other 81 nominees made by the neighborhood newspapers.

Mrs. Stephan deserves the honor that has come her way, the home appliances that she will personally receive and the fixtures that will modernize one particular room in that parsonage built over 40 years ago.

Readers will find most interesting the story of how Mrs. Stephan does her job. It appears in this issue.

New North Western double-decker goes into service Friday. Additional cars wil be added until the entire fleet of sixteen are in service. A reporter for Paddock Publications tried it out Wednesday on a special run to Waukegan.

His first question was, "How does the conductor collect fares from 'upstairs' occupants?" The conductor also asked the same question.

The answer received from Frank Koval, assistant to the president, was, "The conductor reaches up and the passenger reaches down." A short armed conductor or a short armed passenger may be out of luck.

Seventy foot lot widths as now required in Palatine will be as startling to some of its neighbors as was the automobile to our grandfathers.

Developers who first lifted their arms in horror signed on the dotted line Monday night. It can be done, folks, if village officials stick to their guns.

The new ordinance has a lot of "fringes," such as paved streets, water, sewers, sidewalks and $300 per home for school purposes.

The fourth number of the Community Concerts Sunday evening at Arlington Heights high school was a delight to see and hear. The soprano was a bundle of vitality, friendliness. The entire group, known as the Carolers included 2 tenors, a baritone and a bass—yes, also a banjo.

The program had enough highbrow music to satisfy the lover of the classical and a sufficient sprinkling of mountain, prairie and camp fire music to appeal to we people of common origin.

Incidentally, the fifth and final number of the season will be April 17 when the Rochester Symphony orchestra is coming to town.

The 1955-56 subscription season opens April 18. Newcomers who make their subscriptions before that day will be admitted to the orchestra concert as a bonus for early purchase of next season's tickets.

Memberships in the Concert Association are open to all newcomers who will find that the yearly series mixes culture with down-to-earth entertainment which will add to the joy of community life whether they live in Arlington, Mount Prospect, Palatine, Prospect Heights or Rolling Meadows.

Just because a number of Palatine business men are raising their own whiskers does not mean they are movie folk out on location. They are just preparing for a red-blooded centennial celebration.

Yes, the railroad arrived in 1854 but Joe Wood, founder of Palatine platted the first street and blocks in 1855—so says a document signed by Joe in the Way Back When files of this newspaper.

Candidates for Palatine village offices have been virtually "sitting in" with retiring board members on affairs of state. They will waste no time in learning the ropes of village management.

Some of our good friends from Inverness discovered last week that it is dangerous to move the weekly poker game from a private residence to a private room in an eating establishment. Men from the office of the county sheriff made an unannounced appearance to the confusion of the boys sitting around the table.

We have discovered that there are a lot of people—some school officials—who feel that a "soft" policy on the part of law enforcement officials will not stop delinquency.

We were shocked at what happened at Arlington Heights high school over the weekend. Will it become necessary to severely punish 1 or 2 boys in order to curb such acts. We hope not.

Here is the other side of the picture. A Palatine freshman who thinks that all society, including his family, is against him, needs psychopathic treatment. There is not room in Illinois Research hospital to admit him for several months. Chief Meyer thinks he can be saved for society if he is properly treated.

If he is sent to a private practitioner, funds must be found to pay the cost. Any organization or individual who desires to help should get in touch with the Palatine police chief.

Minister's Wife Crowned 'Homemaker of the Year'

An Arlington Heights housewife was named Homemaker of the Year this week in ceremonies honoring the opening of the Modern Living Exposition in Chicago.

She is Mrs. Dorothy Stephan, 315 North Highland ave., wife of the Rev. Luther V. Stephan, pastor of St. Peter's Lutheran church.

Judges from the Chicago Metropolitan Home Builders association chose Mrs. Stephan from among 82 women in the Chicago area.

She was nominated for the honor by the Arlington Heights Herald at the suggestion of Mrs. Ridgely Jackson, 645 S. Belmont.

In crowning ceremonies Sunday at Navy Pier, the new Homemaker of the Year was presented with a galaxy of prizes, including a Westinghouse washer and drier, a complete modern bathroom, a $616 sit-down kitchen sink, table lamp, a years supply of soap and detergents, an osterizen blender, a Lutxrol dial light control, Waring mirror, a check for $100, a 3 ft trophy, and all-expenses paid trip to New York City.

MRS. STEPHAN is a mother of 9 children, full-time teacher in St. Peter school, and manager of her rambling 10-room house.

Representatives of the Modern Living Exposition, who called on the Rev. and Mrs. Stephan unexpectedly, found her home in perfect condition and spotlessly clean.

This is the third year for the annual award.

Present at the award ceremony were Mrs. Jackson, and Stuart R. Paddock, Sr., publisher of the Arlington Heights Herald.

The homemaker will appear Friday on WGN-TV (Channel 9) at 10 a.m. on the Mike Douglas "Hi Ladies" show.

Her kindergarten class will be able to watch the show over a television loaned the school by Don Hager.

Warren Hull, master of ceremonies on the "Strike It Rich" television program, will meet Mrs. Stephan Friday and make arrangements for her to go to New York to appear on that show.

Friday night Mrs. Stephan and her family will be guests of honor at a dinner for 15 at Younkers restaurant in Chicago.

A feature story on how the Homemaker of the Year manages her Arlington Heights home appears elsewhere in this issue.

Suggests Debate On Local Issues

Civic Service party candidates for Arlington Heights village offices offered to debate village issues with incumbents seeking re-election April 19. Carl Anderson, Civic Service party campaign manager, said his group of candidates is willing to appear before any local group interested in sponsoring such a debate.

Clarification of such issues as the state of village finances and the proposed water softening plant under municipal operation is of utmost importance before the election date, Anderson declared. He charged incumbents with "evasive statements" which can be "cleared only with pinpointed questions at a public meeting."

The Civic Service campaign manager claimed "victory" for one plank in his party's statement of principles. It was the stand against issuance of any additional tavern license in the city. He said the firm stand by his candidates against such additional tavern license brought about the adverse ruling by the village board of trustees last week on six applications.

Civic Service party candidates are, for trustee, Forrest F. Davis, Frederick A. Weber, James E. Millay, and John F. Hoover; for police magistrate, William F. Neumann.

Any group willing to sponsor such a forum meeting may contact Frank Cowan Jr., appearances chairman, at Clearbrook 3-0054.

Final Night For 'H.M.S. Pinafore'

Gilbert and Sullivan's "H.M.S. Pinafore" completed a successful voyage last night at the Junior high school gymnasium. Another trip is planned for tonight, Thursday, at 8 p.m. The operetta is being produced by the combined efforts of the dramatics and music departments of the Junior high school.

The first showing played to a full house last night and featured the following cast:

The Rt. Hon. Sir Joseph Porter, K.C.B., David Kussow Captain Corcoran, Ed Whitlaw; Josephine, Jill Giuliani; Buttercup, Judy Maitland; Ralph Rackstraw, Richard Klages; Dick Deadeye, Robert Wolf; Boatswain, Roy Garr; Hebe, Judy Schmoyer.

Persons planning to attend the operetta this evening will have the opportunity of seeing:

The Rt. Hon Sir Joseph Porter, K.C.B., David Ebert; Captain Corcoran, John Lussow; Josephine, Marilyn Cheney; Buttercup, Gerry Grosby; Ralph Rackstraw, James Meehan; Dick Deadeye, Robert Choporis; Boatswain, Karen Brodahl; Hebe, Nancy McComb.

Race Track Suit Against Rolling Meadows Dismissed

The suit filed by Arlington Heights Jockey Club and Arlington Crest against the Rolling Meadows incorporation is being dismissed this week without prejudice to any of the parties.

It is possible for owners of unsubdivided areas on the edge of the newly formed city to achieve disconnection upon proper petition to the county court.

Tax Bills Out; Collections Start

All remaining 1954 tax bills went into the mail early this week, the last batch being personal property bills which were the last ones prepared for mailing.

Offices of the various collectors in this area are opening for the collection with each collector publishing a notice as to just when and where his collections will be made.

With the vast number of places that have changed hands during the past year, there is bound to be a big mixup in tax bills with a lot of bills going to former owners.

Persons who get a bill for property which they have sold are asked to turn it over to whoever purchased the property from them, or return it to the collector's office with the name and address of the new owner.

Anyone who has not purchased a bill should contact their local collector early so that corrections can be made in the list of rightful owners. The earlier these mixups in bills can be straightened out, the simpler it will be for all.

Vandals Break Into Des Plaines School

Vandals broke into Des Plaines' Old North school recently and took telephone receivers off the hook, left water running in washrooms, strew books around classrooms, and turned on electric lights.

Glenview Hikes Home Requirements

Glenview has approved a new ordinance increasing the minimum size of homes. Requirements are now 800 to 1100 sq. ft. for one-story homes and 650 to 750 sq. ft. for a 2-story living unit.

Village Joins Schools In Hunt For Tax Dodgers

Deny Rezoning For State Road Medical Center

A request for rezoning residential property in the 400 block on S. State rd., Arlington Heights, to permit the erection of a medical center, was denied by the zoning board of appeals Thursday night. The denial is in the form of a recommendation to the village board which will take final action on the matter at its regular meeting April 5.

DR. HARRIE HALL, dentist, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lemke were the petitioners. Dr. Hall planned to erect a building which would serve as offices for 4 to 6 physicians and 3 dentists.

Neighbors in the area attended the hearing and objected to the rezoning of the property to a commercial area, regardless of what was to be erected on the property. The petitioner failed to satisfy the board as to just how he intended to improve the property once it was rezoned and it felt it could not recommend rezoning without more definite plans.

Continue Negotiations for Off Street Parking Lot

Arlington Heights village board at a special meeting Monday night agreed to financially aid the schools in a survey to find property in the school district not on the tax rolls.

Victor Bedingfield, who heads the school survey committee in charge of this project, pointed out to the board that many towns in the surrounding area have launched such a survey and found thousands of dollars worth of property not on the tax rolls. A large corps of workers will be needed to physically check every piece of property in the district to see whether or not it is on the assessment list, but it is believed the end results will mean increased tax receipts for the schools and village.

The board voted to include an item in next year's budget to help pay for the survey.

PLANS TO purchase property for off street parking between Dunton and Vail aves., north of Sigwalt, are going ahead, though one slight change has been made. The board decided to purchase only 99 feet on Dunton ave., instead of the proposed 132 feet. An additional 99 feet immediately to the rear of this and fronting on Vail will also be included.

According to Trustee Edward Carlisle this will allow 4 rows of diagonal parking, accomodating 81 cars. The new shopping center being built just south of this area on Dunton will also have off street parking for approximately 43 cars.

A second appraisal is being made of the property being sought by the village and as soon as it is received another offer will be made to the property owners. If no agreement can be reached at that time the village will be forced to go ahead with condemnation proceedings to acquire the property.

Lawrence College Choir on Stage Friday Night

Lawrence college choir of Appleton, Wis., will present a concert to the general public April 1 in the girls' gymnasium of Arlington Heights high school at 8:15 p.m.

The Methodist church of Arlington Heights is sponsoring the program which will be a varied one, ranging from serene religious melodies to sharp, modern melodies. The choral group will sing here as a windup of their 25th annual winter tour.

ONE OF THE choir's high points in recent years was a joint appearance with Clare Booth Luce, U. S. ambassador in Italy, celebrated playwright, former member of congress and magazine editor. The choir shared a program with her in Kohler, Wis., an industrial village noted for the quality of its public programs. The year before the choir was invited to share the platform with King Peter of Yugoslavia, but a conflict in dates prevented their accepting.

Tickets can be purchased at Kindler's ice cream shop, Lohr's drug store or at the door.

Black's Memorial Home To Hold Open House

An open house will be held at Black's Memorial Home, Northwest highway and Vail st., Arlington Heights, Saturday and Sunday, April 2 and 3, to which the general public is invited.

The red brick wing, which faces the highway, provides an additional 2,000 square feet to the funeral home. James Viger of Mount Prospect was architect.

Included in the expanded home is a large chapel which can be converted into 2 smaller chapels. These are modern washrooms, a casket selection room, and a smoking-TV room.

Attached to the original building, the addition now makes it possible for Black to provide 1 large or 3 separate chapels for services.

Fully air conditioned, the large chapel has a seating capacity of 300. There is a public address system throughout the building.

All Black funerals are now conducted so that all operations are off-street. Special parking lots accommodate 50 cars.

The original chapel was completely redecorated to harmonize with the new sections. An electric console organ is available for all services.

The growth of the Arlington Hts. community has been tremendous since Mr. Black came to Arlington Heights in 1949. That growth made a larger and more modern funeral home a necessity. Mr. Black has provided it.

Dance To Benefit Family

Merle Guild Post of the American Legion and its auxiliary announce a benefit dance at the Legion hall, Arlington Heights, Saturday, April 16. With all expenses eliminated, the receipts will aid a local family. Tickets are $1. 'Nuff said.

Village Board Holds Special Meeting on Municipal Finances

A special meeting, called by Trustee William McNeil, chairman of the finance committee of the Arlington Heights village board, was held Monday night to discuss the financial condition of the village.

It had come to the chairman's attention that residents were perturbed about the solvency of the village as a result of a letter being circulated through the mails questioning the village's financial status.

'To set the record straight," said Trustee McNeil, "I move the following resolution be adopted by the board and placed officially in the records."

"Whereas the finances of the Village of Arlington Heights are in excellent condition, and, whereas irresponsible and unfounded intimidations have recently been circulated by mail questioning the Village's financial status, and whereas this Board has as its primary responsibility the protection of the prestige of the Village and its credit standing, its bonding power, and its purchasing power, and whereas these powers may have been seriously threatened by these reckless and unwarranted intimations, therefore be it resolved that the following report of the financial solvency of the Village of Arlington Heights be herewith released for publication:

IN ANSWER to a question raised from the floor regarding the transfer of $31,000 from the working cash fund to the general fund, the board explained this as a legal procedure. The state statutes allow municipalities to levy a certain portion out of tax monies each year for a working cash fund. This allows the municipalities to legally accumulate a cash fund to be used when a shortage of cash occurs during a fiscal year, due to lack of anticipated revenue for the year being received in time to meet the current year's expenses.

This money, however, must be paid back to the working cash fund as soon as the anticipated revenue is received, or out of the first tax monies received at the beginning of the new fiscal year, whichever comes first.

The board further explained in answer to another question regarding a cash balance at the beginning of the 1954 fiscal year, which appeared on the audit is $21,000, that this money must be absorbed in the current year's appropriation ordinance and cannot be accumulated from year to year.

MONEY RECENTLY taken from the sewer and water account and put into the general fund, totaling $12,734, was also questioned by a member of the audience. The board said the village auditors called to their attention that the water and sewer account was not paying its proportionate share toward general expenses of the village. A breakdown of the expenses was made, with a certain per cent being charged to this fund. The board voted to make these expenses retroactive to the first of the year and authorized the transferral of the money. A report of this transaction was made in the March 3 issue of this paper.

Another member of the audience said he appreciated the fact the cash balance sheet showed the village was not broke, but he thought the village should also show what the outstanding liabilities were at this time to give a more accurate picture of the situation.

The board reported that as of March 1 Village Manager F. Robert Buechner submitted a forecast of general fund income and expense for March and April 1955, which showed the estimated and realized income was in excess of the estimated operating expense for the same period. These figures were pubished in the March 10 issue of the Arlington Heights Herald.

Youth Prevails In Election Of Rolling Meadows Officials

America's youngest city may also have one of the nation's youngest set of city fathers.

When residents of recently incorporated Rolling Meadows go to the polls April 19 to select the city's first officials, they will find the average age of candidates is 35.

Four of the aspirants are under 30, and 10 more are under 40.

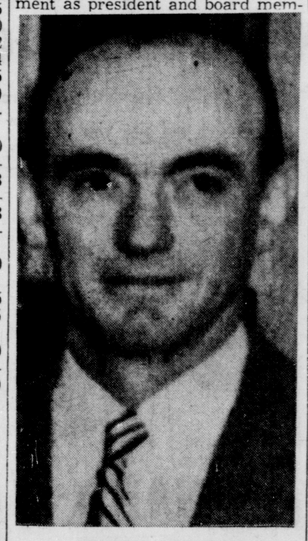
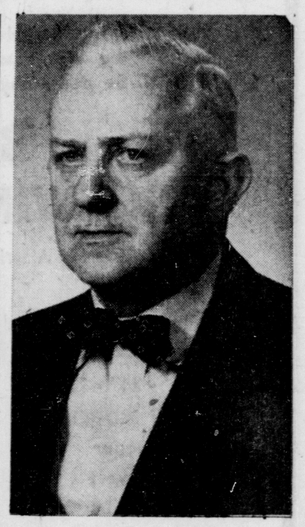
Honor Retiring High School Board Members at Dinner

Elmer F. Laurin, Arlington Heights, and Arthur Skelton, Mt. Prospect, were honored last evening at a testimonial dinner attended by members of Arlington Heights high school board of education and its administrative staff and wives and husbands. The occasion was their impending retirement as president and board member, respectively, upon completion of their terms of office April 9. carried the texts of resolutions of appreciation passed by the board.



ARTHUR SKELTON



ELMER F. LAURIN

Laurin, who has been a member of the board for sixteen years and its president for 10, has lived in Arlington Heights since 1925. He has practiced in the public accounting field under his own name since 1922 and has headed the firm of E. F. Laurin and associates with offices in Arlington Heights for the past 5 years. He helped to organize the Masonic lodge in Arlington Heights and was its first secretary. He also assisted in the organization of the first credit bureau for the Lions club.

DURING Laurin's association with the high school, the enrollment has grown from 518 in 1939 to 1554 in 1955, necessitating not only the expansion of physical facilities, but the broadening of curriculum and growth in the faculty and administrative staff. The financial stability of the district is in large measure a tribute to the efforts of Laurin and Skelton, who has also had broad experience in this field.

Laurin's association with the high school has been personal as well. His two children, Shirley, now Mrs. Robert Schneberger of Arlington Heights, and Neal, who also lives in the village, are both graduates of the high school. Each has three children.

Skelton has been a member of the board for the past 9 years during which time his 3 children, Roberta, a graduate of Carlton college in 1953, and twin boys, students at Northwestern university, attended the high school. Skelton is an alumnus of the University of Illinois and has been associated with the Peoples Gas, Light and Coke Co., in Chicago. He is presently the general superintendent of the accounts division and is active in the American Gas association. He has lived in Mt. Prospect for 20 years.

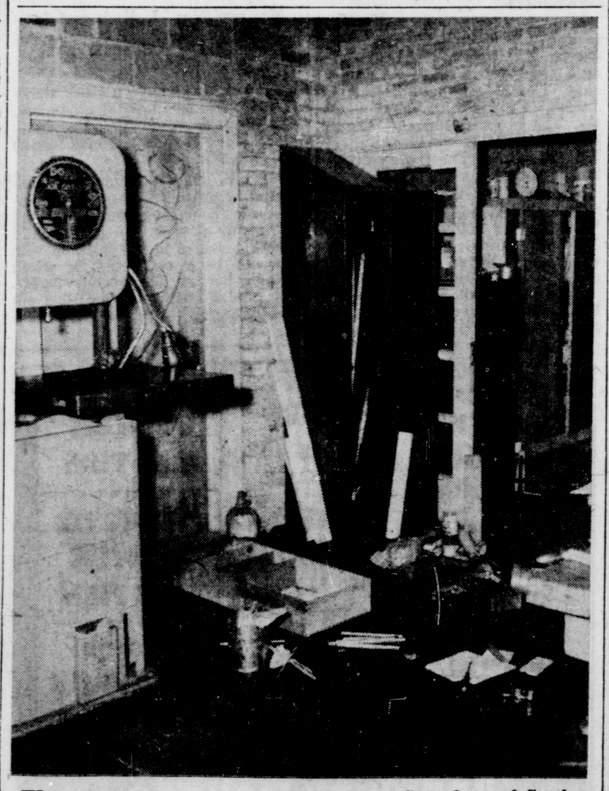
BOTH MEN have contributed greatly in time and leadership to the development of the science, shop, and gym additions to the school plant as well as to the new addition recently approved by the voters and the planning of the second school on Foundry rd.

Also dropping from the board at this time is Arnold Garlisch of Elk Grove, who has represented that area for the past 2 years.



The taxpayers were again the losers Saturday and Sunday nights at Arlington Heights high school. Vandals broke into the industrial arts room Saturday evening, smashing a window, spilling oil and supplies, writing obscene remarks on a mirror, and generally causing the school a financial and time loss. Sunday night damage was done to doors of washrooms. —Staff Photo

Pastor Hoog Returns From Conference

The biannual home mission conference of the United Lutheran church association was held in Dayton March 21 through March 25.

Home mission representatives of 32 synods were present. Pastor Hoog represented the Illinois synod. Dr. Richard Gerberding, executive director of home mission board of ULCA presided over the conference. Dr. Frank Clark Fry president of ULCA addressed the group on the future of home missions. Dr. Madsen, president of Michigan synod presented an address on synodical missions. It was reported, among other things, that 17 congregations have already been formed this year, one of these being Our Saviour Lutheran church, Arlington Heights.

The Sunday school attendance of Our Saviour has increased. At the first meeting there were 26 children present. The enrollment now numbers 76. Because of this growth it has been necessary to add new teachers, and to divide the beginners department into 3 groups.

Junior choir, totaling 18 members at present, has been formed to take part in the choir concert May 20 at 8 p.m. at the Dryden school. In addition, summer school plans are continuing, which call for classes in June.

Easter services at Our Saviour will include Palm Sunday service at regular time, 10:45 a.m.; communion and reception of new members Holy Thursday at 8 p.m.; Sunday school program, Easter Sunday at 9:30 a.m.; Easter worship at 10:45 a.m.

The group included Pat Benson, Marilyn Kowal, Evelyn Zapp, Jean Snelton, Peggy Lambert, Gertrude Kanouse, Darliss Harting, Virginia Luke, Fernell Mesnard, Lois Burrow, Florence Johnson and Dorothy Raasch.

Westgate News

New Brownie Troop

Westgate is now large enough to form its own Brownie troop. Mothers of girls now in second or third grades are asked to contact either Mrs. Clarence Wrobel at CLearbrook 3-3061 or Mrs. William Franck at CLearbrook 3-3648 for information and registration. First meeting of the troop is being planned for May 18. Leaders may be contacted before April 15 so the troop may be registered with headquarters.

Bridge Luncheon

A bridge luncheon was given March 30 by Mrs. A. Manthos and Mrs. R. Nicol at the home of the latter. There were 4 tables of bridge.

Newcomers

Mr. and Mrs. Ewald Kleim are getting settled in their home at 403 N. Yale after their moving here from N. Sacramento in Chicago. The Kleims have 3 children, Janice, 8, Nancy, 5, and Ricky, 1½. The children's pet is a parakeet. Mr. Kleim works for the A. Fiukl and sons. The family attends Faith Lutheran church.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern S. Hannsford and daughter, Sandy, 4, live at 410 Yale, having moved here from Midland, Mich. Mr. Hannsford works for Molded Products company, Chicago. He graduated from the University of Washington, and Mrs. Hannsford graduated from the school of nursing of the same college. The family attends the Presbyterian church. For recreation the Hannsfords enjoy bowling and bridge.

Neighborhood Bridge

Ladies of W. Euclid have a monthly bridge get-together. This month it was at the home of Mrs. M. Verbeck with the following guests: Mrs. R. Burkett, Mrs. R. Brogan, Mrs. K. Smith, Mrs. P. Macherery, Mrs. J. MacMurray, Mrs. J. Madden and Mrs. H. Huff.

Guest

Mr. and Mrs. R. Nicol entertained Mr. and Mrs. W. Horan of Decatur over the weekend. Both families are originally from Omaha.

Out-of-Town

Mr. and Mrs. J. Vork and family went to Gibson City, Ill., for the weekend to visit their families.

Shower

Mrs. F. Dziki gave a stork shower Sunday for her sister-in-law, Mrs. Jamroz of Leyden township. There were 30 guests from Chicago and suburbs.

Mrs. C. Robert Milne is distributing health certificates for Westgate for the spring roundup of the PTA. Any parent who has a child entering school in the fall and who has not been contacted is asked to call her at CLearbrook 3-5447. The health form must be filled out and brought to registration May 27.

Everybody Reads The Local Paper In Arlington Crest

A telephone check revealed to the circulation department of Paddock Publications this week that there is a 90% reader coverage of Paddock papers in Arlington Crest.

There are 78 homes in the subdivision. There are 8 without phones, who were not contacted.

Interest in the Palatine and Arlington Heights editions are about evenly divided. The area receives its mail over a Palatine rural rte.

St. James Guild And High Club To Receive Communion Sunday

Members of St. James Catholic Woman's guild and Heights Catholic High club of Arlington Heights will receive holy communion at the 8:15 mass Sunday. This is the date of the annual mother and daughter communion breakfast. Guild members are invited to have their daughters receive communion with them and be guests at a breakfast to be served in the school hall immediatey afterward.

Regular monthly meeting of the guild will be today, Thursday, at the school at 8:30 p.m. Guest speaker will be the Rev. Francis L. Filas. This is an open meeting which both men and women members of St. James parish are invited to attend.

Father Filas, assistant professor of religion at Loyola university, will present pictorial evidence of the Shroud of Turin, reputed to be the cloth in which Christ was wrapped after the crucifixion. Father Filas has given his illustrated lecture on special Good Friday telecasts for 4 years.

The broken door was just a part of the damage inflicted over the weekend at Arlington Heights high school where vandals broke into the industrial arts room Saturday night. Maintenance man Irving Grotefend points to the door from which wood was torn, the door removed, a general mess made of the entire room, including spilling of many gallons of oil and supplies on the floor. —Staff Photo

Arlington Youths On TV Show

Questions on the Story of the Cross were asked of students of three Lutheran churches on "This Way Up," Sunday, on WBBM-TV. Mel Galliart was the quizmaster.

The southside was represented by students from St. John the Divine Lutheran church, the westside by Ascension Lutheran of Riverside, and the north-west side by Faith Lutheran church in Arlington Heights.

International Record

It is "International Week" in Chicago and throughout the Midwest as far as the dog owning public is concerned. This year the 15th annual International Kennel Club Show will have a record entry of 2,211 dogs, which exceeds the entry of a year ago by almost 300.

The show, which will be held in the International Amphitheatre on Saturday and Sunday, April 2 and 3, has entries coming from all over the United States and Canada. Of interest in the fact that the largest entry is German shepherds with 147 dogs. One of the most unusual breeds entered is the Hungarian Vizla, and to further elaborate there are actually 100 breeds and varieties of dogs entered in the show.

THE INDOOR field trial exhibition has an expected entry of approximately 100 top field dogs for this event which will be held in the new south wing located on the main floor of the Amphitheatre. The obedience trials, which have 146 dogs entered, will be shown as in past years, on the second floor, with the scheduled starting time as follows: Novice—A, Saturday 10 a.m.; Novice—B, Saturday 2 p.m.; open A & B & Utility, Sunday afternoon, 1 p.m.

Perhaps one of the star features of the show this year, at least as far as the youngsters are concerned and also many of the adults, will be the twice daily appearance at approximately 2 and 8 p.m. of "Lassie" of T.V. and movie fame, who will be accompanied by "Gramps" of the "Lassie" show.

Lassie will be on exhibition throughout each day; however, the above plans relative to a special appearance have been made in order that the public will get a first hand look and demonstration of the dog's ability. Lassie will appear in the new South wing of the Amphitheatre.

Dog Stamp

These days the subject of commemorative stamps seems to be very much in order on practically every subject, and with 1955 marking the 10th anniversary of World War II, in which some 20,000 dogs served with distinction in the K-9 corps of America's armed services, issuance of a dog stamp seems to be particularly appropriate and timely.

The sentiment has been building up for dedicating the proposed stamp to the U.S. war dogs and from what your editor can learn congressional representatives have been asked to support the subject when it is brought up for consideration.

Barks and Bays

The subject of the field trials to be held at the International Amphitheatre brings to mind that "Warhoop Pake," a pointer owned by Dr. H. E. Longsdorf, Mt. Holly, N. J., won the gruelling 1954 National Championship at Grand Junction, Tenn., despite convalesence from a torn ligament.

Also on the subject of training—Down in Jamaica they are using dogs trained to detect marijuana growing in fields to help stamp out its illegal trade.

DAR Members Attend State Conference

Mrs. M. W. Grigsby, regent of Eli Skinner chapter of DAR of Arlington Heights, and Mrs. J. Alton Reitzel, chapter delegate, attended the 59th Illinois State conference of the national society at the Drake hotel March 21-23.

Honored guest was Miss Gertrude S. Carroway, New Bern, N. C., [illegible]sident-general of the national organization.

Good citizen luncheon was held March 22. This event honored high school senior girls chosen annually throughout the state. Guests of the local chapter at the luncheon were 1955 award winners and their mothers, Natalie Glover and Mrs. Elton R. Glover of Arlington Heights and Barbara Rorex and her mother, Mrs. J. A. Rorex, Palatine. Mrs. Daniel W. Vittum, chapter chairman of Good Citizens, and Mrs. Harold L. Lussow, past regent, also attended the luncheon.

Brigadier general William Hale Wilbur, Highland Park, addressed the Tuesday evening session on the subject of national defense. He expressed the opinion that if American policy in national affairs is to succeed, it must be America first of all.

The conference closed with a dinner at which Miss Carroway gave the principal address. Illinois membership now stands at 9600 and delegates from the 115 chapters at the meeting totaled more than 800.

Salt Creek Level Drops Two Feet

The level of Salt creek dropped from one to two feet at Elmhurst after obstructions had been cleared, it was reported to the Elmhurst city council last week.

Serious obstructions were taken out of the creek in the Elmhurst city limits. The work was done in 2½ days.

The project was part of a cooperative effort by the village, township and interested property owners to reduce flood damage by increasing the creek's ability to carry off heavy rainfall.

School Addition Cost Set At $4,900,000

The Niles Township high school board of education last week accepted the estimate of architects that a proposed 56-acre addition to the school will cost $4,900,000. The board stated that plans must be made to meet the needs of 6,000 students within 5 years.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS PHARMACY Monthly News

A message from George Harris, 'Your Pharmacist'

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO you spent 18.3 cents of your medical care dollar for medicines. Today, despite the fact that some of the newer drugs seem expensive, you are spending only 14.5 cents of your medical care dollar for medicines.

THE REASON OF COURSE IS that your prescriptions are now so much more effective, that you get well much quicker, and they help prevent more serious sickness, and often an operation.

THE COST OF LIVING has advanced considerably for almost everything you buy. But according to government statistics, you are now actually spending less for medicines, for each dollar of your medical care, than you did 15 years ago.

AS YOUR PHARMACIST we will always do our utmost to keep your cost of medicines as low as good pharmaceutical practice will permit.

"Garbo" by John Bainbridge. This is the completely fascinating biography of the Swedish girl who became "one of the great excitements of her age." "From Lexington to Liberty" by Lewis Gannett. Th estory of the American Revolution.

"My Own Particular Screwball" an informal autobiography by Al Schacht. "Chiang Kai-Shek" by Emily Hahn. The author presents the dramatic closeup- portrait of the man. "Doing the Truth" by Reinhold Niebuhr. A summary of Christian ethics. "My Zoo Family" by Helen Martini. A warm and lively account of the author's adventures as foster-mother to lions, tigers, leopards and other young animals belonging to the famous Bronx Zoo.

"Around the U.S.A. in 1,000 Pictures" by A. Milton Runyon. This book attempts to capture something of the spirit of the 48 states as you might see it if you had a long enough vacation to visit the places the editors take you to in photographs and factual captions.

Arlington Woman's Club To Present 'Cotton Carnival'

MRS. CARMI BEHRENS, JR.

Every springtime a woman's fancy turns to fashions, and there is no time like the beginning of May to see oneself in billows of gay and summery cottons. "Cotton Carnival," the theme selected for the Arlington Heights Woman's club annual fashion show, will whet many an appetite for the coming season, and Helen Daniels, proprietor of Dore Modes in Evanston, who will present the fashions, promises styles to please all sizes of purse and proportion.

The club this year has changed the scene of its spring fashion showing, and May 4, at 12:15, members and guests will gather at Allgauer's Fireside restaurant at Lincoln and Touhy aves. Luncheon will be served in the Oleander room where guests will enjoy luncheon music as well as the usual accompaniment to the style show.

Mrs. Carl M. Behrens Jr, chairman of the event, suggests that all those planning to attend make their plans and ticket purchases early, for reservations must be limited in order to prevent overcrowding.

Tickets will be sold at the regular club meeting April 6 or a telephone call to the following members of the committee will insure prompt service in ticket information: Mrs. Ralph Clabaugh, CLearbrook 3-4783; Mrs. Merton Postle, CLearbrook 3-6597; Mrs. William Sauer, CLearbrook 3-2330.

North Western Double Deeker On Exhibition

The first car in a fleet of 16 new streamlined air-conditioned coaches of double-deck design for suburban service will be delivered to the Chicago and North Western Railway Company next week, Paul E. Feucht, president of the railway company, announced today.

The coach was placed on exhibition in the railroad's Chicago passenger terminal Wednesday, and will remain all day Thursday, March 31. The car is the first to be delivered of 16 being manufactured by the St. Louis Car Company at a cost of approximately $2,240,000. Subsequent cars will be delivered to the railroad at the rate of about one a week.

The gallery type cars will have the greatest seating capacity of any railroad equipment in the country, each car having seats for 169 persons. Feucht said in this respect the railroad was taking advantage of the mass transportation possibilities of railroad equipment in handling large numbers of commuters at one time.

While designed basically to fit the needs of heavy suburban traffic, the cars will have many features of modern streamliner equipment, such as automatically controlled air-conditioning and heating. Each coach will have entrances at the center rather than the ends with each entrance wide enough to permit simultaneous passage by three persons. Entrances will have sliding doors remotely controlled.

The cars will have double-glazed windows at both levels, entrance steps equipped with radiant heating panels to prevent accumulation of ice and snow, and such modern streamliner devices as tight-lock couplers, rubber draft gear and roller bearing trucks.

The coaches will be placed in suburban service as rapidly as they are delivered, said Feucht who pointed out that cars will be assigned to each of the three suburban divisions. No definite assignments as to specific trains will be made until all 16 cars are received.

"We shall be interested in the reaction of commuters riding in these new coaches," said Feucht. "Commuter reaction together with observations by the railroad's operating experts during the next several months will aid the railroad in its future program for suburban car improvements."

The $2,240,000 purchase of the 16 new coaches was financed by the First National Bank of Chicago under a conditional sales agreement.

Set Dates For Community Concert Membership Drive

Seven years ago there was born in Arlington Heights the Community Concert association, a non-profit organization whose sole purpose was to provide the best musical talent available in the world for the enjoyment of the people of this area.

Community Concert associations have been in existence in this country for many years, but the idea had not been taken up by the people in this area.

The format and procedure was ideal to bring to Arlington Heights outstanding artists of the opera, stage, screen and airways.

Here is the simple formula: During a one week's membership campaign each the spring, memberships are available to everyone and anyone at a nominal charge of $6 for adults and $3.50 for students. This membership entitles the member to attend each concert given during the following fall and winter season.

A MEMBERSHIP campaign is organized and women volunteer their services to call house to house in their neighborhood to invite people to join. Saturday night of the drive week, books are closed and no new memberships are available until the following year.

The next day, Sunday, an artists selection meeting is held to decide on the concerts for the coming season. Only that money that is available from the sale of memberships is used to contract for artists so that in this way there is never a deficit.

During the past 7 seasons, the membership has heard the finest talent available: Gladys Swarthout, Igor Gorin, Mata and Hari, Philharmonic Piano Quartette, De Paur Chorus, and others of similar diversified talents. For the past 2 seasons there have been 5 concerts all for the membership cost of $6 for adults and $3.50 for students. Before this, 4 concerts were held each season but 3 years ago the Internal Revenue Department ruled that we no longer had to pay an amusement tax so that it was possible to add a fifth concert from the money saved.

This year's concert season will end April 17 at which will appear the full Rochester Symphony Orchestra.

The membership campaign this year will be the week of April 11 and during this week memberships are available to everyone, but at 6 p.m. Saturday, April 23, the books are closed and no memberships are available for another year.

With the many thousands of families newly located in this area since the start of Community Concerts, it is sincerely hoped that they will take advantage of this opportunity and purchase memberships during the week of April 18.

Name Winners In High School Talent Show

"All tied up" was the decision of the judges of the competition in the Arlington Heights high school annual Talent show last weekend.

Freshmen and sophomores shared honors in the class skit competition.

First place among vocalists was shared by Naomi Brossart and the boys trio consisting of Terry Frankes, Bill Green and Skip Rogers.

AMONG instrumentalists a 3-way tie resulted between Tim Colvin's jazz combo, Clayton Bauman, marimba, soloist, and "Squeaky" Catenazzo, accordionist.

The Senior Pow-Wow and Sailorettes shared honors among the dancing acts.

Judges were Norman E. Hayne, director and producer of the Morris B. Sachs Amateur Hour; Hope Summers, of the Showcase Theater in Evanston; Byron Sayre, of the Arlington Heights Village Theatre; Kay Campbell, of Park Ridge; and Robert Clicquennoi, of the Lawrenceville school, Lawrenceville, N. J.

Near capacity crowds attended both public performances.

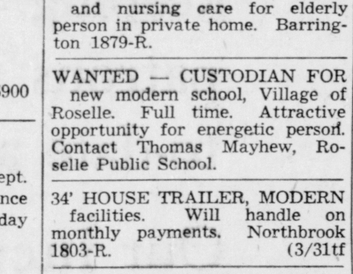
"BOWLING-ALLEY" FINISH NOW AVAILABLE FOR HOME USE



A new product called 'FABULON' the 'twin' of a famous bowling-alley finish, is now on the market for home owners. Housewives at last have the opportunity to finish their floors with all the beauty and durability of an expensive bowling alley. Surprisingly, FABULON costs no more than ordinary 'best' finishes and it is easy to apply.

Appearance and long-life are but two of the many features of the new product. For FABULON is highly resistant to water, skidding and chipping, as well as to stains from liquor and other causes. Dirt doesn't grind into its tough surface, so it's easily cleaned with a dust mop or damp cloth. It never requires hard scrubbing to clean or wax to protect. Hours of cleaning time are saved.

FABULON is not a shellac, not a varnish, not a glorified polish. It's a fabulous full-bodied, brush-applied, transparent protective coating for wood floors.

No chore to refinish floors. Remove the old finish the fast and easy way... with PRONTO... then apply two coats of FABULON the same day... use your floors the very next day.

FABULON® . . . PRONTO®

Made by the makers of FABULOY, the fabulous Resin "X" finish.

RALPH E. CLABAUGH

"Children Finer Than We Think"

"The best bunch of kids in the country," said Superintendent of Schools Ralph E. Clabaugh, speaking of junior high school students to their parents and teachers at the March PTA meeting. He urged parents to be proud of their offspring, and to help them in their struggle for independence.

Parents and teachers can work together, declared Mr. Clabaugh, to develop a child's sense of responsibility and increase his eagerness to learn. "Keep them curious," he advised, reminding his listeners that the rapid acquisition of knowledge, so easy to the preschooler, often becomes much more difficult when the child reaches school age. Materials should be provided in the home to encourage children's taste for literature, art, and music, said Mr. Clabaugh, emphasizing that facts will be forgotten, and "only the desire to learn will stay with them."

Too often "we work our children rather than with them," he declared, stressing the importance of helping children to understand themselves, to know and work toward mutually agreed-upon objectives. Independence should not be pushed on children when they are not ready for it; neither should it be denied when they are, advised Mr. Clabaugh.

The organization of the junior high school assists children to make easier transition from grade school to high school, he eplained, by giving them wider contact with various fields of knowledge as well as varied teaching personalities. At the same time, he pointed out, the east of familiarity is preserved by keeping the members of each section together as they move from teacher to teacher.

This community should congratulate itself, said Mr. Clabaugh, on having kept pace with the rapid rise in population better than most communities of the nation. In contrast with an enrollment of 630 in 1947, averaging 31½ per classroom, 2358 students were enrolled in the elementary schools in 1954, with an average of 27 for each of 88 classrooms, he informed his listeners, stating that the addition of 2 classrooms in the junior high school next year will take care of needs for at least 2 years.

Parents can help, said Mr. Clabaugh, by informing themselves on the possibilities of state and federal aid and the legislation needed to increase it, by supporting the school program financially, and—last, but not least—by welcoming teachers into the life of the community. The insulation between the school personnel and the parents, the lack of communication, causes teachers to operate in a sort of social vacuum, he stated, urging parents to help teachers feel at home in, and an important part of, the community. Both sides will benefit, and the children most of all, from increased understanding between teachers and parents, declared Mr. Clabaugh.

Preceding Mr. Clabaugh's talk, Mr. Brunt introduced selections by several of his music students. Bill Haberichter and Michael Tierney played a tuba duet, followed by a cornet solo by Ronald Conrad, and a violin duet by John and Charles Ninnemann. Refreshments were served following the program by mothers of sections 4, 5 and 6 of the eighth grade.

New Scout Troop to Meet April 18

The first meeting of troop 57, under the leadership of Frank Webster, scoutmaster, and Ed Mills, assistant scoutmaster, will be held at 7:30 p.m. April 18 in the physical education room (commonly known as the "P.E." room) of the junior high school. Boys 11 years of age and over (up to 14) who are not affiliated with another scout troop are invited to attend The new troop is beng sponsored by the PTA.

Plan for Card Party Now

It's time to get together with friends and plan for the PTA's annual spring card party April 28, says Mrs. Robert Stark, chairman. Enthusiastic devotees of bridge, canasta, samba, or whathave-you have made this event one of the most popular and profitable of the year.

Tickets will be sold through room mothers who will contact parents. Sandwiches and coffee will be served at the end of the evening, and soft drinks and candy available during the party.

Save Clothes for Bundle Days

The outgrown or outmoded clothing now crowding your closets can be gotten rid of April 21 and 22, announces Mrs. E. J. Roble, welfare chairman, in the second bundle day collection of the year. Wearable castoffs can be sent to school with children, from where it will be collected and bagged for shipment to the needy in this country as well as other parts of the world.

I. C. P. T. Convention April 14-16

Approximately 5,000 delegates from all PTA units of Illinois are expected to attend the 1955 convention of the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers, to be held April 14, 15 and 16 at the Conrad Hilton hotel in Chicago. Delegates from Arlington Heights PTA will attend the general sessions, as well as the workshops for specialized activities and functions of the PTA.

Jehovah's Witnesses Announce Campaign; To Meet April 3

A spokesman for Jehovah's Witnesses has announced a campaign in which Jehovah's Witnesses throughout the world will participate. Richard E. Paulick, presiding minister of the local congregation, revealed some of the details of the campaign which includes sponsoring a public lecture, "Christendom or Christianity — Which One is the Light of the World?"

Members will meet at Kingdom hal, 1651 Rand rd., Des Plaines, at 4 p.m., April 3. The congregation includes the Park Ridge, Arlington Heights, Rolling Meadows and Palatine study groups.

After the lecture, a new 32-page booklet will be given free to each person in attendance and it is the desire of Jehovah's Witnesses to pace a copy of this booklet in every home. Mr. Paulick said the contents of this booklet had not yet been made public, but its message was unique and would be of special interest to all faiths.

"Advance preparation and the world-wide scope of this special campaign give indication that this may well be one of the greatest religious proclamations in modern history," Mr. Paulick said.

Our New Installation Plan will save 615,000 Northern Illinois families important money—

Now it's easier to own the appliances you've always wanted

Are you one of our 615,000 Northern Illinois area customers who live in a 1, 2, or 3-family building with 120-volt (2-wire) service? If you are, this new installation plan of ours can save you some mighty important money on the installation of any one of the appliances shown above . . . and give you the modernized wiring you need today.

This installation includes bringing a modern 240-volt (3-wire) line to the main fuse box inside your home plus the interior wiring to wherever you want the appliance located.

Our New Installation Plan Available at All Dealers'

Our new installation plan not only helps you, but your dealer as well. All your dealer has to do is call us once—we do the rest. We arrange a convenient installation date with you . . . line up an electrical contractor . . . see that the job's done right and, if you prefer easy payments on your share of the wiring, we'll take care of that, too.

What this modernized wiring means to you now and in the future

Besides saving you important money on installation, our new plan improves your entire home's electric service, too. Right away you'll notice a bigger, sharper TV picture, brighter lights, faster toast. In fact, every appliance you now own will work better. And with your new 240-volt capacity, your home's ready for other appliances you'll want in the future.

So, if you've been wanting an electric dryer, range, water heater, or air conditioner—buy it now. You'll be getting a bigger bargain than ever before!

What our New Appliance Installation Plan offers to customers who live in a 1, 2, or 3-family building with 120-volt (2-wire) service:

1—YOU CAN SAVE IMPORTANT MONEY with the installation of any of these appliances: electric dryer, range, water heater, air conditioner.

2—YOUR PRESENT APPLIANCES WORK BETTER once you have new, heavy-duty 240-volt wiring in your home.

3—YOU'RE ALL SET FOR THE FUTURE—you can add wiring for the electrical appliances you'll want in the years ahead quickly and cheaply.

ARLINGTON PROGRESS PARTY

in the Village Elections April 19

Edward G. Carlisle
Trustee

Arlington Heights home owner for nine years. Member of Village Board since 1951. Graduate of Northwestern University. Was an Elder of First Presbyterian Church. Associated with Illinois Bell Telephone Company for 29 years.

Edwin L. Johnson
Trustee

Arlington Heights home owner for four years. Was selected to fill Village Board vacancy in December, 1954, by civic and service clubs. Served four years in Air Force during World War II. Is partner in law firm. Attends Episcopalian Church.

Albert C. Peters
Police Magistrate

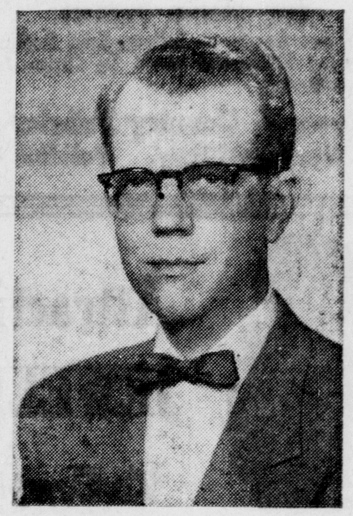
William J. McNeil
Trustee

Arlington Heights home owner for five years. Graduated from Loyola University Law School in 1933. Served four years in Navy in World War II. Appointed to Village Board by Mayor Goedke in 1954. Member of Catholic Church.



David A. Zimmerman
Trustee

Arlington Heights home owner for 10 years. Village Board member since 1951. Member of Northwest Suburban Board of Realtors. Graduated from Lehigh University in 1935. Has been church school Superintendent and Elder of First Presbyterian Church.

This is the Progress Party Platform which they are pledged to support

The Progress Party pledges to:

- Continue the present Village Manager program. A Village of our size needs the full-time services of a trained business administrator, qualified in Village management, to conduct its day-to-day affairs.
- Solve the Village sewer problem in a common sense way - using expert advice - in keeping with the continuing growth of the Village.
- Lower the water rates as soon as possible, but not merely as a political expedient. Present rates are now necessary in order to meet the rapidly expanding demands on the present system without having to float a new bond issue.
- Provide thorough supervision and control of garbage disposal services at a minimum cost.
- Establish adequate fire fighting facilities on the north side of the North Western Railway right - of - way.
- Protect your property values through continued improvement of the Village Building and Zoning Codes, without regard to any special interests.
- Provide sufficient and convenient public parking space for shoppers and commuters.
- Maintain and protect the residential nature of our Village.
- Enforce Village laws without favoritism.
- Provide for the planned, orderly growth of the Village.
- Widen downtown streets as soon as equitable financing can be worked out.
- Continue the mosquito abatement program.
- Provide for the greater safety of both children and adult pedestrians by directing through traffic to main arteries and keeping fast-moving cars and trucks off residential streets.

The Progress Party is dedicated to good Village government in all its branches. We believe the office of Police Magistrate should be held by a competent attorney who, by reason of legal training, can weigh the facts and the evidence and impartially administer justice. This is in keeping with judicial reform procedure recommended by Civic, Service and Bar Associations throughout the State of Illinois.

The Progress Party believes our Village should have every important utility service that its people want and can afford. Our Party believes, and recent studies indicate, that a municipal water softening plant may be desirable, and that it could be accomplished without any additional cost to the water user. Before approval is given to the project, we believe a majority of the voters should express themselves. Other projects have priority. Needed water mains and relief sewers must be provided before a water softening plant can be presented to the voters for their decision.

"The City of Friendly Neighbors" . . . In keeping with the slogan of our Village, "The City of Good Neighbors," the members of the Progress Party pledge themselves, in the conduct of this campaign, to refrain from indulging in the use of derogatory printed material and verbal innuendo, and to confine their remarks, either printed or oral, to the basic issues of this campaign.

and . . SPEAKING OF ACTION

The Progress Party of Arlington Heights cites the following record of progressive action by the present Village Board of Trustees, four of whose members are running for election as your Trustees in the April 19 election.

. . . able and efficient management of the financial affairs of the Village. The official statement of the Village Board, recorded in the minutes Monday evening, March 28, 1955, and supported by statements of the Village Attorney and the Village Manager, shows the Village in excellent financial condition.

. . . completion, in 1953, of a new well at Ridge and Wing streets, with 1,000,000 gallon reservoir.

. . . completion, in 1954, of an additional 1,000,000-gallon reservoir, increasing the Village water capacity and maintaining adequate water pressure.

. . . launched a comprehensive engineering study of the Village sewer and water system, including the inadequacy of present Weller Creek, to provide required information upon which a sound, workable solution of the water and sewer problems can be achieved.

. . . definite attack upon the problems of parking and traffic, installation of parking meters, and negotiations for municipal parking areas.

. . . actual start on street widening program in congested business areas.

. . . hiring of a competent professional administrator as Village Manager.

. . . creation of office of Village Prosecutor to provide for separate handling of functions of Prosecutor and Police Magistrate.

. . . adoption of ordinance establishing an official Village plan in 1953 to insure jurisdiction over development of areas up to 1½ miles outside Village limits.

. . . enactment in 1954 of new, revised municipal code - the first substantial revision since 1929.

. . . enactment of important amendments improving the Village building code.

. . . appointment of a Zoning Commission. The beginning of actual drafting of an up-to-date zoning ordinance - the first major zoning law change since 1927.

. . . enactment of a Subdivision ordinance in 1952, controlling development of unsubdivided land within the Village.

. . . establishment in 1952 of a municipal mosquito abatement program.

The above is a statement of actual, recorded facts. On the basis of this RECORD OF ACTION AND CONSTRUCTIVE ACCOMPLISHMENT, the Arlington Progress Party candidates ask you, the voters, for the privilege of continuing in office

"MEDICINE IS NOT ONLY SCIENCE; IT IS AN ART"

*(Author's name below)

There is a great deal of "science" about the preparation of a medicine. It is necessary for a Pharmacist to have a thorough knowledge of the chemical formulae of drugs, so that when combining more than one ingredient in a prescription, he is certain the result does not form a harmful poison.

There is also a definite "art" in the compounding of pills, suppositories, ointments, eye drops, and lotions. We take pride in filling such prescriptions, and welcome your bringing them to us.

From The Police Blotter...

More thefts of auto accessories were reported to Arlington Heights police this week. Ed Smithback of Stoughton, Wis., told police someone had taken 4 hub caps off of his 1955 Chevrolet which was parked in the driveway at 1022 N. Highland. Hub caps were also reported stolen off a 1953 Buick belonging to Joe Tanulis, 202 W. South st.

William Overton reported his car broken into while it was parked at 1307 N. Dunton and thieves made off with a spare tire and carpenter tools stored in the trunk.

Edward Hinks, police investigator for the Chicago and North Western railroad, complained that 50 railroad ties, piled on the south side of the tracks, just east of the Euclid ave. crossing were stolen some time during the weekend of March 21.

William White, Chicago, driver of an A&P truck, told police he was forced to break the gates on Vail ave. railroad crossing March 22. He said he started to drive across the tracks when the gates were lowered. He saw a train was approaching so he proceeded across, breaking the gates. He told police he did not hear any warning bell. The tower man in charge of the gates said he did not see the truck on the tracks when he lowered the gates.

Vandals broke into Arlington Heights high school twice the past weekend. Saturday night they broke into the machine shop and threw ink and white lead on the walls, and also tore a door off its hinges and broke some windows. Sunday night they broke into the shower room on the north side of the building and knocked pins off the hinges of doors leading to the girls' washroom.

A 64-year-old Arlington Heights woman was picked up following an accident on S. State rd., just north of Central rd., and booked for driving under the influence of liquor and for driving on the wrong side of the road. Only property damage resulted from the collision.

Traffic court Monday night netted $130 in fines, with 26 cases being tried.

Learn About College Sororities At Party

Senior girls at Arlington Heights high school and their mothers had a chance to learn about college sororities and rushing Tuesday when the Pan-Hellenic league of Arlington Heights entertained them at a Coke party in the cafeteria of the school.

Representatives of 16 college sororities were on hand to answer questions about sorority life.

Lohman Offers New Policy To Curb Tow Racket

Sheriff Joseph D. Lohman Thursday announced a new system designed to insure that the sheriff's highway police do not give accident towing jobs to favored companies — at the expense of the motorist who has been in an accident.

Police at accident scenes will no longer be permitted to call tow trucks — or even to recommend towing companies.

Motorists will be asked if they wish to call any particular towing company. If they decline, the police will advise the desk sergeant at their district station. He will call an approved firm, which is on a list of companies which have demonstrated that their charges are reasonable.

THE THREE sheriff's police district have been zoned into areas which can be quickly served by the 20 to 30 towing companies approved for each district. Thus the tow trucks will make short runs — cutting down on cost and time.

The new system will be under the supervision of Sgt. Robert Hesse, who heads the sheriff's police accident bureau.

Hesse has also instituted the use of new accident report forms which provide for more detailed accident reporting by police on the scene and which provide for the taking of statements from persons involved and witnesses.

These statements will be kept confidential, but the remainder of the report will be available to persons with legitimate reasons for wishing to examine it.

Girl Scout News

Troop 19 went to Rolling Meadows last Wednesday to help teach girls of troop 302 their second class knots.

Mrs. Lyle Ewing, 716 N. Ridge, held a troop committee meeting at her home Friday morning March 25. A new committee chairman, Mrs. Martin Klenky, was elected to replace Mrs. Roy Speicker.

April 12 all brownies from Ridge school are going to the roller rink.

Brownies in troop 327 held an extra meeting at the home of Mrs. Glenn Buckley last Wednesday to work on a Mother's day project. Mrs. Frederick Gorder, co-leader of this troop, will take charge of the troop news for Arlington Heights during April.

March 29 troop 280 held a play for all brownies of Stonegate. The play was called "Rainbow's End" and parts were taken as follows: first goblin, Andrea Ragozinski; second goblin, Barbara Gutzman; first sparrow, Mary Ellen Esbensen; second sparrow, Katherine Hagg; third sparrow, Barbara Gram; first rabbit, Barbara Hawkey; second rabbit, Linda Seales; third rabbit, Cindy Collanni; first bee, Sulane Hamilton; second bee, Sharron Schoen; first girl, Barbara Carlson and second girl, Janet Rose.

Mrs. Fred Tice and her daughter, Jo, entertained eighth grade girls of troop 17 in their home 626 N. Douglas. They showed movies taken of their troop 95 on a trip to Springfield 2 years ago.

Mrs. John Reeves took her brownies of troop 303 into Chicago to see Super Circus last Sunday.

Mrs. Dettloff received her troop number which is 352. This troop with troop 32 had a St. Patrick's day party.

Senior scouts are preparing a trip to Starved Rock State park. This troop is anxious to get a co-leader permanently but would appreciate it if one could only accompany them on this trip. The girls had one preliminary trial on an over-night at Camp Pine. They practiced pitching tents and cooking out of doors. These overnights help scouts learn to work together. To raise money for these trips the girls have had a series of faculty dinners. These dinners plus dues make it possible for such trips without a great expense to any of the girls.

April is Month of Town Meetings And Elections

April is a month of elections. They start next week. Annual town meetings will take place on Tuesday, April 5.

These meetings are about the only thing that is left of government by the people in this country.

Any qualified resident can attend and vote upon issues that may be introduced. While the town clerk will take down the minutes, the people present select their own moderator. Elected township officers have little to say, but because of the disinterest of electors of the township, the elected officials will probably be compelled to "take over" if there is to be any business transacted.

The meetings are held by townships. The hours of meetings and places are as follows:

Palatine township — Palatine village hall, 8:00 p. m.

Wheeling township — Arlington Heights village hall, 2:00 p. m.

Elk Grove township—Elk Grove town hall, Arlington Heights and Higgins roads, 2:00 p. m.

Schaumburg township, Schaumburg Center School, 2:00 p. m.

Hanover township, Town hall, Bartlett, 2:00 p. m.

Park district elections and polling places are as follows:

Palatine—Palatine Park fieldhouse, 262 E. Chicago ave. Polls open from 6:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m.

Arlington Heights — Arlington Heights Field house, 500 E. Miner st., 6:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m.

Palatine Rural Park—District 18 school house, Algonquin and Ela roads. Polls open from 6:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m. Two members to be elected.

Wheeling Rural Park—Albert C. Drewes residence, Buffalo Grove rd. Polls open from 6:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m.

The special annexation election that was to be held Saturday by residents in Arlington Manor, which area lies east of Scarsdale, has been postponed.

The school elections take place Saturday, April 9. There are few controversies. Each township will also elect a school trustee the same day. The polling place and names of candidates will appear in next week's issue.

HERE'S SCOUTING

O. A. Members Prove Themselves Woodsmen!

The task of ridding Camp Napowan of 150 dead or blighted oak trees, set in the lap of the Northwest Suburban Council Order of the Arrow Brotherhood, was carried out with flying colors, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, March 18, 19 ad 20. Fifty OA members attended this service project, along with 10 scouters. With only one power saw, the rest hand tools, these chaps not only felled the 150 hard oak trees, but also cut and trimmed them. This is an incredible and noteworthy accomplishment, which, doubtless to say, was not expected by many to be completed in such short fashion. Representing the Blackhawk District, were Tom Clarke, Wayne Rydberg, Ronne Blaschke, Jay Singelman, Milton Singelton, and George Moudry, post 32 adviser. A new tribute can be added to the long list already acquired in the history of the Northwest Suburban Order of the Arrow Brotherhood.

Post 32 Tramps Indian Way Hike

April 4, 5, and 6 reports post 32 adviser George Moundry, is the date when 10 of his Explorer scouts will be on the unexplored, uncharted, Indian Way Hike, winding its course along the banks of the exotic and mysterious Des Plaines river. These boys will start their 75 mile long continuous trek early Monday morning, and continue without tentage to their destination arriving Wednesday. Yes, come what may, these boys will be sleeping under the stars, without protection from nature's worst! A follow-up on this hike will appear in a forthcoming edition of this paper. Names of the 10 Explorers were not yet released officially.

Blackhawk District First Aid Meet Success!

Over 200 boy scouts attended last Friday's Blackhawk district first aid meet in Mount Prospect Central school gymnasium, estimated Bob Warkentien, first aid meet leader. Twenty-six patrols represented 11 scouting units in the district.

"A" rating went to the units with a 90% rating or better. "B" rating went to patrols with an 80% to 90% rating. Patrols with less than 80% ratings, took home a participating award. Two blue ribbons for "A" rating went to troop 7, and post 707, both of Arlington Heights. Below is the rating score sheet.

Troop 56, Coyote patrol, "B"; Beaver patrol, "B"; Flaming Arrow patrol, "C" (participating).

Troop 66, Flaming Arrow patrol, "B"; Racoon patrol, "C."

Troop 23, Apache patrol, "B"; Stag patrol, "B".

Troop 51, Cobra patrol, "C"; Pioneer patrol, "C".

Troop 32, Beaver patrol, "B"; Cobra patrol, "B".

Troop 7, Flying Eagle patrol, "A"; Panther Patrol, "B"; Flaming Arrow, "B".

Troop 36, Beaver patrol, "C"; Fox patrol, "C"; Pioneer patrol, "C".

Troop 37, Buffalo patrol, "B"; Flying Eagle patrol, "C"; Hawk patrol, "C".

Post 32, ????patrol, "B".

Post 707, Flying Pistons, "A"; Can Snappers, "B".

Schedule of Blackhawk District Activities

4, 11, 18, and 25—Cub scout leaders basic training Arlington Heights Junior high.

7, 14, 21, 28—Boy scout leaders basic training, Wilson school.

19—Blackhawk district committee meeting room 122-A, Arlington Heights Junior high.

26—Blackhawk district roundtable, Arlington Heights North school.

29, 30 and May 1st—Annual tree planting weekend, Camp Napowan, Wild Rose, Wisconsin.

Pack 37

Our pack meeting was opened by a prayer given by the Rev. Luther Stephan.

Raymond Tagtmeier introduced the pack committee from pack 58, Elk Grove. The committee and den mothers were our guests for the evening. Pack 58 is just getting started in cubbing.

Our pack meeting was based on the story of King Arthurs' court of the round table. We had a very impressive candle light ceremony in which 12 boys took part. Ivor Fruehling, cubmaster, was King Arthur for our round table. Mr. Fruehling knighted all boys according to rank and gave them each their new registration cards. The following boys were given arrows: Paul Radthe, Gold Arrow; James Gerken, 1 gold and 2 silver, arrows; Philip Ruhnow, a silver arrow; and Lee Timmerman, silver arrow.

Gerald Inselberger and his dad also received awards. They each received their 2 year pins in cubbing.

The colors were presented by den 3.

Thanks again to the mothers of den 3 for the refreshments.

A special thanks to our den mothers for the wonderful job they did in their dens with the boys in making the suits of armor and swords and shields for our pack meeting.

All agreed that this year's first air meet was a worthwhile success.

Heights Students See 'H' Bomb 'Exploded'

"Operation Ivy," a film record of the first Hydrogen bomb explosion, was the main feature of the civil defense assembly at Arlington Heights high school, March. 24.

The film showed only the nonsecret portions of the record, but included the explosion and the overall destructiveness of the blast. It was shown through the cooperation of the Cook County Office of Civil Defense.

Carl Friedberg, Civil defense coordinator for Cook County, discussed the work of his office. Conceding the complete destructiveness of the explosion in a large area around the point of the explosion, Mr. Friedberg advised those who cannot be evacuated from potential target areas, that getting below ground and staying there offers the best chance for survival for persons near the area of total destruction.

The present warning system, defensive weapons, knowledge of the nature of damage done by hydrogen explosions, will do much to prevent wholesale disaster in case of atomic attack on this area, Mr. Friedberg indicated.

Also on the program were the presentation of the annual Daughters of the American Revolution Award for Citizenship to Natalie Glover, and the American Legion Auxiliary essay contest awards to Janice Lindskoog and Sandy Crawford. Presentation of the awards had been postponed because of the regional basketball tourney.

'Tots To Teens' Store To Close

"Tots to Teens" shop in Prospect Heights will close April 15.

The store, which has been so generously lent to the women's guild of the Prospect Heights Community church by Carlton Smith for their resale shop, has now been rented for early occupancy. Therefore, the shop is closing on the above date.

As spring merchandise will still be accepted until April 9, many bargains wil be available for Easter shoppers. In order to serve its many customers better during the last 2 weeks, the volunteer workers of the guild will keep the shop open every day and evening, 12 to 5 and 7 to 9. April 4 through April 15. The shop will be closed on Good Friday but will stay open Saturday April 9 from 12 to 5.

Mrs. Henry Ehrich, chairman, thanks Carlton Smith, the volunteers who have given their time and all the many customers who have made the shop's existance a success.

Unitarians And Universalists Gather

There will be an informal meeting of Unitarians, Universalists, and other religious liberals living in the northwest area, on Sunday evening, April 3, beginning at 8 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Shannon, 444 S. Beverley lane, Arlington Heights.

Although the nearest Unitarian churches are in Evanston and Hinsdale and the nearest Universalist church is in Elgin, this will be a meeting to explore the needs of religious liberals in northwestern suburbs from Park Ridge to Barrington.

At the meeting, Dr. Homer A. Jack, minister of the Unitarian church of Evanston, will discuss the recent article on Unitarians appearing in Look magazine.

The public is invited to this informal meeting. For any further information, call Mrs. C. L. Emrick, CL 3-3437, or Mrs. Shannon, CL 3-3188.

Mell And Paul's Add Dining Room To Drive-In

Mell and Paul's Drive-In, Northwest hwy., Mount Prospect, broke ground this week for an addition to their building, which will be used as a dining room area.

The dining room will accommodate 50 people and full dinner menus will be available. With the completition of the addition the drive-in restaurant will open for the breakfast hour as well as luncheon and dinner. The restaurant will be completely air conditioned and is expected to be completed May 15.

Mell and Paul Caltagirone, proprietors, who took over the drive-in three years ago, said they will specialize in Italian and American foods.

Lessons In .... English

by W. L. GORDON

Words Often Misused

Do not say, "Newspapers have a habit of printing larger editions on these days." It is better to say, "have a custom of printing larger editions."

Write, "This article is a criticism of John's," if John wrote it, or, "a criticism of John," if someone else wrote it about John.

Do not say, "I should of waited for her." Say, "I should have waited for her."

Do not write, "I wish to advise you that your order will be filled next week." Write, "I wish to inform you.' 'The primary meaning of "advise" is "to give counsel, or to warn."

Do not say, "I have a bad pain in my back." It is better to say, "I have a severe (or, an acute) pain in my back."

Do not say, "I can't help but pity her." Say, "I can't help pitying her."

Use "likely" when referring to a contingent even regarded as probable; as, "It is likely to rain tonight." Use "liable" when referring to a possible event regarded as disastrous; as, "You are liable to fall if you are not careful."

Do not say, "I am anxious to see that movie." "I am eager to see that movie" is preferable.

Do not say, "I am very partial to chocolate cake." Say, "I am very fond of chocolate cake."

Do not write, "This is our's." No apostrophe is required in writing the possessive pronouns, "ours, yours, theirs, its."

Do not say, "He should be called down for his impudence." "Call down" is a colloquialism. It is better to say, "He should be reproved for his impudence."

Do not say, "He slipped and fell down to the ground." Omit "down."

Words Often Mispronounced

Chateau. Pronounce sha-to, a as in shall, o as in toe, accent second syllable.

Boatswain. The nautical, and generally accepted, pronunciation is bo-s'n, o as in no.

Nihilist. Pronounce ni-i-list, first i as in night, second and third i's as in it, accent first syllable.

Sachem (North American Indian chief). Pronounce sa-chem, a as in say, accent first syllable.

Cairn. Pronounce karn, a as in care.

Gesticulate. Pronounce the g as j, accent second syllable.

Puccini (Italian composer). Pronounce poot-che-ne, oo as in boot, both e's as in me, accent second syllable.

Contralto. Pronounce the a as in at, not as in all, accent second syllable.

Mortgage. Pronounce mor-gij, with the t silent.

Attache. Pronounce at-a-sha, first a as in at, second a unstressed, third a as in shay, principal accent on last syllable.

Anathema. Pronounce a-nath-e-ma, first a unstressed, second a as in nap, e as in me unstressed, accent on second syllable.

Ephemeral (short-lived). Pronounce e-fem-er-al, all e's as in set, accent on second syllable.

Words Often Misspelled

Gate (an opening); gait (manner of walking). Coerce, erce, not erse. Defalcation; fal, not fall nor faul. Satire (irony or sarcasm); satyr (mythological divinity). Accessible; observe the two c's, two s's, and the i. The term in cookery is properly "Welsh rabbit," although "rarebit" the product of false etymology, is now much used.

Breath (noun); breathe (verb). Arrange (to put in proper order); arraign (to call to account). Symmetry; two m's. Supersede; observe the second s; not cede. Magnet (that which has power to attract); magnate (a person prominent in an industry). Censor (to examine); censure (to criticize).

Word Study

"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson:

Censorious; addicted to censure; severe on others. (Pronounce second syllable so, and accent second syllable). "He was forced to meet a censorious world after news of his crime was broadcast."

Homiletic; having the nature of a sermon. (Pronounce the o as in on, e as in let, accent third syllable). "His address was homiletic."

Stentorian; extremely loud; (Accent second syllable). "He raised his stentorian voice in command."

Reciprocal (noun); that which makes a return for something done or given. "This invitation comes as a reciprocal for our previous hospitality."

Plentitude; fullness; abundance. "In the plentitude of its energy and power, the storm swept all before it."

Perspicacity; keenness in seeing or understanding a thing, especially in the sense of having foresight. (Pronounce pur-spi-kas-i-ti, the a as in cast, principal accent on third syllable). "The president showed perspicacity in respect to the needs of the people."

"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson:

Arrongant; unduly proud; overbearing; haughty. "Praise can make some men very modest, but other men very arrogant."

Salutary; promoting health; curative. "Exercise, when not too strenuous, is salutary."

Gregarious; having the habit of associating in flocks, herds, or companies. (Pronounce the e as in me, a as in care, accent second syllable). "Many men are gregarious, preferring the crowded cities to the open country."

Nemesis; goddess of chastisement and vengeance; hence, retributive justice. (Pronounce first e as in men). "The memory pursued him as a Nemesis.

Malfeasance; misconduct in public office; the doing of something wrong. "The council accused the director of malfeasance."

Illustrated Talk For Dubuque Alumni

Residents of this area who have attended the University of Dubuque are among Chicago-area alumni invited to an evening entertainment April 1 in Evanston. The program is scheduled for 8 p.m. in the youth lounge of the First Presbyterian church of Evanston.

Illustrating his talk with colored slides, Homer Ogle of 1035 Maple st., Evanston will tell the group of his experiences while living in the Near East.

A musical program is being arranged.

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

Q. Is it proper for a man, who meets a woman on the street and who removes his hat in greeting her, to keep his hat in his hand during any conversation he might have with the woman?

A. No. He may, however, assist an elderly woman by taking her arm, and he may guide any woman companion when crossing streets or assist her in ascending or descending stairways.

Q. How does one "tackle" a whole-fish served at the dinner table?

A. First cut off the head and tail, and put to one side of your plate. Run the knife the length of the fish, just above the backbone, so the fish separates in two parts. Remove the backbone, now exposed, placing it also on one side of the plate. If you get a small bone in your mouth, remove it as quietly as possible with your fingers, using your napkin as a casual shield.

Q. Should a hostess always provide new cards at a bridge party?

A. It isn't necessary to furnish new cards, but the hostess must be sure that the cards provided are immaculate and in good condition.

Q. Is it necessary that one bid each person goodby individually when leaving a group of persons to whom one has just been introduced?

A. No; one cordial "good-by" can include the entire group.

Q. On which arm of her father should a bride proceed down the aisle of a church?

A. On his right arm.

Q. Please give some tips on the giving of a buffet supper.

A. Anytime between five and eight p.m. Hot dishes, salads, rolls, appetizers, dessert and beverages are served. The dishes, napkins and silverware are placed on the table with the food, and the guests help themselves. This is a good way to entertain a large gathering without maid service.

Q. Do good manners today disapprove of tinted stationery for informal correspondence?

A. No, provided the shades are not too garish. Men, of course, should stick to white stationery.

Q. When giving an informal dinner, how should the invitations be issued?

A. Either by brief note, or over the telephone.

Q. While confined in a hospital, many of my friends brought me gifts. I have thanked most of these persons either personally or over the phone. Is it necessary for me to write them each a "thank you" note?

A. Only to those you have not thanked personally.

Q. Is it proper for a married woman to use her maiden name as a middle name after she is married?

A. Yes, this is the established custom. In other words, Dorothy Ruth Smith marries John Henry Jones, and she then becomes Dorothy Smith Jones.

Q. Is it all right for a young man, who has just become engaged, to break the news to all his friends?

A. The announcement of an engagement is the inalienable right of the bride-elect. A young man should not tell even his intimate friends until after the young lady has announced it, either formally or informally, to her friends.

Q. From which side should one properly sit down in his chair at the dinner table?

A. From whichever side is more convenient.

Q. What should a person do when he has completed introducing two persons?

A. He should try immediately to draw the two new acquaintances into conversation.

Q. When cheese is served with apple pie, should it be eaten with the fork or the fingers?

A. Usually it's more convenient to eat it with the fork. But it's not improper to pick it up with the fingers if you choose.

Q. Is it always necessary that a chaperon be a married woman?

A. No; any woman of mature years may serve in this capacity.

Q. Can you give some information on the giving of shower parties?

A. These may be formal or informal, and invitations may be writen or telephoned. The nature of the shower, which governs the gifts, is specified on the invitation. Refreshments may be simple or elaborate, as desired. The party may be held either in the afternoon or evening. Some form of entertainment, usually games, is provided, unless the party is in the nature of a reception.

Q. Should hard cheese and pickles be eaten with the fingers or fork?

A. Hard cheese is eaten with the fingers. Small whole pickles may be eaten with the fingers. Mixed pickles are usually eaten with the fork.

Q. Is it correct to have a monogram engraved on the envelope of social stationery?

A. No; the monogram should be engraved only on the note paper.

Q. Does a man, who is dining alone in a restaurant, always rise when a woman stops at his table to speak to him?

A. Usually—but this isn't a hard-and-fast rule. If seated in a corner at a table which is cramped for space, he would be in error to think he had to struggle to his feet and awkwardly remain standing.

Q. Is it obligatory that bride give the bridegroom a gift on their wedding day?

A. While not obligatory, it is customary for the bride to give the bridegroom some sort of personal gift.

Q. Is it necessary that a pallbearer at a funeral wear a black suit?

A. No; any dark business suit is appropriate.

Q. What is expected of the bride's parents when the bridegroom's parents are strangers and are coming from out of town for the wedding?

Q. The bride's parents should help them find accommodations and show them every courtesy possible. This does not mean, however, that they have to invite them to stay in their home or even to pay for the hotel.

Q. If individual salt and pepper shakers are not used on the dinner table, how many should be provided?

A. For the sake of convenience, salt and pepper shakers should be placed between every two covers.

Q. What is the correct way to address a letter to a friend whose husband has recently passed away?

A. The same as always—"Mrs. Frank W. Masterson."

Q. Is it proper to take a gift to a "farewell party" for a friend who is leaving for military service?

A. If you are a very close friend of that man and are able to give him a gift you know he can use, it is quite all right. But this is not expected of you.

Cubs Decide One Man They'll Never Trade Is Ernie Banks

The Chicago Cubs wouldn't trade Ernie Banks for any shortstop in baseball today. And no wonder. If he isn't the best in the business right now, he's going to be very shortly. To this opinion there are few, if any, dissenters among those watching the surprising Cubs prepare for the 1955 National league campaign.

This is the Ernie Banks who reported to the Cubs last spring with only 10 games of professional experience. Yet, he won the Cub shortstop job last year and proceeded to play every game on the 1954 schedule, and not only that but hit .275. Just two big league shortstops bettered that mark. The 22-year old Banks drove in 79 runs, tops among all shortfielders, and clouted 19 homers. Only New York's Alvin Dark bettered that, hitting 20 for the Polo Grounders.

BANKS' AMAZING season, no doubt, was a "once in a lifetime" achievement, since his only baseball experience had been in the Negro leagues. In 1953 he hit .380 for Kansas City in the Negro American league and collected 23 home runs. The Cubs purchased his contract and he finished the season with them, batting .310 in 10 games. He reported to Mesa last spring, and picked up just where he left off.

But Banks is going to get better. "He did all this," manager Stan Hack will tell you, "without any real experience. He learned plenty last year, and he'll continue to learn."

But Banks is going to get better. "He did all this." manager Banks proves this. With his speed, he should beat out a lot of bunts, so he's practicing bunting this spring. He should steal bases, so he spends time in the sliding pits at Rendezvous Park.

AS FOR HITTING, Ernie has the fastest wrists seen in baseball since Joe DiMaggio's heyday. Curve-balls, which generally prove the rookie's downfall, are Ernie's meat .What can you say about his fielding? Coach Bob Scheffing has an answer.

I don't believe I ever saw a shortstop move to either side faster than Banks. In a game against the Pirates one day, I saw him playing away over in the hole at deep short. I was about to suggest to Hack that he have him move a few steps near second for a possible double play.

"Just then, the batter tapped to the mound. I looked over to see where Banks was, and found him standing on second base, waiting for our pitcher to throw the ball."

He amazed his teammates last spring when he didn't even have a glove of his own. When the season started he borrowed one from Eddie Miksis.

Junior High Teachers Attend Conference

Five teachers from the Arlington Heights Junior high school attended the conference for Junior high school administrators and teachers last Friday and Saturday at Champaign.

The conference began with a banquet at 6 p.m., Friday. After being greeted by Dr. Lloyd Morey, president of the University of Illinois, the group heard an inspiring talk by Dr. Harl Douglass on "In-Service Training of Junior High School Personnel."

Following this session the conference divided into smaller groups to discuss various phases of the junior high program. Some of the groups were: teacher evaluation, salary schedules, teaching load, how the teacher can help in the administration of the school, and the improvement of faculty relationships.

This annual conference is one of the best of its kind in the state. Local teachers were able to bring home several ideas for their own Junior High school.

The teachers attending included: William Kyger, Frank Santelli, Robert Belle, Miss Phyllis Casselman and Miss Jane Mortorff.

Newcomers' Club To Hold Luncheon, Card Party April 13

Vote For Hoover

John F. Hoover, 626 E. Clarendon, Arlington Heights, candidate for village trustee on the Civic Service party slate in the spring election, has one vote for sure—if he waits for another 21 years.

His wife, Leona, presented him with a brand new boy Saturday afternoon. A good-sized vote, too, weighing in at 7 pounds, 6 ounces. Yes, the new baby, Mark Franklin, has a sister, 5-year old Susan.

MAC SAYS

— by G. A. McElroy

THE RULES REVISION in basketball we mentioned last week as recommended by the national coaches association did not materialize. Instead, there were some changes aimed to correct the faults referred to. The bonus rule stays and applies to fouls the entire game. Last year there were two free throws on all fouls in the last three minutes.

— However, a flagrant technical foul calls for two throws but of course this entirely based on the interpretation of the referee.

In college and AAU ball the free throw lane is to be widened from six to 12 feet. The three second rule for players on offense in this area will make it very tough for tall pivot men to operate close to the basket. It will further open up the game but will aid the defense considerably.

Another rule makes the five second possession rule apply to dribblers. The old rule called for a jump ball when an offensive player held onto the ball for five seconds within a one yard guarding distance of a defensive player.

Dribbling such as you saw Lazanbee of Pinckneyville do in the state tournament in an attempt to stall will result in jump ball situations after five seconds.

WE THINK THE RULES CHANGE too much in basketball. We think the worst result is to bring about worse officiating. Basketball is a habit game and officiating has to operate somewhat the same way. However, those prophets of doom who think the game is going to the dogs and will lose popularity through rules changes should read an excerpt from the Illinois high school association monthly magazine which we are taking the liberty of reprinting as follows:

"Every time any major change in the rules or any variation in the basketball play pattern puts in its appearance, there is the inevitable, 'it will kill the game.' So it was when the rules makers drew the 10-second division line, when they abolished the center jump and when they took away the glory of attempting all free throws from the free throw specialist. The same cry probably prevailed when they limited players to five on a side and outlawed the mayhem which occurred in an attempt to secure possession of an out of bounds ball. The game was certainly on its last tottering legs when the fan-shaped back board and the molded ball were introduced. Obituaries were ready to read three weeks after the '1 and 1' was introduced. With the new bonus penalty, the prophets of doom have again ticketed the game to the coroner within a year.

"As a matter of fact, the game of basketball has many more lives than all the cats and kittens that were carried to St. Ives. It will never be killed, regardless of what rules makers, players, coaches and radio and television may do to it.

"God's gift to the elongated frame and nimble fingers will die only when a better game comes along and relegates basketball to the attic, alongside the mah-jongg set. Increased player participation, more teams, bigger gymnasiums and greater public interest is proof positive that old Doc Naismith invented a pretty long-lived sort of round ball game."

COACH WELTY WAS ONE of the happiest coaches we have seen in a long time Saturday night when his Palatine track team walked away with the new class "C" division of the Oak Park indoor relays. It was a well deserved honor for the Palatine coach and athletes who have been working hard the past six weeks and developing fast, in spite of not having an indoor track for their practicing.

The Pirates have a head start on all the schools their size and smaller in the immediate area for outdoor track which opens in another week.

The Pirates, in their first real indoor season, took second in a five team invitational meet at the University High of Chicago, beat Arlington Heights while losing to Maine in a triangular at Des Plaines, took 9th in the Naperville Relays among 15 schools, beat Leyden at Franklin Park in a dual meet, and Saturday climaxed the season at Oak Park by winning a fine trophy. The Pirates stamp themselves as the team to beat in "B" class of their own relays April 30.

WE THINK THE OLD SAYING Indiana is the basketball capitol of the world is completely out of date. Illinois is the state which produces the most college basketball talent through its high school program. Sufficient evidence should be produced in the fact that Iowa finishing first in the Big Ten, had all Illinois boys except one among their top 10 while Illinois finished third with an all Illinois lineup.

Illinois has all their boys returning next year. Iowa loses only Deacon Davis of Freeport. Both have excellent freshman material from Illinois with new boys coming up capable of breaking into the first team lineup according to reliable sports reporters.

Arlington Must Rebuild Before Glenbard Game

by BOB PADDOCK

Downers Grove all the way!

That sums the prospects for the coming West Suburban conference baseball race which starts Monday when Arlington plays host to Glenbard.

Wet diamond may move the game to Glen Ellyn, but as of Wednesday morning the contest will be played at 2 p. m. Monday at Recreation park.

Defending champion Downers has 8 of 9 regulars back and should win in a breeze. But determined to make a tight race of it are about 5 schools within the league, including Arlington, which finished in a tie for second with York last season.

The champs, though, had a 13-0 record, with the Cardinals hauling down 9-5.

FIRST WORKOUT outdoors for Coach Howie Lester's Cardinals was slated for this week. To date only tossing the ball around by the batterymen has been possible, with a few exceptions. Senior lettermen are available at first, third and in the outfield.

Big question will be pitching. Batteries are rated most important positions of any in high school baseball. A weak pitching staff, and a weak catcher, means lost games in spite of any batting prowess of the rest of the team.

And therein lies the outlook of the Heights nine. There are no lettermen available at either position. Here are prospects, by positions:

STAN FLETCHER, 6' 1" senior, heads the list of catchers. He caught a considerable number of games last season, can also pitch, is a good hitter and thrower.

Jack Ebert, 5' 7" junior, was regular soph catcher last year, is a "pepperpot," fair thrower, good hitter. He's fast on the bases, can also play infield well.

Miles Nelson, 6', 180-pound junior, has Junior Legion ball experience. Jim Knaus, 6' 3" 210-pound senior, also played Junior Legion ball.

ON THE MOUND is Bob Charles, 5' 10" senior, only lefthander among veteran pitchers. He will be relied upon to give stability to the twirling staff, is a curve ball thrower.

Doug Winkelman, 6' 2" senior, right handed, only other veteran, is a fastball thrower. Doug needs to develop better control, is improving rapidly, can play the outfield and is a good hitter.

Ron Kremer, 6' senior, righthanded, transfer from New York, has size and speed. Ron could help the mound staff tremendously, is also a competent first baseman.

BOB GETTS, 5' 10" junior, a righthander, was regular pitcher for the sophomores last year. Bob has a fine fastball and average control.

Alan Smeby, 5' 8" junior, was regular on soph staff last year, has good control both on curve

Baseball workouts on the inside have been the order of the day for Coach Claude Bailey's diamond hopefuls at Palatine high school before good weather sets in and the boys can move outside. The cement upper level of the gym is an ideal place for infield practice and the boys have been making the most of it.

This foursome holds the lead in competition for starting infield spots for the opener at Niles April 6. Around the infield are Ronald Stejskal, 3b, Bob Kolze, ss, Dave Schutz, 2b, and Bob Coats, 1b. Schutz is the only senior letterman in the group, the others all juniors. —Staff Photo

Russ, Bill and John will once again coach the outdoor track squads at Arlington Heights high school with the first meet slated for Libertyville Monday, April 4. Head coach Attis, smirking at the left, is thinking about that opener while weight coach Beckman, in the center, is all smiles as he repeats the marks of his weightmen. At the right is frosh-soph coach Ligon, happy over the performance of his high jumping sophomore duo, Bill Palmer and Stan Norman. —Staff Photo

4 Lettermen, 8 Others Out For Pirate Golf

Coach Art Zimmer has 12 Palatine high golf candidates impatient to get out for some practice in preparation for a 17 meet schedule which opens against Leyden at White Pines golf course Wednesday, April 13. The Pirates have 13 dual matches and 2 triangulars along with the state district tournament and the Northwest Conference tourney.

Leading the list of golf candidates will be John Goetz, who last summer ranked second to "Hardie" Hodgson, Inverness class "A" champ, in the Labor day weekend 72 hole tournament. Goetz is expected to be one of the better golfers in the area.

OTHER VARSITY lettermen are Noel Anderson, Fred Breitling, and John Goodwillie all of whom are juniors. Roger Florey, senior, is a minor award winner last year and Bob Engelhardt, sophomore, won freshman numerals in golf. Other candidates are Dave French and Paul Manning, juniors; Jason Morgan, sophomore; and Geoffrey John, Michael Miller, and Edward Boehm, freshmen. As far as possible Palatine will play both varsity and frosh-soph matches.

Through the interest and cooperation of the Inverness Golf Club the high school squad will be afforded the opportunity to play their home matches and have some practice sessions at Inverness. All the April matches have been scheduled away from home and those played in May will be at Inverness.

37 Out For Card Tennis

"The indoor season" for Arlington Heights high school tennis team began and ended in a special assembly Tuesday morning when Claire and Marty Riessen put on a net exhibition before the students.

They demonstrated various strokes, had a ball throwing machine along (that didn't work), played a couple of games, then took on beginners John Sujack and Jim Summers for a few brief points.

OTHERWISE, old man weather has been dictating when the Heights squad of 37 could (and couldn't) practice.

Comparatively young sport at Heights has the greatest number in history reporting, though most of the boys have no experience whatever. Lew Gordon, Bern Schnyder and John Kudla are the experienced threesome. Senior Jack Riggs is out for the first time and may be of help.

Rest of the squad is made up of juniors and underclassmen, a healthy situation for future tennis teams. Opening meet is slated for April 15 at Niles.

Start Work On Beverly Lanes

Beverly Lanes! That is the name of the new 16-alley bowling establishment in Arlington Heights located just east of Arlington Seating, on Hickory st.

Remodeling operations of S and S Woodworkers have started with installation of latest equipment, including fully automatic spotters, scheduled for the middle of summer.

ED SANDER and Walter Schwaller, owners of Beverly Lanes, are putting in the latest in bowling equipment and indicate league reservations are almost completely filled. Included in the plans are the ultra-new under-the-floor ball returns.

These will be the first installed anywhere and will have the ball returning to the bowlers by the seats instead of down that long obstacle between alleys of the past.

Application for liquor license is pending before the Arlington Heights village board. No lunch facilities or air conditioning are planned for the present, until owners recognize a need for them. (SP

Iowa Wrestler

Don Kincaid, 303 N. Hale st., Palatine, participated in the NCAA meet in Ithaca, N. Y., Friday and Saturday with Iowa's wrestling team, Iowa finished 6th. Don is a junior at the University.

Start Work On New Alleys At Rand And 83

The first spade was turned for the new 16-alley bowling establishment at junction of Rand road and route 83 this week, according to Jack Gunnell, new owner of the property.

The alleys will have Brunswick fully-automatic spotters, will be air conditioned, and will be in a new building attached to the former Sobie restaurant and cocktail lounge.

Managing the alleys will be John Ribando, who is already taking league reservations from 7-8 p.m. at CLearbrook 3-0426.

BIG PLANS for the alleys, with Gunnell's construction company men doing the work, include remodeling the present restaurant into a modern, attractive cocktail lounge with dining and banquet rooms and attached air-conditioned 145x100 bowling alley addition scheduled to be in operation in time for next season.

Original hopes were for July 1 opening, but that date is impossible now. Fully automatic spotters will be one of the first such installations in the suburban area. Parking space will be provided.

For the benefit of those interested in figures, the entire deal of property, construction, remodeling, alleys and spotters, will be around $400,000, including the spotters at $7,000 apiece.

Gunnell already owns El-Rando tavern-restaurant, also at the corner of Rand and route 83, just west of the new establishment.

Rob Roy Ladies Golf League To Hold Spring Luncheon April 20

Rob Roy ladies golf league will hold its annual spring luncheon April 20 at 12:30 p.m. at the Morton house. Golf competition will open May 19.

Officers of the league this season are: Mrs. Fran Chipley, president; Mrs. Lottie Borgardt, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Mariann Cherney, handicap chairman; Mrs. Genene Zoellick, assistant handicap chairman; Mrs. Ella Rosanono, second league chairman and Mrs. Lorraine Wells, rules chairman.

Both Bensenville And Palatine On The Road

Northwest conference baseball season is due to open next week Friday as the league has a 14 game home and home arrangement with two games a week from April 8 to May 24. This year two games will be played on each date with varsity and frosh-sophs playing at different locations.

Palatine opens with the varsity at Wauconda and the frosh-sophs meeting the Wauconda under classmen on the home diamond. Last season Antioch and Grayslake tied for the championship with Glenbrook, third. All three are expected to make strong bids this year.

GRAYSLAKE lost only their league leading pitcher, Jay Hook, among their regulars. Glenbrook is especially well fortified with veterans at all positions. Little is known of the strength of the other teams except that Palatine has only Tom Hillesheim as a sure fire starter. Hillesheim hurled wins over the three top teams in the league but the Pirates finished in the second division.

Bensenville was at the bottom of the pack a year ago and is expected to have a much improved team as most of the regulars are returning. It is safe to say that none of the teams will be in condition to start a strenuous schedule with cold weather greatly restricting opportunities for practice.

PALATINE OPENS the season with a non-conference game at Niles next Wednesday.

60 Candidates For Frosh Baseball

Arlington's freshman baseball candidates, 60-strong, moved outside Wednesday, the first time this season. An attempted workout last week was shortened to 5 minutes by the cold.

Coach Maurice Klotz reports sole activity to date has been throwing by the batterymen. Opener is scheduled for North Chicago April 19.

Awarded Letter At Carleton College

Dick McAuliffe, Carleton college sophomore from Arlington Heights, was awarded a varsity basketball letter Monday night, March 21, at the annual winter sports banquet held in the Carleton tea room for members of the "C" Club.

His letter was one of 51 awarded to members of Carleton winter sports teams. Thirty-five freshmen received numberals.

Highlight of the evening was the speech by Wes Fesler, former University of Minnesota football coach, who is currently announcing sporting events over Minneapolis radio station WDGY.

West Suburban Loop Alums Score Points

Former West Suburban league tracksters are key figures on the Northern Illinois state track team this year.

A quartet of boys from that high-school league scored 17 points in the Huskies' recent indoor meet with Milwaukee teachers. Former Maine township stars Jim Shoemaker and John Kilcullen accounted for 11 of these points. Kilcullen won the two-mile run and placed third in the mile, while Shoemaker won the shot put.

Tom Skubich of Hinsdale placed second in the high hurdles and tied for second in the low hurdles. Third place in the broad jump went to Cliff Voss of Riverside.

Pat Brownell, 6' sophomore, was a regular on the frosh staff last year, has a good fast ball, can also play outfield.

John Sujack, 6' junior, a southpaw, was a regular on the sophomore team last year, has excellent fastball and curve. John can double in outfield, is an excellent hitte.

GERALD GARLISCH, 6' junior, is a righthanded transfer student from York. Ron Ashley and Jim Summers, both juniors, are both right handers being groomed for pitchers. Both boys have good fast balls. Ashley is a fine outfielder and Summers a competent third baseman. Both are consistent hitters.

At first base are listed lettermen Dave Lynk, Dick Siech and Jon Busse. Dave stands 6' 4", weighs 215 lbs., is a good hitter, can field well and shifts about first like a true veteran.

Siech, 6' 3" 190-pound junior, is out for baseball for the first time. Busse, likewise, is a senior with no experience, stands 6' and weighs 170. Pitchers who can double at first include Kremer and Sujack.

LARRY FISCHER heads a group of candidates for second base, is a 5' 8" 140-pound senior. Larry was a reserve last season, a regular with Junior Legion, is a good fielder and hitter.

Don Butts, 5' 10" 150-pound junior, is a transfer from Tulsa, played Junior Legion ball out there.

Dick McGrath, 5' 8" 165-pound junior, is a transfer from Michigan, was a regular his sophomore year. Pete Barnes, 5' 10" 160-pound junior, is a transfer from Wheaton high school, also plays first base.

AT SHORT two boys are listed. Bob Harrington, 6' 2" 165-pound junior was a regular last year with the sophomores and Junior Legion. He's a fast thrower and good fielder, a good hitter.

Jim Laughlin, 5' 9" 165-pound senior, was a reserve last year, is a fair hitter, good fielder, has a strong arm.

Dick France, 5' 10" 160-pound senior, heads third base candidates, is a letterman, good, fast infielder. Dick has a strong arm, a hustler, good hitter.

Jim Summers, 6' 175 junior, regular with sophs last year, has a strong arm.

IN THE OUTFIELD are listed eight boys. Denny Maher, 5' 8" 150 pound senior letterman, is an excellent outfielder, fair hitter, has good speed.

Ron Ashley, 6' 150-pound junior, is a good fielder and thrower, a fair hitter.

Dan Vittum, 6' 165-pound sophomore, was an outstanding hitter last season as a freshman with the sophs, is a good fielder. He has a nice arm, played Junior Legion ball.

Gerry Sauter, 5' 8" 150-pound senior letterman, is a fair hitter, good fielder, bats lefthanded.

A complete rebuilding is in order with a successful record dependent upon transfers and adjusting to varsity baseball.

On Southern Trip

A 17-man squad has been named for the Northern Illinois state teachers college southern basebal trip by head coach Ralph McKinzie. The Huskies will leave for New Orleans, La., Friday and play their first game with Loyola of the South Monday, April 4.

The squad includes 6 pitchers, 2 catchers, 5 infielders and 4 outfielders. Seven members of the team were on the 1954 southern trip.

The traveling squad this year includes Bob Baker, Arlington Hts., a pitcher.

Arlington Wrestlers Dine, Given Letters

Arlington Heights high school varsity wrestlers officially closed the year Saturday night when they dined at the home of Coach Dick Mudge. The boys named Al Rose most improved grappler, and Jack Ebert captain for next year. Vic Carlino was previously selected honorary captain for this past season.

Letters were awarded to varsity boys earning them, including Ralph Carlino, Vic Carlino, Ed Beier, Ken Bredfeldt, Jack Ebert, Walter Mulso, John Heintz, Floyd Burns, Al Rose, Bruce Wilkerson and Ken Piepenbrink. Manager's letter was awarded Marty Hacker with John Landmeier receiving a minor letter.

Other guests at the dinner include Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hutton, "muscle man," frosh-soph coach and Mrs. Maurice Kellogg, and Wheaton coach John Sawyer.

COMPLETE RECORD of the wrestlers showed a 13-1 mark for the varsity, 9-5 for the frosh-sophs.

Brick Bauer gets ready to put up some of the duck houses built by Northwest Towns sportsmen's club at a site near New Boston, Illinois, in the effort to save wood ducks for hunters. Best sites are in trees over or not more than 250 yards from the water. The water should be secluded quiet lakes, swamps, ponds or wooded creeks away from any public highway. These nesting sites will mean at least 10 more ducks, per year, per house with the quantity multiplying each season. —Staff Photo

List Entries Card Track Opener April 4

Arlington Heights high school trackmen open the outdoor season Monday, April 4, at Libertyville after less than 1 week of outdoor workouts. A second meet Thursday of next week is scheduled with Maine.

Local entries in the dashes are hard to pick, with just 1 workout under the sun up to Tuesday of this week. Thirty-one boys have reported to co-coaches Russ Attis and Bill Beckman.

LARRY LONG and Dave Schimmel are expected to jump the high hurdles, with Long and Carl Coffman named for the lows. Harrison Kennicott and Tom Totzke have been picked for the sprints, with Bill Lussow running the quarter and Ray Hornbostel the half.

In the mile it will probably be John Sheppard, Ronald Garr and John Landmeier.

THE BROAD JUMP has 2 available, with Bill Randag out temporarily due to a "non-track" acquired sprained ankle. Wallace Anderson and Dave Schimmel, the latter hitting 19, are listed.

Bill Palmer, Stan Norman, Long and Schimmel have been named in the high jump. Lew Green and Pritchard both pole vault about 9½'-10'.

880 relay will probably include Kennicott, Dick Malcomson, Totzke and George Buechner.

MILE RELAY has Lussow, Hornbostel, Ken Korcek, and Schimmel listed.

Jack Johnston and Dennis Striegel head the group in the shot, both of them tossing the weight close to 50'. Also named are John Lukan, whose best effort has been 44'2½", and Carl Klehm, who has 44'2" to his credit.

Jack Webber, freshman who has put the shot 36'6", will also compete.

In the discus will be Wayne Mueller, Johnston, Lukan and Klehm.

Snack Time

Oil tanker crews have healthy appetites. A supertanker may take on board at each loading 2,500 pounds of meat, 1,400 pounds of potatoes, 400 dozen eggs and 300 pounds of coffee to keep her 48-man crew "in the pink."

Defending Champ Downers Grove Has 7 Lettermen

by CARL J. PANEK

Seven of the nine Trojans who last year took the West Suburban league baseball championship with a 13-0 record, will kick off the season Thursday in a non-conference tilt against Joliet Catholic at 4 p.m. in Joliet.

Last year, the team lost only one game, a non-WSC battle to Hinsdale, 7-5, in the district tournament.

Seven of the starting nine have returned to aid the champs. Don Extrom, the locals' former star third baseman, was the only '54 starter to graduate. The only other regular from that team unable to return, is senior Eddie Kuch, who was stricken by polio last summer. Ed, although fairly small, was the spark-plug of the Trojans' defensive and offensive attacks and will be a great loss to the team.

OTHER REGULARS who were outstanding last year and will be of immense aid include Larry Wyllie and Ron Baukol, two DG stars who have already shown their prowess on the basketball floor.

Tom "Bing" Prucha was tagged as potentially one of the best in the Chicago area as a sophomore. Another returning Trojan is underclassman Don Bonomini, junior center fielder.

Gordie Schlagel will hold down the catching post because of his experience there last year. Left and right fields also possess veterans from the 1954 squad. In left is George Gleim, who moved to Downers Grove from Lindblom high in Chicago late in the season and was of great aid, especially defensively. Bill Barr, one of last season's power-men, will probably occupy right field.

THE "ONE-TWO pitching punch" of Wyllie and Prucha accounted for 12 of last season's victories, both of them holding 6-0 marks. The former struck out 34 in 49 innings, walked 12, gave up 21 hits and only six runs for a very impressive record. His run average was .86 per game, including the unearned runs.

Glenbard Nine Has 9 Lettermen Back

With 6 returning lettermen forming a nucleus for a potential championship team, Coach LaVere (Liz) Astroth is optimistic about this season's Glenbard baseball nine.

The Bards will be especially strong in the "down-the-middle" positions which often make the difference between a good and a poor team. Playing these positions are Harvey Sporka, catcher; Bob Meyer and Don Patkowa, pitchers; Fred Rench, shortstop; Dave (Chico) Reichert, second base; and Bob Sylvester, center field.

The diamond men are preparing for their first encounter of the season when they will host Wheaton Thursday, March 31. Since the weather has been good recently, Coach Astroth has stepped up the outside drills.

In the workouts, the squad has shown good spirit and team morale. A host of good material from last year's frosh-soph team and a few newcomers have looked good in practice.

Palatine Wins Class C of Oak Park Relays Saturday

Palatine completed an indoor track season of five meets by winning class "C" at the 25th annual Oak Park indoor relays Saturday night. The Pirates won all five relays in their class while Leonard Wiese got a fourth in the open class mile run for a total of 52 points. There were eight schools scoring in class "B" with Naperville and Monmouth tied for second with 18 points. Coach Welty and his boys brought home a beautiful championship trophy. This was the first year that the Oak Park meet has had a "C" division for schools under 700 enrollment.

New Trier won the "A" class with 43 points followed by Oak Park 34 and Bloom 22 in a field of 18 schools. Riverside Brookfield copped class "B" for schools between 700 and 1,500 enrollment with 30 points followed by East Aurora 27 and Niles 26 in a field of 13 schools. Arlington Heights entered but did not compete in the meet.

GLENBROOK was the only other Northwest conference school entering the meet and they scored 12 points in class "B" with a first in the freshman relay and a fifth in the eight lap relay.

Palatine's relay first places were as follows: freshman relay—John Gerling, John Etchingham, Tom Gordon, Dick Wismer; 16 lap relay—Steve Cornwell, Roy Hahnfeldt, Leonard Wiese, Bruce McClung; Eight lap relay— Steve Cornwell, Alan Eck, Jim Hess, Dave Cornwell; Four lap relay—John Dilks, Dave Cornwell, Alan Eck, Jim Hess; Sprint Medley relay—Alan Eck, Jim Hess, John Dilks, and Bruce McClung.

Leonard Wiese took fourth in a section of the mile run in which Dan Irmie of Joliet broke the record with a mark of 4:32.7 and beat Jim Bowers of DeKalb the 1954 state champion. Wiese's time was 4:50.

NONE OF THE 4 Arlington boys competing in the Oak Park Relays Saturday qualified for the finals.

In the high jump Bill Palmer missed at 5'10". Stan Norman missed 5'8".

In the shot the boys had to pass 50' to qualify. Dennis Striegel tossed the weight 51' but fouled, ended with an official 47'10½". Jack Johnston threw over 50' twice, but also fouled, with an official 48'9¾".

26 Report For Soph Baseball At Arlington

Frosh-soph baseball prospects are extremely unknown at Arlington Heights high school, with no experienced catcher available and with pitching weak.

Coach "Bus" Ormsbee has reported 26 sophomores out for the sport, 2 of them already working with the varsity. Dan Vittum, outfielder, and Pat Brownell, pitcher, are with the seniors, though they may be moved back if they don't make the grade.

ONLY CATCHERS Coach Ormsbee appears to have to date are Don Plank and Steve Smith, both without experience. Batterymen have had only 1 workout to date, but were expected to start nightly sessions after Tuesday.

Five boys trying for the mound spot include 2 right handers, Jery Klement, only experienced twirler with Pony League experience, and Bob Lenz, plus 3 southpaws, Bob Miller, Avery Smith and Dan Jordan.

There are no outstanding players from last year's freshman team. Opener is at North Chicago April 19.

Well Treated

There are seven sewage treatment plants in the Sanitary District of Chicago, with a total capacity for the treatment of 1,359,000,000 gallons of sewage per day.

Little 7 League Ends Basketball

Final standings of Little 7 basketball league were released this week at a meeting of coaches last week. St. Peter of Arlington won heavyweight division while Prospect Heights took the lightweights. Both teams were undefeated through 9 contests.

Heavyweight coaches included Lester Rush at St. Peter, Tony Kusich at Prospect Heights, Richard Harris at Wheeling, Rev. Reichert at St. James, Robert Parsons at Wilson and A. Rabittini at Elk Grove. Schools having an additional coach for the lightweights included Wheeling (Marion Omistek), St. Peter (John Looek) and St. Paul (Gene Schmidtke).

Park Ridge Golf Range Opens This Week

Park Ridge golf range, 742 N. Northwest hwy., 3 blocks south of Oakton, Park Ridge, opened this week. This is the range's 10th year of promoting golf in the greater northwest area. Biff and Chuck Pancratz, Lou Steinbarth and Bob Lindquist, golf professionals, will be on duty at the range to assist golfers of the community.

Free golf instructions will be a weekly feature every Monday evening from 7 to 8 o'clock. The rudiments of the game will be explained and demonstrated by qualified PGA golf instructors.

Again this year the range will sponsor its annual free golf exhibition, which last June attracted many enthusiastic golfers. Illinois' leading golf professionals (PGA) entertained the crowd with a 2 hour demonstration.

The Park Ridge golf range will again operate its sporty 18-hole miniature golf course and its major league baseball batting range. (SP

Pitchers To Hold Key

Ralph McKinzie, head baseball coach at Northern Illinois state teachers college, is giving special attention to his pitching staff in preparation for the Huskies opener with Lovola of the South in New Orleans (La.) April 4. McKinzie would like to see another consistent starter work his way into the Northern lineup before the southern trip.

Four lettermen are back for mound duty this year, including Bob Baker of Arlington Heights, a veteran with plenty of experience for the Huskies. Baker saw action in eight contests last year.

Not to be counted out is lefty Ron Dietzler of York.

North Cook Rural Youth Bowling Teams In District And State

North Cook rural youth bowling teams have made themselves known in district and state competition. The ladies team composed of Marian Goebbert, Marie Homeier, Loraine Plote, Esther Von Bergen and Marie Winkelmann won second place in the district meet with a team score of 1833, losing to Kane county. This team, by placin gsecond, won the right to compete in the state finals at Springfield and also placed second there by losing to Clinton county by 18 pins with a score of 1925.

The men's team composed of Earl Boesche, Ralph Boesche, James Goebbert, Roy Harbecke and George Scharringhausen won first at the district meet at Rockford with a score of 2332. However, they met with stiffer competition at the state finals and placed ninth.

Palatine Noses Out Leyden Tracksters

Palatine nosed out Leyden 50½ to 49½ in an indoor track meet at the new field house in Franklin Park last week Tuesday afternoon while the frosh-sophs were losing 59-26.

Palatine won eight first places and tied for another but Leyden scored heavily in seconds and thirds. Dave Cornwell led the Pirates with 13 points including first in the high hurdles and broad jump and second in the low hurdles. Pirate first place winners who contributed five points apiece to the Palatine total were Leonard Rohde in the shot, Dave Nesset the high jump, Alan Eck the 440, Leonard Wiese the mile, Bruce McClung the 880, and Jim Hess the 55 yard dash while Bob Fremd tied with two others in the pole vault.

Palatine was badly beaten in the frosh-soph division as Steven Mauer got the only Pirate first place. Mike Lynch took seconds in the dash and broad jump, Dick Wisner in the two lap run, and Dan Lemanski, Ken Borg, and Les Wiese tied for second in the high jump.

Lincoln Fields Now Balmoral Club

Balmoral jockey club has been chosen as the new name of the race course formerly known as Lincoln Fields.

A stakes and purses program offering over $1,100,000 to horsemen has been designed for the 30-day meeting which gets under way May 16.

The Illinois racing board will meet soon to decide on Balmoral's request to transfer the 1955 dates (May 16 through June 18) to Washington Park.

The new stable facilities at Washington Park will be virtually completed and ready for opening-day, contingent upon Illinois racing board approval.

One of the conditions of the purchase of the Lincoln Fields property by the new owners was that Arlington-Washington's organization assist in managing affairs of the new corporation.

Champion Benrook Randy, top winning Miniature Schnauzer, owned by Mrs. Maryann Vann of Belvedere Kennels, Algonquin rd., Barrington, won best of breed at American Miniature Schnauzer club specialty; and best opposite sex at Westminster at New York in February. Randy's show record also includes best in show, two best American bred in show, six best American bred Terrier, and 13 group placings, and 25 best of breed. Randy will be carrying the Belveldere colors at the International Ampitheater April 2 and 3. Mrs. Vann has recently acquired a bewitching black schnauzer.

Blackhawks Bow Out Of Basketball In Tourney Loss

The jinx that has followed the Wheeling Blackhawks throughout the last 4 years failed to let up last Wednesday evening, when the locals bowed out of the McHenry county tournament, 81 to 70, at the hands of the Wauconda Tigers. The jinx is that the 'Hawks have never been able to defend a title won the previous year.

In the opening quarter, it looked as if the 'Hawks were on the way to their opening round win when they pulled ahead of Wauconda, 25-17. The first quarter spurt was headed by Vic "Bevo" Heimsoth's 10 points. In the second quarter, paced by Cliff Fulton, Wauconda moved right back in the ball game to go out at intermission trailing by one point. The score being 40-39, Blackhawks.

AS SECOND half got under way, the 'Hawks moved out on Wauconda by 11 points, only to have the Tigers come right back within 3 points by the end of the third quarter, 60-57. The 2 clubs played even-up ball early in the fourth period of play, but then the 'Hawks lost the services of Vic Heimsoth, who had scored 19 points in the first 3 quarters, via the foul route. Wauconda gained the lead shortly afterward and moved away to go out winning, 81 to 70.

Top scoring honors went to Cliff Fulton of Wauconda with 28 points on 10 baskets and 8 charity throws. Runner-up honors went to Bill Becknell of Wauconda and Vic Heimsoth of the 'Hawks with 19 points each. Gino Dal Ponte of the 'Hawks had 17.

THE 'HAWKS' record for the year was 17 wins and 8 set-backs and gives them an over-all record of 128 wins and 56 defeats in their 7 year history.

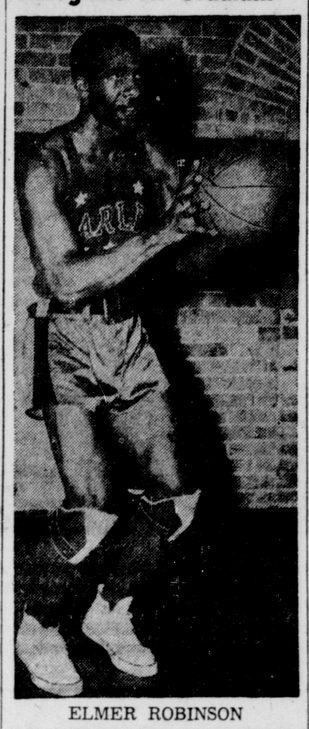
Globetrotters To Meet Collegians At Stadium



ELMER ROBINSON

Basketball's final and most elaborate presentation of the season will be unfurled at Chicago Stadium Sunday, April 3, when the famous Harlem Globetrotters meet the 1955 College All-Americans in an afternoon-evening doubleheader.

The Globetrotters, undefeated in their 163-game regular season, are playing their sixth annual cross-country series against the pick of the nation's college seniors.

First Trapshoot

Maywood sportsmens club, located on DuPage County Line road, ½ mile north of Lake st., Elmhurst, will hold the first trapshoot Sunday, April 3.

Shooting will begin at 9 a.m. and will continue throughout the day.

The club is serving an "all you can eat" pancake breakfast from 8 a.m. until noon for shooters and their families at a charge of $1 per person. "Chief Cook" is Dr. M. B. Hattenhauer, Maywood dentist and noted amateur chef.

Libertyville Eyes Lake For Water

Libertyville has taken an option on Liberty Lake, an abandoned gravel pit on the east village limits.

The village hopes to purchase it to supplement the public water supply system.

Determined To Make Boxing Grade This Time

One member of the Chicago intercity Golden Gloves team who is certainly looking forward to his match with New York in the Stadium the night of March 31 is Richard Wall, the welterweight champion.

In 1953, Wall, representing Oklahoma City, captured the Chicago 147 pound but lost his intercity bout on a decision. In 1954, Wall came back to the Tournament of Champions as Tulsa's candidate only to lose out in quarter-finals. This year he scored two knockouts and three decisions as he regained his title. He is 19 years old and a Naval ROTC student at the University of Oklahoma.

HIS OPPONENT from New York is scheduled to be Jimmy Archer. Archer is 20 years old, a resident of the Bronx and employed as a longshoreman. In 1954 he reached the semi-finals of the New York tourney. In this year's Golden Gloves, Archer scored four decisions and four knockouts.

In the light heavyweight class, Eddie Jenkins of Detroit, will represent Chicago against John Horne of New York. Jenkins, a former Army paratrooper, won the 1954 All-army 175 pound championship. He is 22 years old and is employed as a painter for an automobile manufacturer. His Golden Gloves record is four decisions and a TKO.

HORNE WAS a member of the Chicago intercity team in 1953 as a representative from St. Louis.

Georgia Rabbit Stew

Three tips of our fur-lined hunting cap to the originator of this rabbit dish! It's called Georgia rabbit stew but don't let any Cracker state claims dissuade you. We tried it on a couple of young cottontails that never came within several hundred miles of Georgia and doubt if rabbit from anywhere could taste better

Cut rabbits in serving pieces and soak 1 or 2 hours in salt water, drain, dry and brown quickly in dutch oven in 6 tablespoons hot fat.

Remove meat and in remaining fat saute until tender 3 medium onions cut fine, 2 minced cloves of garlic and ½ cup diced celery. Blend in 2 tablespoons flour, then add ½ cup water, ½ cup pear juice, ½ cup pineapple juice, 1 teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon pepper, ¼ teasoon thyme and 2 four-oz. cans of mushrooms (including liquid). Bring mixture to a boil, then simmer several minutes. Return rabbit to kettle, cover and simmer 30 to 40 minutes, or until meat is tender.

Come and Go

Visitors always make us happy; some when they come and some when they go.

Redwings Speed Workouts, But Not Outside Yet

Despite a temporary setback in the form of unseasonably (?) cold weather plans for longer and harder workouts are complete for the Redwings baseball team. Less than one month remains before the first real test in the league competition and a real test it should be.

If the Skokie Indians have time to get ready for a May 1st game, the Redwings will be their opponents at Oakton park in Skokie.

Scotty Krier is sponsor of the Skokie team, has been in semipro baseball for over 35 years and has won more championships than any other Chicago area sponsor. The Indians were league champs in 1953 and came close in 1954. Scotty expects to regain the title this year. All Skokie players are salaried players but Redwing manager Bud Blumenthal promises the Arlington club will be every bit as good even though each man plays and practices without pay.

PRESENT PLANS also call for two or three intra-squad games for the Redwings and simulated games in other workouts. These will probably start within two weeks — weather permitting.

Last Saturday several batterymen worked out indoors and pitching prospects look bright.

Caliber of play should rank with the finest both for the home club and the visitors.

League and state champion Kolski Boosters will open at Heights May 8.

The game with the Skokie Indians is still in the talking stage but should take place in Skokie a week earlier.

Auto Racing Program

Cy Hooper, well known auto racing publicist and track announcer begins a new 26 week series of hour long programs on radio station WTAQ at 5 p.m., Saturday, April 2.

The program will feature interviews with top race drivers and auto racing figures. Auto racing news from around the world and popular music round out the program. A regular feature will be live music supplied by small progressive jazz combos.

Australian Aborigines Dislike Clothes, Utensils, Civilization

by BILL DILLINGHAM

Bathing with soap and water is a custom of modern civilization which many Australian aborigines frown upon. Among other things, they reason, mosquitoes only bite people who wash.

On the border between the Northern Territory and South Australia there is a tribe of about four-hundred aborigines who are estimated to be leading the most primitive existence of any people in the world today.

They wear no clothing whatsoever. This means, of course, that they have no clothes to mend or to wear out, and no problem in getting them. During the winter nights in their area, the temperature frequently falls to below freezing! Even this, however, does not lead them from nudism. They sleep between two fires that are kept alive all night, protected by windbreakers made of sticks, grass and leaves.

AUSTRALIAN MEDICAL authorities try to explain the aborigines' unusual ability to keep warm without clothing by suggesting that these natives have a special mechanism in their skin. This "special mechanism"—as the laymen hereabouts call it—has either been developed by this particular tribe of aborigines, or else it is standard equipment on all humans which will function provided they are reared from birth without clothing. Just which of these two explanations is the correct one gains many an hour of discussion from local white Australians.

In character, these people are extremely honest and they seem to be reacting happily to their environment of complete security. Their children live more or less as members of the entire community, and not separated so distinctly into family groups. Junior can squat down to lunch wherever he sees something good to eat.

POSSIBLY the most unusual aspect of this people's life is their ignorance of human reproduction. They literally know a great deal about the birds and bees, but nothing about the role of the father in parenthood.

They believe that tiny spirit children, who usually inhabit rocks and boulders, creep out and go looking for a woman whom they would like as a mother. Once selected, the woman becomes pregnant. Other explanations that white men have given to these people for pregnancy, oddly enough, have been rejected so far as mere superstition.

THIS TRIBE of aboriginies is also somewhat unorthodox in its eating habits. On their menu one finds lizards, kangaroos, grass, seeds, dogs and cats. They are particularly fond of ants, a species of which carry honey in their abdomens.

Aborigine children who behave themselves are fed these ants with much the same spirit that American mothers give their sons lolly-pops.

Augustana Choir In Chicago Concert

tion of Henry Veld will present its annual concert at Orchestra hall Friday evening, April 1, at 8:15 p. m.

The concert will conclude a tour of the east which included performances at Symphony hall in Boston and Carnegie hall in New York.

Mr. Veld, who conducted the 2,000 voice choir at the convocation of the world council of churches assembly held at Soldier Field last summer, is well known in this area as a director of the Apollo musical club of Chicago.

Mothers' club will hold its monthly meeting Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the school. In addition to the regular meeting there will be election of officers for the coming school year. There will also be a white elephant sale. Each mother is requested to bring any number of guests she desires.

Weekend guests of the Stan Luczaks were Michael Scussel and Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Johns of Canton, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Garry and Penny of Crystal Lake and C. R. Wood of Fox River Grove visited with the Charles Jevne family Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Kenneth Hartman of Seegers rd. and 2 of her close friends, Mrs. Ritter and Mrs. Ainswarth, went down to see the television show, "Hi, Ladies." It was enjoyable and interesting to see the show and the many technicians at work.

The Roland Koenig family spent Sunday afternoon and evening visiting with Mrs. R. Aeberly and their children, Karen, Donny and Susy, in Elmhurst.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gorr paid a surprise visit to Mr. and Mrs. Dick Steir in Palatine Saturday evening.

Miss Juanita Graves and little Debby Graves were models in the style show at the Child Welfare luncheon last Wednesday at Faith church in Arlington Heights.

Fred Gorr family attended a musical extravaganza Sunday afternoon sponsored by the Terrana's Accordion school and held in the Beaubien school auditorium, Chicago. Their nephew, Ray Bayre, played the accordion, and their niece, Diana Sikorski, was vocalist.

The Grismer boys, Mike and Jeffry, reported to have flu last week, are recovering from a siege of measles. Last Saturday Juanita Graves injured her arm in dancing practice.

Immunization records can be completed and returned to Mrs. Eva Westberg before the end of the school term.

April 9 an election will be held at Forest View school for the purpose of selecting one school director for a 3-year-term. A caucus will be held between 11 a.m. and 12 noon, and the polls will be open from 12 noon until 5 p.m. School is governed by a board of directors consisting of 3 members, one of whose terms expires each year. All voters are urged to attend the caucus and vote for the candidates of their choice. They need not be registered but must reside in the state for one year, in the county for 90 days and in the district for 30 days.

Easter vacation at Forest View school will be from Good Friday, April 8, through Monday, April 11. Classes will resume Tuesday.

Mrs. Charles Kim was under doctor's care at home on Lincoln ln. Last report she was much improved and able to be up and around.

Eugene Wuestenfeld, who is commuting to Chicago to complete high school there, has taken a part-time job at the warehouse on Rt. 83.

Mrs. Shirley Steffy is getting good experience acting as assistant to her sister, Mrs. Laverne Swiontek of Bensenville, who is den mother of a cub scout group.

Four-year-old Cheryl Kim and her cousins got too interested in matches last week and set fire to the headboard of her bed. Fortunately, the experiment was discovered before the fire could spread, and damage was confined to the bed and that caused by water and smoke in the room.

The Ted DePalmas entertained the Ernest Brezinski family Saturday evening. Both families are enthusiastic about camping trips, and an enjoyable evening was spent viewing movies of trips each family had made in previous summers.

Big fat robin in the back yard the day before the blizzard was apparently not a harbinger of spring! Last week's windstorm took its customary toll of shingles and branches, but the worst damage was to the home of the William Wuestenfelds where it loosened a window and a wall.

Mr. and Mrs. John Suarez of Lincoln ln. recently entertained their neighbor, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ostrowski and children Ellen, Steve and Dale. Entertainment was movies of their recent vacation in Mexico with vivid films of a bullfight the highlight.

Happy birthday to Carol Mayhew, who celebrates April 2.

Last week's birthdays include Richard Glass, March 21; Philip Wuestenfeld, March 23; Donald Schroeder, March 24, and Jimmy Schroeder, March 26.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schroeder and his mother drove to Crystal Lake Monday to visit relatives. They reported the evening's storm on the return trip was anything but pleasant.

Mrs. Schroeder's sister and family visited them Wednesday on their way to Chicago after an extended trip through Arizona and New Mexico.

Frank said, "Went to see Fred Seeger some time ago. He invited me in. Told him my feet were muddy. Said he, 'Don't care how muddy your feet are as long as your shoes are clean!' "

Conserving wood ducks for the benefit of hunters is one of the many projects of Northwest Towns sportsmen's club. Building and installing predator-proof nesting sites is a logical answer with local sportsmen building them in the shop of Arlington Fender and Body Shop. Here Charles Bauer attaches the stencil so name of the club can be inscribed on the houses. —Staff Photo

The Wood Duck lays an average of 10-12 eggs per clutch, with ducklings hatched 28-37 days later. In between the eggs have to be protected or the ducks will be gone. John Heintz is shown spray painting the outside of one of the group being built and installed in nesting places. Squirrels, coons, snakes and mink account for more woodies than all hunters combined. These boxes will keep those animals out. —Staff Photo

Nesting sites for wood duck houses are in the trees 15-25 feet above ground, in the open, beyond squirrel jumping distance. Cypress or cedar is used in the bottoms, is rot-proof, and should last for years. Shown installing this one, top to bottom on the ladder, Charles Bauer and Paul Anderson, while on the ground are Clair Anderson and Brick Bauer. —Staff Photo

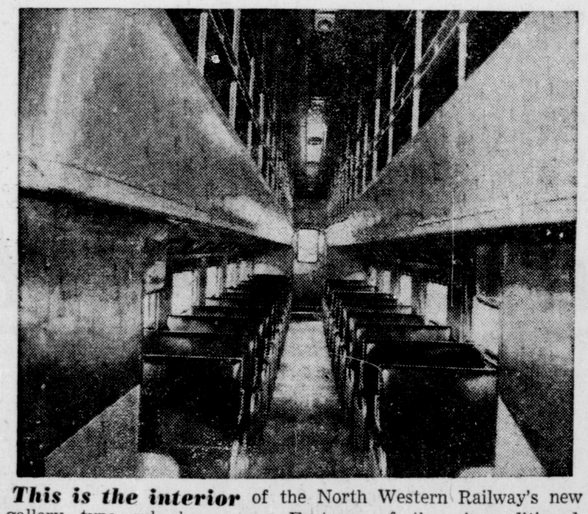
Gallery Car No. 1, the first of 16 new streamlined air-conditioned coaches of double deck design for suburban service, is being delivered to the North Western this week. Painted in the famous yellow and green of the North Western's "400" streamliner fleet, the cars are unique in seating 169 persons, thus being the largest capacity cars of any railroad equipment in the country. The sixteen cars, costing approximately $2,240,000, will be delivered at the rate of about one a week and will be assigned to suburban service on the railway's Galena, Wisconsin, and Milwaukee divisions.



This is the interior of the North Western Railway's new gallery type suburban cars. Features of the air-conditioned, streamlined cars include reversible seats upholstered in red vinyl plastic, green rubber tile floors, individual lighting, double pane safety windows. Gallery seats on the second level are accessible from the center vestibule. All fittings and hardware are of stainless steel. Storage space is provided by racks overhead in the center aisle, underneath the lower level seats.

Madie Johnson Utt Is Bride Of Tom C. Pray

Before an altar banked with bouquets of white and pink carnations, chrysanthemums and snapdragons, Madie Johnson Utt of Arlington Heights and Tom C. Pray of Des Plaines were united in marriage Saturday, March 26 at 5 p.m. in the sanctuary of First Presbyterian Church of Arlington Heights. The wedding vows were read by the Rev. Stuart Saul and nuptial music was played on the organ by Mrs. Earle Auge of Skokie.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Johnson of Arlington Heights and Mr. Pray's parents are the C. W. Prays of Fort Dodge, Ia.

For the informal double-ring ceremony, the bride chose a Dior-blue silk shantung suit and small white straw hat. Her bridal bouquet was composed of pink camellias. Her only attendant, Mrs. Myron Hartley of Mount Prospect matron of honor, wore a pale-blue linen suit and white hat. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The mother of the bride wore a dress of pink silk shantung with white hat and black patent accessories. Robert Pfaff of Fort Dodge served as best man.

A wedding dinner was served for the bridal party at the Pantry in Park Ridge immediately following the ceremony.

The bride and bridegroom are honeymooning in New Orleans and will visit in Biloxi, Miss. before returning April 10 to Des Plaines whre they will make their home.

Mrs. Pray received her degree from Purdue university, West Lafayette, Ind., and Mr. Pray, who is a graduate of Carleton college, Northfield, Minn., is connected with the Metropolitan lumber company of Chicago.

The program for the meeting will be talk by Mrs. Klopp on "Growing African Violets with the Aid of Artificial Lights."

MODERN ETIQUETTE

Q. Is it proper to smoke at a lunch counter in a drugstore or other such eating place?

A. While this is commonly done, I still cannot sanction it. In the cramped quarters of the average lunch counter, it is practically impossible to smoke without blowing some of it in the face of your neighbors, and to do this is exceedingly thoughtless and ill-bred.

Q. My husband and I have been invited to a double wedding ceremony. The one couple are very good friends, but the other we know only slightly. Are we obligated to send wedding gifts to both couples?

A. A gift to your good friends is the only requirement. Of course, a little gift to the other bride would not be improper, but it isn't expected.

Valdis Treimanis, pianist, who is teaching music at the Arlington school of music, will be the piano accompanist to the noted opera star Valdemars Salna, tenor, together with whom he will give a series of 3 concerts in New York (Carnegie Recital hall) April 1, Boston (New England conservatory of music recital hall) April 2, and Philadelphia (Incarnation church concert hall) April 3.

To carry out this heavy concert schedule within such a short time period, Treimanis will use the airplane as means of transportation throughout the whole tour, flying from one concert place to another. Tremanis is leaving for New York by plane Thursday and will return to Arlington Heights Monday, April 4, to resume teaching as usual. Treimanis is shown above, at the piano, with Salna.

Favorites For Flavor

Local gourmets will view with enthusiasm the two recipes being featured today.

They have been shared with us by Mrs. Frank N. Precilio Jr., Arlington Heights.

One is for Veal Continental, a savory dish with a truly cosmopolitan flavor. Grated Romano cheese is pounded into thinly sliced veal cutlet and the meat is cooked in boullion and wine with herbs and mushrooms. It is easy to see why this flavorful combination is a gustatory pleasure.

An additional attribute is that Veal Continental can be made in the morning and reheated and served from a chafing dish. Mrs. Precilio usually accompanies this dish with boiled rice and a salad.

While living in Philadelphia Mrs. Precilio acquired the recipe for Shrimp Lamaze, a speciality of the Warwick Hotel.

George Lamaze was at one time the chef at this Philadelphia Hotel and he originated this recipe.

A sauce or dressing, it is excellent served with shrimp (as the hotel is famous for) or any seafood, in a lobster salad, with head lettuce, over hard boiled eggs or even as a dip for potato chips.

This dressing has a distinctive flavor all of its own. The recipe makes three pints and will keep makes three pints and wi kleep indefinitely in the refrigerator. In fact, Mrs. Precilio says that the better acquainted the ingredients are, the better the flavor.

The Precilios live at 739 S. Dunton in Arlington Heights. They have two children, Frank, 19, who is a freshman at Northwestern, and Sara Jane, 12, a seventh grader at the Junior high.

Mrs. Precilio is a member of the Woman's club of Our Lady of the Wayside church and the Arlington Heights Woman's club.

Veal Continental

Sprinkle one pound thinly sliced veal cutlet with grated Romano cheese.

Pound cheese into veal as you would for Swiss steak.

Heat two tablespoons of oil in a skillet. Add one clove garlic and brown veal. Add:

Big pinch thyme
Big pinch oregano
½ can condensed boullion
¼ cup water
1-3 cup creme marsala wine (sherry wine)
1 small can sliced mushrooms
Salt and pepper

Cover and simmer for about 30 minutes. Serves four.

Shrimp Lamaze

1 pint mayonnaise
1 pint chili sauce
½ cup India relish (piccalilli)
1 chopped hard boiled egg
1 teaspoon chopped chives
½ chopped pimiento
2 tablespoons chopped celery
1 tablesoon prepared mustard
Dash of salt
Dash of black pepper
Dash of paprika
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce.

Mix ingredients together and store in refrigerator. Good with any seafood or salad. Makes three pints.

MRS. KENNETH HARTMAN

Mrs. K. D. Hartman To Serve On Horse Show Committee

Mrs. Kenneth Hartman, Seegers rd., Arlington Heights, has received an invitation from the Town and Country Equestrian association to serve on its 1955 horse show committee.

Town and Country is the only association in this area composed of horse lovers interested in all types of horses and all styles of riding. Its members and directors are interested in furthering the sport and supporting all activities in connection with riding in Chicagoland, particularly maintaining the use of bridle trails, horse show grounds and other facilities for horses and riders. The organization also encourages young riders to become more active in various Chicagoland horseshows.

Mrs. Hartman will work with S. J. Csanadi of Arlington Heights and Col. Peter Dahmlow of Hinsdale to plan the 1955 Arlington Heights 4-H fair.

7th District Juniors To Hold Last Meeting Of Season April 12

Seventh district juniors will have their last meeting of the year April 12 at 8 p.m. This meeting will be held at the Mount Prospect village hall. Junior clubs participating in this meeting will be Junior Woman's club of Des Plaines, Arlington Heights Junior Woman's cub, Rolling Meadows Junior Woman's club and the Edison park Junior Woman's club.

Waldo B. Kenworth will speak on "Stamps for the Wounded." Mr. Kenworth is the representative of Philately's volunteer service committee for "Stamps for the Wounded." Collecting stamps is the national project of the Junior Woman's club of America. These stamps will be used in hospitals throughout the country to help rehabilitate the wounded servicemen in hospitals. So far this year, Seventh District Juniors have turned in over 5,255 stamps. Anyone interested in helping the District Juniors with this project may contact the Seventh District stamp chairman, Mrs. David Nixon, VAnderbilt 4-0454.

Mrs. William Corts, parent of a blind child and Jack Norris, principal of Wheeling school, will speak briefly about the needs of the Braille classroom and tell about some of the ways the $1200 has been used for the classroom. This $1200 was from the proceeds of the Seventh District Junior's benefit last fall. Another dance has been scheduled for September 30 at Elmhurst cluntry club.

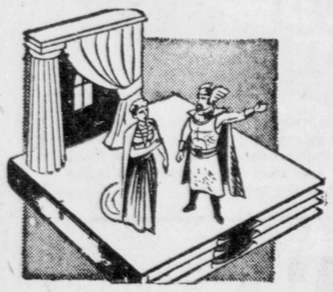
Lucia Perrigo will be another speaker on the evening's program. "Inside the Pump Room" will be the title of her talk. She will tell all about the secrets of the Pump room, located in the Ambassador East Hotel in Chicago. Miss Perrigo is public relations director for the Pump room and the Ambassadors for the Ambassador hotels in Chicago.

Also on the agenda for the evening will be elections of the junior director, treasurer and corresponding secretary. All club presidents will give reports of their respective clubs.

Delta Zeta To Hold State Day Luncheon

Delta Zeta sorority's national officers and "woman of the year" will be honored at an Illinois State day luncheon Saturday at Illinois Institute of Technology, Chicago.

Province worship sessions from 9:30 a.m. to noon and the 12:30 p.m. luncheon will be held in IIT's Common building. Mrs. R. H. Whitfield, Evanston, national secretary of the organization, will address the group at 4 p.m. after the conclusion of the workshops.



Words & Music

All My Sons
by ERICA FLOYD

Persons who braved the wind and snow Friday and Saturday evenings to form the audience for Palatine Players production "All My Sons," were amply rewarded for their loyalty.

The absorbing story was quite involved, but briefly, it concerned the Keller family whose father Joe, co-partner of a plant manufacturing airplane parts during wartime, allowed defective parts to be shipped out, thus causing the death of 21 airmen. Joe and his partner were arrested, but Joe by "being smart" was exonerated while his partner remained in jail. When they received news of their son Larry's death, Kate and Joe felt personally responsible since Larry had been in the air corps, but in trying to justify Joe's mistake they pushed reality aside and reverted to believing that Larry was still alive. Their second son, Chris, and Ann Deever, Larry's former sweetheart, were in love, but Kate exhorted Ann to "wait for Larry," while George Deever, Ann's brother, urged her to be loyal to her father, Joe's imprisoned partner, by not marrying Chris.

The characters did an excellent job in setting the mood in the first act and situations which were highly confusing were made clear as a bell in the dramatic second act. The climax of the play was the touching scene where Chris learns the truth of his father's guilt and full of the mixed emotions of pity and disgust, love and hatred for his father, stumbles off the scene sobbing. The third act was full of impact and ended with a startling pistol shot, proclaiming that Joe had committed suicide.

The realistic garden setting and the lighting created a perfect atmosphere and the make-up crew did an outstanding job.

The next door neighbor, Dr. Jim Bayliss (Paul Jensen), was extremely likeable while his wife Sue Bayliss (Marion Fyfe) portrayed an extremely unlikeable gossipy and nagging woman. The astrology studying neighbor, Frank Lubey (Norm Kirby), and his pretty wife, Lydia Lubey (Cleis Jensen), were nicely done and provided a few chuckles. George Deever (Wilfrid Hahn) was portrayed capably and very sympathetically. Ann Deever (Cynthia Vogel) was very lovely and loveable,and excellent in the part. Her wardrobe was as outstanding as her performance.

Don Fyfe did a magnificent job with his portrayal of the idealistic Chris Keller. The scenes in the second act where he tells Ann of his war experience and again when he realizes his father's guilt, will long be remembered by those in attendance.

Virginia Warner was excellent in her characterization of Kate Keller. She gave the audience the proverbial "chills and goosebumps" while describing her dream about her dead son.

Leon Stevens as Joe Keller, gave a compelling performance in a difficult role. Just as he had the audience convinced of his innocence, he made his confession of guilt.

Palatine Players deserve much credit and all the self-satisfaction that they must feel, for their excellent production of "All My Sons."

THE CAROLERS
by JOHN SCHAFF

A group of 5 solo voices, singing under the name of "The Carolers," presented a pleasant and unusual program last Sunday evening as the fourth concert of the current Community Concert series. The group consists of a soprano, two tenors, a baritone and a bass-baritone, together with their accompanist.

Such a combination gives the group unusual flexibility and versatility, and featured quintettes for the entire group, solos, duets, trios, male quartette numbers, plus arrangements for various combinations of voices.

The program itself has as much diversification as the personnel, and opened with an interesting medley arrangement of Scotch songs, presented with a great deal of care and workmanship, especially as to diction and style. Following were a selection of classic composers, including Monteverdi, Mozart, Schumann, Ravel, Offenbach and J. Strauss. A group of American songs included folk songs and spirituals, songs of the early days of our country and ballads of the plains and the mountain cabins.

The voices were well coached, blended with an uncommon balance, and were supported by a most accomplished and sympathetic accompanist, Roy Cooper, who also contributed some admirable arrangements for the group.

Announcement was made of the fifth and last program for this season, bringing the Rochester Philharmonic orchestra to the stage of the new gymnasium Sunsay evening, April 17. This will be the first symphonic program for Arlington Heights, and will stir a great amount of enthusiasm for concert goers, and especially among the school age group, for whom it will be a special event. And there a word to parents—a ticket apiece for each of the small fry and teen-agers in the family for next season is a must. It is as much a part of their education as the study of the 3 "R's", and the memories of some of the great concerts stay with us throughout the years of our life. The writer heard many of the great operas and symphonies in the teen age years, seated in the top gallery of the old auditorium and Orchestra hall, (at 25 cents a throw in those days).

It looks like all programs for the coming season will be held on the spacious stage of the new gymnasium, because of construction which will be under way around the girls' gymnasium, where the present season of concerts is being held. It is a special incentive and challenge to the community to "fill the hall" in the big gym—it also means more programs, or better talent, or both. Workers are being solicited for the coming drive for next season's members, which will take place for one week only, April 18 thru 23. Our growing community requires additional workers for solicitation, and any who will help are asked to volunteer their services for this purpose. A phone call to Mrs. Gale Blocki Jr. at CL 3-3758 will put you in business.

Hold dates make next season's course especially attractive, with tentative bookings for Whittemore and Lowe, the duo-pianists who will be featured at Ravinia this summer, and the Vienna Academy chorus, a group of 12 men and 12 women who have appeared at both the Salzburg and Edinburg Festivals, and who made their first American tour last season. The latter group, appearing in costume, should be an imposing target for the local autograph collecting fraternity.

Presenting The Younger Generation

Brothers and Sister

Pictured first are Clem, Cathy and Richard Lee Clemans, children of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Clemans of 618 S. Vail, Arlington Heights. All of the children have blond hair and blue eyes.

Clem, nicknamed "Butch," is 6½ years old and attends first grade at the South school. Both he and his sister attend Sunday school at the First Presbyterian church.

Butch's favorite activity is playing cowboys, and he also likes to watch cowboy programs on TV. Outdoors this lad has fun riding his two-wheeler bike, while indoors he enjoys coloring and playing with his toy trucks and cars.

Both Butch and Cathy like to play records on their phonograph and they like to be read to.

Five-year-old Cathy is eagerly looking forward to attending school next fall. She is already learning how to write her name.

This little miss enjoys playing with her dolls, fixing their hair and ironing their clothes. She also likes to color.

One-year-old Ricky is walking now and likes to follow his older sister and brother around. He is at the age where he gets into everything and especially likes the kitchen cabinets and refrigerator.

This little tot enjoys his musical rocking chair and toy piano, and he also likes to go for rides in his stroller.

Blond hair and blue eyes describes Lynn's coloring and she is 2½ years old.

Her little brother, Michael, who is 11 months old, has brown hair and blue eyes.

We are sorry that we were unable to contact the children's parents for further information.

"Pinocchio" To Be Held Tomight

The operetta "Pinocchio" will be presented tonight, Thursday, at 8 o'clock at the Paddock school in Palatine. The operetta will also be presented tomorrow, Friday, at 1 p.m. Students from the Kimball Hill school are participating in this operetta, and teachers, mothers and students alike have been busy sewing costumes, rehearsing and making final preparations for the big show. All residents are invited to attend the play. By your presence you not only encourage our Rolling Meadows youngsters in their thespian efforts, but assure yourself of an interesting and enjoyable evening. The admission is only $.50 for adults and $.25 for children, and tickets can be purchased at the door.

Vacationing

While Rolling Meadows and the rest of the midwest struggles with our extremely variable spring (?) weather, Mrs. Jane Brunt and her little 10 week old daughter, Kathy, are basking in Florida sunshine. Ralph Brunt, however, remains at the family home at 2905 Lark court, suffering with the rest of us with the weather. The trip to Florida holds quite a few highlights for Mrs. Brunt and her young daughter. It was Kathy's first plane trip, and at only 10 weeks she acted like a seasoned traveler. Another highlight of their vacation in Florida will be the marriage of Mrs. Brunt's sister, Dorothy Willis, April 3. Mrs. Brunt will serve as matron-of-honor at the wedding. Mrs. Brunt and Kathy will be staying with Mrs. Brunt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Willis in Lakeland, Florida.

VFW Dance Announced

Rolling Meadows members of VFW Post 981 in Arlington Heights are eagerly looking forward to Saturday, April 23. That is the big date of the first annual spring VFW dance, and will be the first "event" to be held in the new VFW clubhouse in Northwest highway just east of Wilke rd. The post promises the "sweetest music this side of Lake Michigan" for the dance, coupled with their beautiful new dance floor — really an ideal combination. Your VFW neighbors will have tickets to sell for the big affair soon.

Christening

Although he is only 3½ weeks old, little David Anthony Karpinski was the star of last Sunday's events at the Mitchel Karpinski home at 2403 Fremont st. There were 19 relatives and friends on hand for David Anthony's christening, which was held at Our-Lady-Of-The-Wayside church in Arlington Heights. Father O'Hara performed the baptism. The baby's godmother was Jean Imielski and his godfather was Eugene Karpinski, his uncle. A minor tragedy of the day almost occurred when the giant ham for the family dinner celebration was left in the oven while everyone attended the christening ceremonies, but fortunately the damage was slight and a good dinner was enjoyed by all.

Kimball Hill PTA Holds First Meeting

The first meeting of the newly-founded PTA in the Kimball Hill school in Rolling Meadows was held March 22. In spite of extremely inclement weather, the attendance at the meeting was quite good. Approximately 30 parents were present at the "get acquainted" meeting at which the new PTA organizational set-up was explained.

Also present at the meeting were Mrs. Sundling, president of the Palatine PTA, Mr. Jordan, Superintendent of the school district, Mrs. Csanadi, acting principal of the Kimball Hill school, and Mr. Kiska, who will serve as principal of the Kimball Hill school next fall.

Large orange-colored sheets were distributed to parents, listing various activities in which they might volunteer to work. Parents were asked to circle the activities in which they were interested and to return the sheets as soon as possible by sending them to school with their children. If any of these forms are still unreturned, parents are urged to send them to school. Mrs. Gretchen White, the Rolling Meadows member of the PTA board, will be making telephone calls in the near future to set up the work of the Rolling Meadows PTA and to form a coordinating committee to work with the executive committee in Palatine.

Surprise Housewarming Party

Last Sunday, while Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kramer of 2701 School dr. were busy with household chores —in fact, Mrs. Kramer was in the midst of mixing a cake — 19 friends suddenly arrived to throw a surprise housewarming party for them. Their former neighbors and friends brought everything for a complete dinner and party. As an added gift for the happy occasion the Kamers were presented with a lovely post light for their new yard. The "conspirers" for the party were Mr. and Mrs. Del Hoffmann, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kramer, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Marvinac, Mr. and Mrs. Sal Raimondi, Mr. and Mrs. John Ringnald and their daughter Janice, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Kramer, friends Shirley and John, and Mrs. Herb Lechelt, all of Forest Park, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schultz of Bensenville.

Sympathy

Her many friends and neighbors have expressed their sincere sympathy to Mrs. Peggy Eichorst of 2506 South st. on the sudden death of her father, John Hupac. Mrs. Eichorst had just returned to her home in Rolling Meadows Saturday, after attending a party in honor of her father's 45th birthday, when she was summoned back to Chicago by his death. The funeral services were held Monday, March 28.

Junior Women's Club District Meeting

Members of the Rolling Meadows Junior Women's club are reminded that they should attend one district meeting each year as a requirement for their active membership. The next district meeting has been set for Tuesday, April 12, at 8 p.m. at the Mount Prospect village hall. The Arlington Heights Junior Women's club will act as hostesses for the occasion. This promises to be an interesting meeting, and one that should be close enough to be convenient for most members to attend.

Birthday Parites

That important sixth birthday that makes youngsters seem so grown up was recently celebrated by Rusty Carroll, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. John Carroll of 2205 St. James st. Rusty, whose real birth date is March 22, held a party for a group of his little playmates March 20. Present at the celebration were Ronnie and Jimmie Huffmann, Craig and Kenny Wisniewski, Jeannie McEwan, Ronnie and Richard Richards, all of St. James st., and Hope Byer and Linda Willis of Chicago. Also on hand for the party were Mrs. Edith Willis and Miss Ann Scobel of Chicago. Besides the traditional birthday party items of cake, ice cream, candy and favors, Rusty had a special treat for his guests. A great variety of pictures were shown by the young man on his View Master projector.

It was a triple birthday celebration for little Elsie Mills, the daughter of Earl and LaVerne Mills of 2404 Dove st. Elsie started the celebrations for her seventh birthday March 26, when she held a little party for her two aunts, Miss Lucille Mills and Miss Thelma Mills of Chicago. Sunday, she held a second birthday party for her family. Present were her grandfather, William Schraeder of Chicago, and a friend, and her aunts and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dillon and Debbie and Judith of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Lahsin of Niles. Also on hand were Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Amundson and their children, Gloria and Caroline, of Rolling Meadows and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Steward and their son, Jimmie, of Evanston. Each succeeding celebration of the birthday seemed to grow larger, and the third and final party was really quite an event. Monday, Elsie held a party for a group of her schoolmates and friends, entertaining them with birthday cake, ice cream, candy, as well as games and prizes. Present at the party were Judy Blanko, Caroline and Gloria Amundson, Michel Gersie, Jan Johnson, Judy Paeglow, Orlar Rumrey, Susan Schlaufman, Della Rose Messina, Christine and Alice Sokolski, Tommy and Michel Valentine, all of Rolling Meadows, and Victor Clark of Arlington Heights. Also on hand to assist Mrs. Mills and join in the birthday celebration were Mrs. Valentine, Mrs. Amundson and Mrs. Clark.

Thanks to his mother's baking skill, Jan Christensen celebrated his eighth birthday March 23, in grand style. Jan, the young son of Art and Pat Christensen of 2200 Wing st., held his birthday celebration with his class in school. His mother brought 64 homemade cupcakes to his class that day and all of his classmates enthusiastically joined in the birthday observance.

His ninth birthday was really well celebrated by Peter Holden, son of Lucy and Keith Holden of 2106 Eastman st. In observance of the important event Peter was host to a group of 15 boys at a birthday party. The boys enjoyed an afternoon of games as well as the delicious birthday cake and ice cream.

A group of her neighbors held a surprise birthday party for Pat Werner last Friday, March 25. while Pat was occupied with her housewifely duties in her home at 2105 St. James st., her neighbors suddenly burst in with a birthday cake and all the "fixin's" for a birthday party. The "surprise committee" were Ann Huffman, Pat Richards, Evelyn Wisniewski and Gladys Carroll, all of St. James st. Thanks to her neighbors a really outstanding birthday was had by Pat, and one that will be long remembered.

Hospitalized

Little Terry Krause, the young daughter of Arthur and Audrey Krause of 2407 Wing st., spent a short time in St. Joseph hospital, Elgin, last week. Terry is now home, minus her tonsils, and recuperating nicely.

Clarification

Since several questions of the issue have arisen, the Rolling Meadows Home Owners' association has asked that the following clarification of their position be given. The Home Owners' association is a group does not endorse any individual candidate or slate of candidates. The officers, directors and block captains do have the right to support any candidates they individually choose as private citizens, and they urge their neighbors to do likewise. Interest in the choice of the best possible candidates for city office is a sign of a healthy democratic community, and the Home Owners' association hopes all Rolling Meadows residents will take as active a part in the approaching city election as possible.

Visitors in Our City

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. Gorman of 2803 St. James st. entertained visitors in their new home last week. Their daughter and her family, 1st Lt. and Mrs. George E. Price, Jr., and their two young daughters, Kathleen and Maureen, were here in Rolling Meadows for the first week of Lt. Price's two-week furlough. It was the first time the Price family had seen the Gormans' new home and more importantly it was the first time everyone in the Gorman family, with the exception of Mrs. Gorman, had seen little Maureen. Maureen's grandmother had visited her daughter and her family at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base in Ohio when Maureen was born a few months ago.

Little Nancy and Dawn Lortie really spent a happy few days last week enjoying the company of their little cousins, Pat, Jane and Michelle Lortie of Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Bill and Fran Lortie of 2306 Sigwalt st. had the pleasure of a brief visit from Mrs. Mary Alice Lortie and her 3 daughters, who were visiting in the Chicago area for the first time in 6 years. Unfortunately, Bill's brother, Dick, was unable to accompany his family on their visit. Mrs. Lortie and her daughters were brought to Rolling Meadows by the children's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lortie of Chicago, who passed through Winston-Salem on their way home from Florida. Following a brief visit with her parents in Harvard, Ill., Mrs. Lortie and her children will return to N. C.

Come One, Come All

The nominating committee of the Rolling Meadows Home Owners' association is still hard at work selecting candidates for nomination to the various offices and directorships. If you are interested in participating in the important work done by this group you are urged to contact the nominating committee under the chairmanship of Gordon Sheetz, 2109 Park st., Cl. 5-1027. Nominations can, of course, be made from the floor at the second annual meeting of the Home Owners association which is scheduled for Sunday, April 24, at 1 p.m. in the Arlington Heights high school. While voting in the election for officers and directors of the association will be open to every home owner over 18 years of age, nominees for office must be paid-up members of the association to qualify for nomination. Dues for 1955 are only $2 and can be paid to any block captain or officer, and may be paid at any time until the annual meeting is in session in order to qualify for nomination.

Fashion Show

Thursday, April 14 at 8 p.m. at the Barn there will be real excitement. An "honest-to-goodness" fashion show will be presented by the Women's association at that time, with some of the members acting as models. The Fashion show is open to everyone, and the admission will only be $.25. Refreshments will be served by the women. The fashion show will be held in the Lower Loft, and will present a great variety of women's and children's apparel. There will be models of all styles, from play clothes to "dress up" finery.

Cub Pack Meeting Held

Suits of chain and mail gleamed, helmets were in evidence everywhere, and spears and broad swords flashed at the Pack meeting of Rolling Meadows Cub Pack last Wednesday, March 23. The theme of the meeting at the community Barn was "Knights of the Round Table" and the Cub Scouts really lived up to the title. The Cubs had made suits of armor and helmets from cardboard, and they really presented a formidable sight. The games for the evening featured various medieval themes such as jousting, skill with spears, and duels.

The attendance at the meeting was good, and many parents got their first real insight at the outstanding work being done by the Cub Scouts and their leaders. The "Honor Den" having the highest percentage of parent-attendance was Den 4 under the supervision of Den Mother Mrs. Kunz. There were four Cub Scouts present and all eight of their parents attended the meeting for a 100 per cent record.

It was also announced at the meeting that a new cub scout den had been formed. Den 5 will be under the supervision of Den Mother Mrs. Anna LoCascio of 2316 Bluebird lane, who has volunteered for this much-needed task. It is hoped that even more dens can be formed soon as there are more and more young boys cub scout age moving into the community.

Several important awards were made at the pack meeting. Awarded their Bobcat Buttons were Earl Young, Jack Bunn, Glen Brighton, Michel Smith and Jan Christensen. Awarded their Wolf pins were Peter Holden and George Sladek. Having completed the necessary requirements William Adduci and Paul Garrity were given their Bear pins, the next higher rank. One Cub Scout was awarded his Lion pin, the highest rank in Cub Scout work. He was Terry Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin of Wilke rd.

Choir Party

Last Friday night, the Barn really rang with laughter and music when the Community church choir held a party for their husbands and wives. It was a wonderful get-together for the choir members and their "better halves" and from all reports a good time was had by everyone. A delicious supper featuring barbecued hamburgers, salads, cakes, and other good things in great profusion, was served first. Following their supper the choir members presented a "floor show" with members providing the various acts of entertainment. After the show music was played for dancing, completing the evening's exciting events.

Thrift Shop

The Community church Thrift shop is going strong, and an excellent selection of all types of apparel and household appliances can be had by shoppers. The thrift shop is located in the Barn at 3203 Kirchhoff rd. For those who are not familiar with the location of the community Barn, it is on the south side of Kirchhoff rd., midway between Wilke and Rohlwing rds. There is a beautiful old white house located off the same driveway which is being used as an office by Kimball Hill and Associates. This house is identified by a sign reading "Hill Homes, 3201 Kirchhoff Road." The Barn is to the rear of the house, and can readily be identified by the obvious signs of new construction of windows, doors, and stairs. The thrift shop is open to the public Monday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m. and Thursdays from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. If you have clothing or household items which you would like to sell through the thrift shop you are invited to contact Mrs. Ruby Yurtis, 2100 South st., Clearbrook 3-8137, who will gladly give you any further information you might desire.

Easter Services

The Rolling Meadows Community church will hold two worship services Easter Sunday, April 10. The services are scheduled for 9:30 a.m. and 11:15 a.m. Sunday school for the primary grades as well as nursery service will be held during both services to permit both parents to attend church together.

Home Parties

A home demonstration party was held last week by Mrs. Mary Schultz of 2303 School drive for her friends and neighbors. The demonstration which was conducted by Mr. Jensen, was followed by a pleasant social period. Attending the party were Beverly Kendziora, Mary Slawson, Verness Lee, Audrey Motisi, Evelyn Skogen, Roxy Slonicker, and Lois Rowbottom, all of School drive, and Carol Gieres of South st. and Joyce Taylor of Fremont st.

A card demonstration was the event for which Mrs. Lorie Kramer entertained a group of friends and neighbors Thursday evening, March 24. On hand for the home party were Talitha Krecker, Shirley Kruser, Carol Johnsen, Lee Immordine, Dorothy Evans, Rose Brisard, Helen Ails, Jackie Marsh, and Shirley Kehrer, all of School drive, and Melita McWhirter and Phyllis Pearson of Sigwalt st. Following the demonstration the hostess had a delicious buffet of coffee and cake for her friends, and a wonderful get-together was enjoyed by everyone.

Thanks From PTA

Parents of children in the Kimball Hill school who so graciously donated clothing in response to the recent appeal made in "clothing for needy children" drive sponsored by the PTA have the sincere thanks of that group. Many very useful and beautiful items of clothing were donated. The clothing was packed and placed in large bags addressed to school of needy children in Tennessee. The work of packing the many items donated was done by Gretchen White, Marion Garrity and Jane Self who volunteered for this tedious, but necessary, work.

Junior Choir Robes

Mrs. LaVerne DeBonis has requested that the Junior choir robes which have been the object of sewing and work by so many Rolling Meadows women be returned as soon as possible. Mrs. DeBonis lives at 2311 Sigwalt st. and would greatly appreciate receiving the robes as soon as they are finished.

Visiting

A welcome visit from one of their best friends is being enjoyed this week by Shirley and Frank Knudsen of 2302 Campbell st. Mrs. Dorothy Roessler and her two young children, Ryan, who is 20 months old, and Raina, who is 8 months old, is spending a brief time at the Knudsen home in Rolling Meadows. Mrs. Roessler, incidentally, is the widow of Paul Roessler, a former classmate of mine as well as Shirley Roeing of Campbell st., who lives next door to the Knudsens, and Lucille Doyle of Wing st.

Christening

Little Thomas Michael Eggert, the two week old son of Pat and Art Eggert of 2413 Wing st., was christened at 2 p.m. last Sunday, by Father O'Hara at Our-Lady-of-The-Wayside church in Arlington Heights. The godparents for the baby were Frank and Theresa Urbanus of Chicago. A christening party was held following the baptism for little Tommy. Guests included his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Billington of Chicago, the godparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Urbanus, and his aunts, uncles and cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Eggert and their four children of Prospect Heights, and Mr. and Mrs. Ken LaJeunesse and son of Chicago.

Girl Scout News

Mother-Daughter Banquet Planned

The first annual Mother-Daughter banquet for the girl scout and brownie troops of Rolling Meadows will be held at the community barn May 3, at 6:30 p.m.. The banquet committee met at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Al Garms of 2304 Meadow drive, March 23. A delicious menu was planned which should be found appetizing by all. An evening of entertainment will follow the banquet. The centerpieces for the tables will be made by the girl scouts and both the scouts and brownies will make corsages for their mothers and themselves for the gala occasion. The cooperation of every mother will be needed to make this event a success.

Cookie Sale Planned

The sale of Girl Scout cookies will be held in Rolling Meadows from April 22 to May 2. The cookies will be only 40 cents a box, and will be sold direct from door-to-door by the Girl Scouts and Brownies. The cookie sale, which will be held by all troops in the Northwest Council, will benefit both the council and the individual troops, and residents are urged to cooperate in this pleasant way to support Girl Scout work. Mrs. Dorothy Worth of 2511 George st. is the chairman of the cookie sale in Rolling Meadows. The individual troop chairmen are Mrs. Helen Rush for Brownie Troop 37, Mrs. Svea Garms for Brownie Troop 347, Mrs. Zella Blanko for the Brownie Troop under the leadership of Mrs. Grace Nordlund, Mrs. Beverly Stegeman for Girl Scout Troop 353, and Mrs. Shirley Johnson for Girl Scout Troop 302.

Brownie News

Brownie Troop 37 under the leadership of Mrs. Jane Self has welcomed several new members to the troop. They are Beverly Walker of Park st., Diane Rush of Dove st., Patricia Mann of Kirchhoff rd., and Linda Wickstrom of Campbell st. The Brownie troop which meets Tuesday afternoons is currently making Easter baskets for tray favors for Resurrection hospital in Chicago. Since the Kimball Hill school will be closed next week, the regular meeting scheduled for Tuesday, April 5, will be held at the home of Mrs. Self at 2104 Bluebird lane so that the girls can complete work on their Easter project.

The Brownie Troop under the leadership of Grace Nordlund which meets Thursday afternoons will not hold a meeting Thursday, April 7, due to the closing of the school. The girls at the meeting this week are hard at work on table scarves which they are making for their mothers as Easter presents. Some beautiful scarves are rapidly being developed by the talented Brownies. The troop has several new members for their group. They are Lynn Schneider, 2803 Campbell st., Carole Hofmann, 2708 George court, Linda Frelk, 3000 Meadow drive, Rita Robbins, 2602 Campbell st., and Sylvia Steir, 2902 Stork court.

Brownie troop 347 under the leadership of Mrs. Dorothy Amundson will not hold their regular meeting on Wednesday, April 6, due to the closing of the school. The girls at their meeting this week decorated Easter Eggs in many delightful ways. The eggs were taken to the Old People's Home in Arlington Heights to be used as Easter decorations. The troop also has two new members who have joined the Brownies. They are Ellen Gruenbaum of Meadow drive and Elsie Mills of Dove st.

Troop 302

Troop 302 under the leadership of Mrs. Gretchen White entertained Troop 19 from Arlington Heights at their regular meeting March 23. There were 21 girl scouts from troop 19 present with their leaders Mrs. Huskey and Mrs. Lechol. The Rolling Meadows Scouts brought cookies and cupcakes which they had made for the occasion, and the milk for the refreshments was graciously provided by the Hedlin's Dairy company. The Girl Scouts from Troop 19 demonstrated knot tying for their Rolling Meadows neighbors, who were all very impressed by the skill demonstrated.

Troop 353

Troop 353 under the leadership of Mrs. Ruthmary Zupan and Mrs. Evelyn Jesperson have been busy with their Easter projects. Several of the girls are making plant holders as Easter gifts for their mothers. Not only are they making the plant holders, but they have started slips for the plants to put inside the holders. Other members of the troop are making pot holders for their mothers as Easter gifts. You can be sure they are all busy trying to finish their projects in time for the big day.

Wilson Community News

The entire community was saddened to hear of the death of Mrs. William Cunningham of Rand rd. last Sunday. She had been in ill health for several months, and died at Resurrection hospital, leaving her husband and 5 children, 4 of whom attend the Wilson school.

Sympathy is also extended to Mrs. Fred Bista who father died in Chicago at the age of 74. Services were held at the Rand Hill cemetery lat Thursday.

The clothing drive for the needy both in our own country and foreign lands had a fine beginning last Monday morning when children of Wilson school brought in many bundles. The drive will continue throughout the week.

The school will also have a scrap metal and paper drive April 7. Resident are asked to have all papers metal and paper drive April 7. Residents are asked to have all papers bundled up, also scrap metal. Proceeds will be used for athletic equipment for the soft ball team.

Anyone with a child entering Wilson school next September must register the student April 1, between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. Birth certificates are required as hospital certificates will not be accepted.

Saturday evening, April 2, the Community club will hold its regular monthly party. Each month the attendance at these parties increases, as news spreads of the good time had by all.

Wilson school wants to publicly thank VFW post 981 of Arlington Heights for the flag presented to the school last week.

Consider Mosquito Abatement Program for Rolling Meadows

Recently Rolling Meadows Home Owners' association was contacted by several residents of Palatine with regard to organizing a Mosquito Abatement District for the Northwest area of Cook County. George Kitterman and Don Dahlquist, directors of the association, attended several meetings of this group. The other areas represented were Park Ridge, Prospect Heights, Des Plaines, Niles, Elgin, Dundee and Barrington. The purpose of the District would be to unite for more effective control of the mosquito.

Those who were here last year will recall that the method of control was limited to the spraying of the immediate residential area. This method served to rid the area of mosquitoes temporarily; however, many mosquitoes soon entered the area from uncontrolled adjacent districts. It is the plan of the Mosquito Abatement District to not only spray the incorporated areas but to control the unincorporated areas as well. Concentrated efforts would be extendsd toward eliminating the breeding places by drainage methods and larvae siting.

THE SPRAYING of the Rolling Meadows area last year was financed by the builder, Kimball Hill, and the cost was approximately $1 per home. The method of financing a Mosquito Abatement District would be by taxation and the maximum tax rate permitted by statute would be 25 cents per one thousand dollars assessed valuation. This would mean a maximum cost of approximately $1.10 per home. Several other Mosquito Abatement Districts in the Chicago area have been operating at a cost far below the maximum.

The Mosquito Abatement District can be formed by process of law which requires petitions followed by a referendum vote of all people within the proposed district. Since Rolling Meadows can be included in this district by a majority vote of the residents of the entire district, it is the intention of the Rolling Meadows representatives, Ketterman and Dahlquist, to keep the residents informed of any further developments.

Aid Pastor In Moving to New Parsonage

With the able assistance of some 15 hearty and thawable men of the congregation, Pastor S. Nelson Ringsmuth and his family moved into the new permanent parsonage of the Rolling Meadows Community church Saturday at 2704 Park st., northeast corner of Meadow dr.

The transaction for the church residence, which is much closer to "The Barn" than was the temporary parsonage at 2301 Meadow, was completed through the cooperation of the Midwest Community church development association which has assumed financial responsibilities until the church is able to take over.

The Rev. Ringsmuth heartily thanked the men who helped in the moving and has conveyed his appreciation to Kimball Hill for the promise to build a garage and breezeway study for the new parsonage and the permission that allowed use of one of the Hill homes as a temporary parsonage.

Wedgewood Terrace

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Lundstrom recently returned from a 3-week sojourn in Key West, Fla. Their companions were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Himel of Des Plaines. They spent most of their hours soaking up the sun on the beach as most Florida vacationers do. One interesting new experience they had was a trip through a submarine with officers explaining the whys and wherefors of everything they saw in it.

Monday evening the Lundstroms received a call from their daughter, Joan, a junior at the University of Illinois in Urbana. She told her parents she was chosen to be one of the 7 girls in the queen's court which will be a feature of the Mothers' day celebration, April 29, on campus. The queen is chosen from among the 7 girls and announcement of her identity waits until 3 days before the event.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Hartness are Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hartness who are from Oscaloosa, Ia. They will be returning home this next weekend. They are the parents of the Wedgewood Terrace Mr. Hartness. (AM

School News

Spring vacation will be from April 2 to April 11.

Mrs. Holloway of the American Red Cross presented an assembly for all pupils at the school last Friday.

The eighth grade hot dog sale netted $40 toward their Springfield trip. They will sponsor another April 21.

Eighth grade boys will conduct a waste paper drive the week of April 11 to April 15. The proceeds of this will also be used for their Springfield trip.

The regular meeting of the Mothers' club will be held April 14 at 1:30 p.m. Program for this meeting will be a film presented by the Arlington Heights high school. This film follows students through one day at school. Susi Carter, one of Elk Grove's own students, is one of the pupils in the film. This should be especially interesting to all upper grade parents.

A large committee of mothers, under the direction of Mrs. Landmeier, health chairman, spent Monday at the school helping with the immunization program.

Field Trips

The sixth and seventh grades enjoyed their recent field trip to the Museum of Science and Industry. Mrs. Grosche's room will go to the Johnson Candy company and the airport April 29.

Mr. and Mrs. George Karlis and daughter are spending a few days at the Adams 'home on Lincoln st. They are here from Amherst, Ohio.

The cub scouts are now enrolling boys ages 8 to 10 years. The den mothers will be attending a training program at Arlington Heights.

Mrs. Lou Nolon of Oakton st., is in St. Francis hospital. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Feehanville School

Regular meeting of the board of education of school district 26 will be held Wednesday 8 o'clock, at the Feehanville school.

Tickets for the games party to be held at the Feehanville school April 23 are now on sale and can be obtained from members of the PTA.

Civic Association

March meeting of the Civic association was very well attended by members as well as visitors. The amendment to the by-laws, lowering the yearly dues from $10 to $5, was passed unanimously. The Brewers and the Brobergs were on the refreshment committee and provided delicious cakes for the coffee hour following the business meeting. C. W. Flink, president of the school board, and Ed Brookhouzen, budget chairman, were present and spoke to the people concerning the coming election in April. Mr. Brookhouzen suggested that the people put a ring around the date of April 9 on their calendars, as "on that date it is your privilege and obligation to express your wishes on important matters concerning your school. The voters of our school district will ballot to elect 2 members to the board of education and in addition will have their say on a referendum to increase the authorized tax levy rate from 61 cents to 82 cents for educational purposes."

He further said, "Official notices have appeared in the newspaper as required. Your board of education has also 'invaded' meetings of community organizations to explain school matters as related to finances. It was and always will be the desire of the school baord to keep every one informed of conditions and to welcome your questions and suggestions.

"The growth of the school facilities to provide for an expected enrollment of 100 students requires more teachers and more expenditures in general. To meet this need more tax revenue is a must. Your board tried to avoid this increase with a tight budget, but necessary expenses will exceed the maximum tax money available under the present tax rates. The alternative to approval of the tax increase is to discontinue services such as the school bus and the lunch program in order to balance the budget. Many grade school tax rates in this area are at the maximum legal rate of $1.12, as compared with the rate of 82 cents, which is to be voted upon.

"Don't forget to exercise your right and duty to vote. Election day is April 9 at the Feehanville school between the hours of 12:30 and 7 p.m. If you have any questions on this election, contact a school board member. We will be pleased to discuss our problems with you."

Forest River Church

Clayton (Butch) Baumann, a senior at Arlington Heights high school, was guest speaker at the young people's meeting last Sunday night. This coming Sunday night will be "Backwards Night" at young people's. Fred Swanson will be the speaker. Two of the lads are diligently practicing a duet, and, if they master the technique before next Sunday, they will sing it backwards.

The hike scheduled for the Stockaders for last Saturday was postponed because of the weather, but they are planning one for April 9.

The hay-ride, planned by the young people for last Saturday, was also postponed due to the weather, and they held a "come-as-you-are" party. After the many games had been played, the young people were glad to sit down and listen to an interesting talk by Art Lindell, who will be remembered as the speaker at the last Sunday school picnic. Included among those present at the party were Janet Sandquist, George Luedke, Bid Levine, John Hanson, Bonnie Levine, Rober Martens, Marlene Olson, Robert Levine, Elaine Hanson, Paul Meyer, Cynthia Wehlacz, Phil Roos, George Grenda, Paul Meyer, Roberta Withers, and the 2 chaperones, Ruth Pierson and Bob Roos.

Parent-Teachers' night, held last Friday at the Forest River church, was such a success it was decided to elect officers and, perhaps, hold meetings a little oftener than the present 2 nights a year. Nominations were made from the floor, and the newly elected officers are president, Jeanne Kramer; vice president, Red Bischof; secretary, I. A. Hanson, and treasurer, Betty Shimmin. A committee of 4 was in charge of the program for the evening, Bernard Shimmin, Jeanne Kramer, Dorothy Hartwig, and Betty Shimmin. Mr. Shimmin introduced the various phases of the program, Mrs. Hartwig explained the several "get-acquainted" games that were played, and Mrs. Kramer and Mrs. Shimmin organized the refreshments, (which were apple slices, cookies, ice cream and coffee.) Rev. Pierson led the group in several choruses of favorite songs, and Miss Ruth Pierson introduced the speaker, Coach Nelson. Sunday school superintendent Emert Roos spoke on the expansion of the Sunday school. All the Sunday school teachers had prepared a table of the work being done by their own particular classes and there were snapshots on each table of the teacher with the class.

Billy Phar won first place at the district contest in Waukegan with his solo and will be in the state contest in Peoria later in the season.

Prospect Heights band played in the district contest in North Chicago last week and won second place. Billy Phar, Dennis Buttner and Ray Olson were all in the band.

Kay Phar won a 2-week scholarship in the tryouts at Maine Saturday. The scholarship is given by the Junior Women's club of Des Plaines and will be in the music camp in Bloomington of the School of Music, Wesleyan U. Billy Phar will be going to the summer music camp of the University of Illinois in Champaign the last 2-weeks in June.

Mrs. Walter Jamrock wishes to express her appreciation to all the people who responded so proudly to an emergency call for help last Friday afternoon. Mrs. Adam Grenda called the various agencies and guided them to the Jamrock home. Two firemen from Des Plaines arrived with oxygen and kept Mr. Jamrock alive until the ambulance from Oehler's arrived to take him to the Evanston hospital. A squad car also arrived to escort the ambulance to the hospital. The doctor said if the oxygen had been delayed as much as an hour longer it would have been too late. Mr. Jamrock suffered a heart attack but at this present writing, is resting easily.

Birthday greetings this week go to Howard Strahlendorf, who was 6 on the thirtieth, Jimmy O'Boyle, who is 9 today, and Edwin Olson, who will be 4 tomorrow.

Birthdays

Bonnie Morales was 4 years old March 26 and celebrated the big day with a luncheon party. Marcy Vosburgh, Terry and Judy Horcher, Joan Richardson, Richie Schlegel, Arlette Seeber, sister, Linda, and brother, Kenny, were guests. The little ones played games, including a sort of juvenile "truth or consequence."

Bonnie's favorite birthday gift was a doll buggy from her mother and dad. It was a little too bulky to take to bed with her, but she solved that minor problem. With the carriage pulled right next to her bed Bonnie could go to sleep and still keep one hand on her buggy.

Mark Pelletier celebrated his birthday Saturday too. There were 9 candles on his cake. Guests were Dean Valentine, Dave Nelson, Richard Hehnan, Terry Bolain, Paul Wierich, Billy Hemsley and his brother, Mike. The boys played bingo for prizes and then had cake and ice cream.

Mark had a repeat performance that same evening. Another party was enjoyed at grandmother's house in Chicago.

Paper Drive

Hold on to those old newspapers a little longer. The boy scouts will be along to pick them up on Saturday, April 9. They ask that the papers be tied in small bundles for easier handling and put out at the curb before 9 a.m. Or papers can be delivered to North school before noon April 9th.

Coming Up

A definite date has been set for the annual Prospect Meadows fair — July 9 and 10. Children are in for a treat this year. The fair committee has arranged to have "Little Oscar" at the fair grounds July 9 from 11 a.m. til 1:30 p.m. and the pepsi-cola carosel July 10 from 11 a.m. til 7 p.m.

Anyone interested in working in a booth has a wide choice.

Joyce Ruther, chairman of the affair, gives the following list open for volunteers.

White elephant booth, Rosemary Finch, Cl 3-3661; ham and canned goods, Ann Incinelli, Cl 3-6742 or Ethel Larson, CL 3-4723; refreshments, Violet Toner, Cl 3-9527 or Eve Daniels, Cl 3-1050; children's booth, Dorothy Doyle, CL 3-2893. The men's booth and grandmothers booth need chairmen as well.

Jean Kamp is head bookkeeper and Kay Wilson is field girl in charge of incidentals.

An addition to the 1955 fair will be the nursery, for chilren under 5.

There are three or four other booths planned, also in need of chairmen and workers. Schedules will be set for two-hour shifts.

Entertained

Dor and Bob Morales had a busy day last Saturday. After a birthday luncheon for their 4-year old, instead of collapsing for the evening they entertained guests Mr. and Mrs. Wollerman of Prospect Heights, and Mr. and Mrs. Otto of Chicago.

Election Coming

Nomination committee of Prospect Meadows Women's auxiliary will present its slate April 20 and further nominations from the floor will be in order. New officers will be elected to begin their term in May.

Prospect Heights Scout News

Last Friday the new den 12 was welcomed into pack 232 at the monthly meeting at South school. Den 13 was in charge of the flag presentation. Four boys from den 12 were inducted into the cubs. They are Jimmy Dobbs, Danny Wills, Bobby Weber and Dicky Moeller.

The next big scout affair is April 23, when the pack meets at Deer Grove at 7 a.m. for a breakfast and hike.

Boys in the Meadows interested in becoming cub scouts can send their request for registration to Ed Moeller or Ray Doyle.

Parents interested in scout work can attend classes at South school Mondays from 8 to 10 p.m.

Intermediate girl scouts resumed their weekly meetings last Thursday in the Harland basement. The girls formed two patrols, the Clovers and the Stars. Next month they celebrate their birthday.

Christening

Debbie Kay Brazeau was christened last Sunday at Bethlehem Lutheran church, Evanston. Sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Leo Murray. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Brazeau served dinner to friends to celebrate the event.

Since this will be my last effort as your reporter, I wish to thank everyone who supplied me with news items. I also want to welcome Joyce Ruther, who will take over this column. Joyce is well acquainted with the Meadows, active in social affairs, and I am sure will do an excellent job. Adieu, and good luck Joyce!

Cub Scouts

Parents of boys in cub scout den 8 had a full evening of entertainment last week. Following the induction of William Cordes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Cordes, 1001 N. Hickory, into den 8 the cub scouts presented a skit, "Knights of Yore." The boys worked several weeks preparing for this skit. They made various weapons and armor to represent those used in the days of knighthood. Sir Kenny (Butcher) showed how the coat of chain mail looked. Sir Harry (Margulis) showed the helmet. Sir Herby (Reif) showed the shield. Sir Michael (Menefee) showed the sword. Sir Alan (Gamenthaler) showed the axe. Sir Jerry (Emmrick) showed the ball and chain. Sir David (Crockett) and Sir Bobby (Henry) rode on horses made by Alan and his father, to demonstrate how knights fought with lances. Den father Albert Gamenthaler was the narrator, assistant den father Harold Henry took charge of sound effects and music and the newest scout, Bill Cordes, was curtain puller.

Mrs. Philip Nelson of Duluth was a guest at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Nelson, 817 N. Hickory, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Drake, 908 E. Frederick, are getting acquainted with their new son Steven Harry born to them March 22.

Sixth Birthday

March 23 was a busy day for Kathleen Nitch as she celebrated her sixth birthday. Her cousin, Judy Maitzen, her sister, Nancy, and neighborhood friends, Lynn Edler, Lynn Nelson, Linda Simpson and Becky Dufelmeier all brought their dolls so the little "mothers" had an exciting time at the doll birthday party.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Haag, 611 E. Frederick, had as their guest for the weekend, Mrs. Haag's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Reinhardt of Sheboygan, Wis. Mrs. Reinhardt was able to extend her visit until Wednesday.

Susan Quill celebrated her eighth birthday at a party with 14 of her brownie, school and neighbor friends Thursday.

Hostess

Mrs. Albert Gamenthaler, 905 N. Hickory, was hostess to her pinochle club Monday night. Members playing were Mesdames Dot Smith, Ruth Menefee, Jean Yowell, Maxine Elwart, Pat Bombenger and their hostess.

The Birthday club consisting of 9 women on Hickory met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Irvin Smith, 913 N. Hickory, to celebrate birthdays of Mrs. LeRoy Davis and Mrs. Ladd Houdek. Mrs. Stanley Pruyn was co-hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Henry invited the Fred Dufelmeier family to their home Sunday to celebrate Selma Henry's birthday. It turned out to be a dual celebration as it was to be Frances Dufelmeier's birthday the next day.

Stonegate Homeowners association has invited Arlington Terrace Homeowners association to participate in a meeting at the North school April 11 at 9:15 a.m. for the purpose of hearing both local parties state their views and promises.

Tickets are now available for the square dance to be held May 6 at the veteran hall. Betty Johnson, 925 N. Douglas, Alice Holmgren 838 N. Hickory, Mrs. Frank Henry 1009 N. Beverley, Mrs. Sylvester Clemmons 906 N. Dryden, may be contacted for tickets.

Berkshire

Berkshire's glamorous new
STRETCH STOCKINGS
Stretch both ways for flawless, leg-pampering fit!

You've never heard of such all-over fit in a stretch stocking! Berkshire's caressing beauties mold to every curve of your leg—make them look slim and long! It's not magic—just the wonderful way Berkshire makes full-fashioned stretch stockings. They stretch both ways (not just in length) to a sheer filmy nylon whisper. And the seam stays arrow-straight all day. $1.95.

YES! Automobile Insurance Costs More Today . . . BUT--

—so does every single thing you buy. With 50,000,000 cars and trucks on the roads, more accidents happen. Cars are fancier and more costly to fix—wages for repair men have gone way up—hospital and medical fees are higher than ever—judgments in damage suits are unbelievably high. All of these factors mean higher premiums for automobile insurance. But even with recent rate increases, you still pay little if any more for automobile insurance than you did ten years ago! Insurance—even automobile insurance—is one of the few truly low priced services today.

Sportswear Is Colorful For Spring

As more and more men enjoy lengthened hours of leisure, sportswear looms ever larger in the fashion picture.

This spring the man who wishes to round out and bring his casual wardrobe up to date can choose from a completely new range of clear, clean colors, new fabrics and a sharply changed group of designs adapted to specific sports and leisure activities.

The new sports coats feature lighter weights in wool and man-made fiber blends, tweeds and shetlands in herringbones, checks, fiberene effects, nubs and slubs.

MANY COAT fabrics combine color patterns with weave or texture patterns. Deep shades relieved by bright color accents are among the style leaders. Popular combinations are black and pink, black and helio, cognac and deep brown.

Stylewise, the single-breasted, two button sport coat continues to lead, although the three-button model is gaining ground, especially among younger men. Both patch and flap pockets are shown in the new sport coats.

PINK is an important new pastel in sport coats and slacks. Lightweight worsted wool gabardine slacks in pink are another instance of this color's new popularity. Other favored colors in slacks to go with dark colored jackets are yellow, mint green and helio.

Slacks in lightweight flannel, wool and blends with Orlon, gabardine and covert are shown in solids, subdued checks, twill weaves, slubs and nubs.

The new slacks are pleatless with back buckle and strap. The trend is to trim, tapered lines.

THE NEW BLOUSE-TYPE jackets for spring have adopted an entirely new tone. Colors are the brightest ever shown and novelty prints are solidly entrenched. Almost any pastel color that can be named is being used.

One of the most successful of the novelty patterns is achieved by the flocking treatment (flocks of wool or rayon applied to a fabric rather than woven into it.) These flocks have been combind with printed motifs to give a colorful chest or zipper panel stripe. Spaced prints in all-over patterns have grown in importance. A noteworthy innovation in this department is an all-over argyle print on sheen gabardine.

Here's a Wilson Brothers sport shirt that's bold and bright, but still maintains a crisp, neat look. The material is a fine long staple, all combed mercerized cotton that is completely washable. It features a perfectly matched pocket, pearl buttons and a medium point collar with stays.

Colored Leathers Lead In Spring Shoe Parade

Decorative cut, color and trimming make the shoes of spring the prettiest in many a season.

The line is slender, but less exaggerated; heels, generally, are somewhat lower; materials are soft and supple and the colors are amazing.

Colored leathers have expanded their vistas in all directions. The most popular new shades are a bright cornflower blue that will usurp the place of spring navy in many a woman's heart, and red, from the flame and scarlet tones to blue reds—such as, mauve and lavendar.

Oriental yellow is spicy with mustard undertones.

All colors are available in tropical lightweight leathers as well as new aniline-dyed suede, pig, shag and crushed calf. Matte finished patent leathers are new and exciting, providing for the first time a soft luster rather than a high shine.

HEEL treatment takes the spotlight this season. There are three-graceful medium heels that conform to fashion's gentle look.

Vamp detailing is varied and distinctive. Interesting hand-cut buckles, jeweled insets or encrustments, sparkle, stitching and banding bring attention to a gracefully cut shoe.

COMBINATIONS of color and texture contribute to detail finesse. The popular spectator shoe, for instance, appears in a host of new leather combinations. Pinked collars and tips and French seams show the new interest in fine workmanship.

PEARL SEQUIN buttons and seed pearls edge these cotton shorty gloves.

Mink Could Wear 'Em

The wearing of fur coats probably goes back as far as human history. Worn first for warmth, fur coats later became a luxury which Rome adopted from Greece. Men wore furs extensively in Medieval Europe, and certain furs could be worn only by persons of royal blood.

A complete modern bathroom, including bath, toilet, washstand, and mirror, was presented by Max Gerber, Inc., of Chicago as part of prizes won by Mrs. Luther V. Stephan of Arlington Heights. Alert and Informed

A paragraph in the editor's column of March 24th issue merits a letter. The editor thoughtfully writes: "We sometimes wonder how many people give serious consideration to national problems." He further states that our congressmen look to their hometown newspapers to sound out public sentiment of their constituents.

The writer last week attended the 59th annual State Conference of the DAR held at the Drake hotel, March 21st through March 23rd. Here is an organization, national in scope, which is vitally interested in national problems. It is ever alert to all pending legislation, state and national. It is dedicated to Americanism in action, through its 3 stated aims—historical appreciation, patriotic service and educational training.

For 65 years we have had one purpose—to preserve our American way of life, to maintain our free enterprise system, and retain our form of government as bequeathed by our forefathers.

At the 3 day meeting, the DAR delegates reaffirmed the society's stand for a constitutional amendmend to require congressional approval before any treaty can become a law in the United States.

Congress was petitioned to nullify agreements with the North Atlantic Treaty countries which allow local authorities permission to arrest and try our American servicemen overseas when accused of a criminal offense.

Opposition to admission of Red China in the U.N. was reaffirmed.

We also called for "drastic and immediate curtailment" of foreign aid and said the billions thus saved should be applied toward the liquidation of the national debt.

We could only wish that more people could have heard the inspiring address given by our President-General, Miss Gertrude S. Carroway, as she spoke to a large group at the annual banquet last Wednesday night.

She pointed out that our Bill of Rights is really a bill of obligation on the part of all our citizens; that freedom is not free unless we cherish it and keep it; that religion and patriotism are bedrocks standing the stress and strain—for through Christian practices and true patriotism, better citizens will result. She urged that the society continue to work for "political integrity, economic stability, psychological stamina, and religious faith."

Our DAR is truly an alert and informed citizenry.

Opposed

I want to thank the village board for the invitation to comment on the porposed municipal water softening plant.

I am opposed to your plan.

A study of the drop in water table in the strata we use together with estimates of our probable population incrase convinces me that Arlington Heights will be forced on the long term to obtain its water from another source (as, for example, from Lake Michigan through a plan such as the one proposed by Herbert Moore and others). In this event, a softening plant financed on a long term basis would be obsoleted and would become a serious drain on money which could have been used to give us a more permanent water supply.

FOR THE MEDIUM term, a plant of the sort proposed would be effectively a subsidy to new residents by the old who, generally speaking, are equipped with home softeners. The major cost of softening water, whether at home or in a public plant is interest and depreciation charges; the cost of salt is small.

The increase in efficiency of a central plant would probably be nearly offset by the fact that all water for gardens, lawns, or ready-mix concrete will be softened where now softening is generally restricted to domestic supply. In other words, those whose softeners are paid for would be forced to start depreciating a new unit all over again through their water bills. It would certainly be more fair to provide a decrease in water rates.

FINALLY, on a short term basis, I am happy to see that the board recognizes the need for better water pressure, an end to sprinkling regulations, and much improved sewers. Since these functions are all paid for with water funds, we must see that they are taken care of first and not neglected as a result of popular pressure for a softening plant. Soft water should not be bought and paid for with flooded basements.

Robert J. Kieckhefer Jr.
Arlington Heights.

Let's Cut Rates

In answer to the village-wide request for personal reactions to the proposal to install softening facilities in the water plant, my opinion, based on professional review as well as my own requirements, is as follows.

The benefits to be derived by an individual family from a water softening installation at the community source of supply, differ over a wide range. For those who, for reasons of frugality, have been using the water as is, a five grain household supply at no additional cost would be a godsend. For those who own a softener or have soft water service and have their piping arranged to bypass the softener with the supply for toilets, floor flushing and hose connections as is the case in our home, the village installation would be entirely unnecessary. Between these two extremes are several intermediate situations.

When weighing the pros and cons of this project a careful determination should be made of the percentage of the softened water which would be expended for uses in which raw water direct from the wells would be satisfactory, such as lawn sprinkling, street cleaning, flushing of water mains, backwashing of filters, extinguishing of fires, etc. What a waste of expensive chemicals these uses would be!

IN MY OPINION a softening process should not be installed.

I wish to comment particularly on your statement that an engineering analysis confirms the contention "that a softening plant could be built, maintained and operated without affecting the present water and sewer rate." This statement surely indicates that at the present time we are paying for a service we are not getting.

While speaking of the cost of water service I should express my strong objection to the present linking of the charges made for water and sewerage. You have set up a flat charge of $1.50 a quarter for the use of the village sewers, to which is added a charge of 10 cents a thousand gallons of water supplied from the street mains, regardless of the fact that much water passing through the meter never reaches the sewer. This schedule is not consistent with householders' use of the services.

In summer the major use of water is often for irrigation of lawns, gardens, shrubs and trees. Unless wasted on the street no trace of this water ever reaches a sewer. It is either absorbed by the roots of the vegetation for which it is intended, is evaporated or sinks to groundwater. However, we are charged on the basis of all being poured into the sewer.

My recommendation is that you do not partially soften all the pumped water, but that you revise the rate schedule and reduce the bills.

Softening Project

If you could reproduce and publish in the Arlington Heights Herald, the complete engineering analysis and report of the proposed water softening project you might be doing the members of this community a real service.

Ball Money

I commend the Arlington Heights village board for soliciting opinions of constituents regarding water softening plant in Heights.

My thoughts are summed in that age-old expression never found in history books: "Let's take it out of the basement before softening it in the kitchen."

I know drains have been partially cemented over to prevent storm water from entering sewers too fast during hard rains. My neighbor is already thinking of keeping his water wings handy as the water laps across his treshhold. I'm not worried 'cause I'm 5 feet higher and I can swim.

That medium size sewer emptying into the smaller State road pipe, splashing around, I've been told, an interceding water-proof pipe perfectly centered does all it can, even though it may not be at the right pitch to satisfy engineering experts.

I know the cost of an additional direct sewer from the south side to Weller creek, plus revamping the treatment plant, would be tremendous, but why not save every penny we can for 7 months to see if the temporary measures already in effect do the job?

And while I have the attention of two readers still with me, wonder if anyone agrees with me that no city is going to be able to provide curbside pickups of garbage at 22c per garbage can cover? That's the going rate hereabouts with "our system of free enterprise."

Misstatements

I received an unsigned "newsletter" last week which was sent out as campaign publicity by one of the political parties in the coming Arlington Heights village election. It is evident from the tone of this lecture that the group who sponsored it is resorting to the same type of tactics that were used a year or so ago in the high school election. These are tactics of confusion (misstatements, half truths, distortion of facts and withholding of the complete story) and they defeated the high school election. Now the target is the village board!

I counted 10 misstatements in this letter. One can only assume that whoever wrote it was not aware of the true facts for it is almost impossible to imagine such a letter being deliberately written by anyone in our town who had such knowledge available. Therefore, in fairness, I can only attribute this letter to ignorance on the part of its author and hope that before anyone believes it they will take the time to check the facts for themselves.

Please don't misunderstand this letter—I'm not protesting criticism as such for every public official is subject to it, nor am I objecting to the "newsletter" for whoever wrote it is within his rights. But, when either party makes statements that I know are wrong and such statements are detrimental to the village I will strongly object and will do everything within my power to get the correct facts known.

I am willing to talk with any person or group of persons before or after the election who have any questions about the affairs of our village.

Very truly yours
Robert B. Bishop

Valuations

Referring to the recent articles in the Chicago papers, regarding untaxed and improved real estate property.

May I suggest that you publish real estate valuations. I have noticed that personal property assessments are published each year. I am of the opinion that real estate valuations are of more interest.

Hard To Believe

In a recent mail, I received a two page letter, issued in the name of the Civic Service party. This letter amounted to a series of criticisms of our present village government and ranged from a charge of fiscal irresponsibility to a suggestion that the board of trustees had deliberately spent $700.00 over the market price for each light pole purchased for business district lighting.

As one who has had considerable contact with the village board during the past year, I find these charges extremely difficult to believe.

Until the expiration of my term a week ago, it was my privilege to serve as president of the Stonegate association and, in that capacity I attended many village board meetings, either as a petitioner or as an interested listener when an issue arose that affected the residents of our particular area. In one instance, three members of the board of trustees took time away from their respective jobs during the day to join me in a meeting with Cook county highway officials because a proposed road would vitally affect Arlington Heights residents.

IN EVERY CONTACT, I felt the trustees were dealing with each matter in a sincere, fair and intelligent manner with the best interests of Arlington Heights as the decisive factor in every case.

Whether the present members of the village board are reelected or not, I want to thank them publicly for the courtesy and consideration extended during my year of office in the Stonegate association. And I repeat, I find it hard to believe these same men could be so grossly inefficient in their handling of other matters as was charged in the letter I received.

It also seems strange, that during my attendance at public board meetings, I heard not one word of objection from the floor when many of the decisions now so violently attacked were being discussed.

Perhaps the critics who now protest so loudly did not realize most of our board meetings are open to the public of Arlington Heights.

JUST from Patty McArdle AROUND THE CORNER

Dear Peg:

Although neither Mrs. Wilson, the director, nor Mr. Toepelman, the ballet master believes in subjecting their students to the stress and expense of elaborate recitals, they do present a program each spring to give parents and friends an idea of what is being taught in the classes. Beside their presentation of the regular work done weekly in the school, the children dance each year in an original ballet choreographed by Edd Toepelman (it's positively amazing what the children can do after just one rehearsal of the ballet, at which each class performs its own particular part and sees for the first time how it fits into the entire ballet).

Gramma, Grampa and Eddie arrived at our apartment at 2:30 last Sunday afternoon—just in time to help with the last minute hair-combing and bow-tying—and we all drove over to the Woman's Club together. Our ballerina left us at the door and we all took front row seats (what else), to watch Megan dance for the third time in Mrs. Wilson's spring program.

THE FIRST GROUP to perform was the Controlled Rhythms class (3½ to 5 years old). We were so amused at the darling antics of the tiniest moppet in this group, by the name of "Misty." Completely uninhibited, she stood in the middle of the floor, scanning the audience until she saw her Mother and Daddy, then she lighted up, waved to them vigorously and called loudly, "Hi Mama!" The incident reminded us of Megan's "debut," two years ago, when having finished her little number with her class she made an impromptu bow which, of course, gained the immediate and fond attention of the entire audience.

I think the fact that each year the youngest child in the exhibition completely steals the show, shows us an interesting and wonderful side of human nature—how quickly and sympathetically adults respond to the "baby" of the group, even when it's not their own.

Second to perform was Megan's class, the Beginning Ballet class of six and seven year olds. Although Megan was just five in December, Mrs. Wilson and Mr. Toepelman felt that she was ready for this instruction. Their decision was probably due to the fact that Megan entered Controlled Rhythms when she was just three years old and in two years' time, advanced beyond the work done in that class. In Beginning Ballet the pupil is introduced to actual barre work. It was surprising to see how beautifully those little girls were able to execute several intricate combinations of exercises. The progress a pupil makes was made quite evident as each subsequent class demonstrated its skill at the barre.

THE FOLLOWING PART of the program was Mr. Toepelman's ballet, "The Cape." This is the story of an enchanted cape belonging to an ogre, who uses its magic to lure children to his home. One day he comes upon a group of children at a picnic and with his cape immediately puts them under his spell. He, however, does not realize that one of the children, a peasant girl, escapes. In order to save her friends who have gone off with the ogre, she goes in search of help and encounters a group of angels. They promise to help and send her after friends and relatives of the children, who, at the insistence of the peasant girl, come along with the angels to rescue the children.

The angels invade the ogre's house and, as the children run to safety, surround the ogre and take his cape from him and with it its power. He now becomes just a tired old man, for whom the little peasant girl feels very sorry. The ogre, having grown fond of the little girl, takes his cape from the angels and puts it over the child's shoulders, in so doing frees himself and disappears. The little peasant girl, in turn, gives it to her friends who carry it off to play with, knowing it can no longer harm them.

THE MOST OUTSTANDING thing about the original ballet, other than the fact that all the children performed beautifully in it, was the fact that it represented a progressive new way of teaching ballet and an exciting new way of presenting an exhibition—exciting for participants as well as audience. Rather than one or two or more pupils coming out on the stage and dancing some hackneyed routine to some hackneyed music, in the stifling atmosphere of the usual dance recital, here was a refreshing new ballet—created for the pupils with roles designed to fit their skills. All this and the music of Chopin too!

My love,
Patty.

QUITE CONTRARY

BY MARY

Most parents spend a good deal of time urging their young to be brave and go out and face the world fearlessly. We spend hours telling them that competition is the spice of life. At least, we try to get them to face situations with a stiff upper lip.

We have discovered that all we have been doing is mouthing words. At heart we are as timid as milquetoast, as shy as a violet, and the spirit of derring do has been left out of our make up.

For some years, we have been upbraiding all of our female young tor not doing better at dancing. We have sent all of them to dancing school because, after all, wasn't their mother the Pavlova of the twenties? She certainly was and she is just the one who will tell them so.

As the years have crept along with the speed of sound, mother's dancing career has reached the point where, according to her, she bounded out on stage after stage with head high and feet in perfect fifth to astound the cheering populace of a small Michigan town with her prowess of the pirouette.

As mother's small ones have flapped around the floor dancing with something less than perfection, her artistic soul has cried out in agony. She has decided to show them. Yes, she did. She enrolled in dancing school which is going pretty far to show them.

We wish to announce that we have not stood in front of one of those full length mirrors of a dancing studio for more years than we even like to admit. So there we stood in our little shift and we wish to inform all and sundry that we have changed since we were 14. Something seems to have happened to practically everything we own. We are about as graceful as a praying mantis and look a little like one.

When our minds eye thinks that we have achieved a graceful stance, the mirror blats out that we look as though we were semaphoring without the use of flags. This discrepancy causes us to tremble which, in turn causes the harried teacher to gently inform us that the shimmy went out with Gilda Gray.

So far, we continue to go each week even though we would rather knit or tat activities that are more in keeping with our age and dignity.

We don't know what we are heading for as we are quite sure that neither Rodgers nor Hammerstein would do more than shudder at our interpretation of la danse. But, we will show them, we think.

Besides, 4 eager females, young, keep at us to know how we are doing. So, we are forced to do.

Dairymen Urge 30 Day Milk Test

Dairymen from Illinois joined with dairy leaders from all over the nation Tuesday, March 22, to start a nation-wide "30 day milk test" to prove a point they have been talking about for some time.

The dairymen, through their American Dairy association, have been telling people that you can relax, sleep better, lose weight comfortably and end calcium starvation if you drink at least three glasses of milk every day. To prove this, they are asking the public to try their plan for 30 days.

College To Show Opportunities In Dairy Technology

Illinois high school seniors are invited to visit the University of Illinois April 15 to learn about career opportunities in the dairy technology field.

The dairy technology disivison will open its doors to show the seniors university facilities for training, and faculty members will discuss career opportunities in the field.

ACCORDING TO P. H. Tracy, head of dairy technology work, other branches of the university will also be open to the visitors and aspects of the university life will be explained.

People trained in dairy technology are in demand as plant managers, fieldmen, and foremen, as technicians, as sales workers and for other jobs.

Tracy also has announced 12 scholarships worth $1,000 each, for freshmen, to be used in four years of college.

Record Cow

A registered Guernsey cow, Norgert's Junita, owned by Est. N. F. McNaught, Elgin, has completed an official advanced registry record of 11,686 pounds of milk and 587 pounds of fat on two times daily milking for 305 days, and met calving requirements. She started her record as a five year-old. This production represents approximately 5581 quarts of high-quality milk.

"Junita" is the daughter of the registered Guernsey sire, Norgert's Galahad, that has one son and three tested daughters in the Performance Register of the American Guernsey Cattle club.

DOWN ON THE FARM

with Your Farm Adviser

CARL F. MEES

Friday morning is usually the time I write my column for the paper. This morning I had an appointment with a very interesting young couple. They would like to work on a farm to try to learn about farming.

The young man is 28 years of age, a veteran, was born and raised in Chicago. He is mechanically inclined being able to repair equipment and gasoline motors and automobiles. He is also able to do carpentry repair work.

His wife is very interested in the farm because she hails from Wisconsin, the dairy state. Her parents used to live on the farm and her grandparents now do dairying in Wisconsin.

THIS YOUNG COUPLE has two small children. If any of you that read this column need someone to work on the farm and have a place for them to live, contact me. While the young man has not had farm experience, his mechanical background plus both of their interest and sincerity in the farm should be enough for them to succeed.

They impressed me most favorably and I am sure will succeed if given a chance.

ERWIN KOLPIN, Des Plaines, stopped in a few minutes to chat with me. Among other things, we talked about raising sweet potatoes. I do not know just how sweet potatoes will do on this type of soil. I have raised many sweet potatoes in Southern Illinois, but that was a red clay soil. In this areas on this black soil I am not too sure they would produce the kind of potatoes we want.

The market demands a rather small uniform sweet potato today. So if they grow too large they are not what the market would demand.

If any of you have been growing sweet potatoes I would appreciate hearing from you.

ON MARCH 28 school children in Proviso high school, Carl Sandberg high school and Sunnybrook elementary school can decide for themselves whether they would rather have 1/3 quarts or ½ pints of milk. We are getting approximately ½ of the milk supply in 1/3 quarts. The price will be the same. The only choice the students will have to make is whether they want the extra milk.

This experiment will be somewhat different than the one we ran in the Chicago school. The students did not have a choice there. Here they have. It will be quite interesting to know what the results might bring. I appreciate the fine cooperation these schools have extended in agreeing to conduct this experiment for us.

Handy Jim's FIXIN-UP TIPS For the Home

Play Table Top

FOR youngsters, to whom play is important business, a play table will be most welcome. It's easy to convert an old desk or card table to this purpose, or to build a brand new one.

Most important part of the table, whether new or rebuilt, is a splinter-free, durable surface that requires little care. Excellent for the top is Masonite Tempered Presdwood, a hardboard widely used in industry for workbench tops and in super-markets as shelving and checkout counters.

This surface will take a lot of punishment. If the youngster decides to pound on it, let him; no harm will be done. Many model railroad sets are located on tables faced with Tempered Presdwood, as illustrated. Tracks for electric models should be bolted down, so the table may be used for other purposes, too, when the child tires of his train.

Sheep Raisers On Farm TV

The sheep raiser's interest in producing quality wool will be discussed on "Farmtown, U.S.A." on Sunday, April 3 when three Grundy county farmers visit with George Menard, master of ceremonies for the weekly half-hour television show.

Two sheep will be sheared during the program, as two men who specialize in the profession will compete in an informal contest, demonstrating neatness, cleanliness, and efficiency.

"Farmtown, U.S.A." can be seen at 2 p.m. each Sunday on WBBM-TV, channel 2.

Guests will include Vernon Sorenson Jr., 19-year-old farmer who is a veteran of 10 years' experience in 4-H. Besides farming 160 acres, Sorenson finds time to sheer sheep, serve as a wool buyer for the Grundy County Farm Bureau, and produce registered Dorset sheep.

Need Good Management To Control Oak Wilt Disease

There's no known cure for oak wilt disease, but you can check its spread if it gets into your farm woodlands.

Good management is the answer to control of the disease, says J. N. Spaeth, head of the forestry department at the University of Illinois college of agriculture. Spaeth says you should see your farm adviser if it looks as if wilt is getting a start in your timber. He'll direct you to your farm forester for help.

IF YOU SEE healthy oak leaves suddenly turn brown, dry up and fall off, it may mean wilt. But it could also be lightning damage. If it is wilt, you'll probably find the same symptoms in nearby trees, because wilt is spread through the intermingled roots of neighboring trees.

If you do find wilt you don't have to be in a hurry to sell all of your oak timber. Just cut dead and dying trees and harvest and manage healthy oaks as your farm forester suggests.

OAKS ARE MOST common, and one of the most valuable, trees in Illinois. Besides being used for rough lumber around the farm, they are used by many industries.

Oaks are still recommended for planting as shade and landscape trees in Illinois. Ornamental trees are usually far enough apart to prevent spread of the disease by roots.

Although wilt is found in more than half of the counties in Illinois, there is no great danger that it will wipe out all of our trees. Spaeth says it would take 100 years for the disease to get all oaks unless the present rate of kill goes up. (Fm

The 4-H Corner

Rural Youth Tour Store, Learn Retailing

North Cook rural youth enjoyed an inside look at the business of retailing through the courtesy of the J. C. Penny Co. store in Elgin March 24.

Manager of the store and department managers explained the business of retailing from the viewpoint of the retailer meeting the demands of the consumer. It was pointed out much of the problems of the retailer center around meeting the demands of the consumer in the way of styles and fashions and current fads.

Following this explanation the group toured through the store where the various department managers explained the various situations. Refreshments were enjoyed after the tour.

The following rural youth members attended: Arnold Gehrke, Arnold Grimm, Marian Goebbert, Alfred Goebbert, George Scharringhausen, LeRoy Moellenkamp, Harriet Moellenkamp, Marie Homeier, Marie Winkelmann, Loraine Plote and John H. Bicket, assistant farm adviser.

Snappy 4-H Club Meets March 22

Snappy 4-Hers held its fourth meeting March 22 after school. Meeting place was St. Peter school. After the meeting members sang songs and Dolores Thon, recreation chairman, suggested a spelling bee. Later refreshments were served by Barbara Kehe and Shirley Niemeyer.

Mount Prospect Home Bureau To Meet April 20

A white elephant sale will highlight the next meeting of Mount Prospect Home Bureau when members meet April 20.

"Care of the Home Grounds" was the subject of the lesson held March 16 at the home of Mrs. George Henneberg, 706 See Gwun, Mount Prospect. Mrs. H. Larson gave the lesson and two of four guests present at the meeting became members. Future "beehives" will be given on millinery, hors d'oeuvres, basketry, tile painting and finish up projects.

Tells How And When To Seed And Feed For Quality Lawn

Every lawn can be made and kept attractive whether it is a new seeding or an old lawn that needs improvement, reports John Bicket, assistant farm adviser of Cook county. In establishing a new lawn the key to success is the use of proper construction and maintenance methods.

In renovating an old lawn the problem is to find and remedy the cause of failure. By starting your lawn right you can save yourself many future problems. It is important to seed at the proper time, to sow seed adapted to your specific conditions and to properly prepare the seedbed.

SOMETIMES it is impossible to seed your lawn in the fall when it should be seeded. If you find yourself in this position your next best bet is to seed it in the spring, as soon as the ground is dry enough to work. If the dirt sticks to your spade, shovel or hoe and the cut surface of the soil has a shiny slick look, the soil is too wet. It doesn't take long to learn this, because as soon as the ground dries out completely it will be hard as a brick if you have worked the soil too wet.

Seed mixtures usually produce a more satisfactory turf more quickly than a single species. You will want to use various species of grass seed for definite purposes. Some seeds germinate quickly and others will grow while some are dormant or semi-dormant.

HAVE YOU DECIDED how you are going to grade your lawn to accent your house; provide for adequate soil tilth, apply nitrogen, phosphorus, potassium and limestone? You may have soil tests made at $1 per sample by turning in representative samples of the upper 6 inches of your soil to the Farm Bureau office.

Taking care of a lawn is practically a year round job. Rolling, raking, mowing, adding fertilizer and limestone and keeping it watered as well as controlling the weeds and diseases make it possible for you to enjoy yourself working outside.

I HAVE MENTIONED a few of the problems and tasks or difficulties to overcome in order to have your lawn looking like that lawn you will always remember.

You may have a copy of the circular on "How to Have an Attractive Lawn," prepared by the University of Illinois by stopping at the newspaper office located at 217 W. Campbell ave., Arlington Heights, Illinois or at the Extension Service office of the University of Illinois located in the Farm Bureau Bldg. Arlington Heights, Ill.

Illinois Family Cars 9,800 Miles Per Year

Average Illinois families are putting 1,000 miles more a year on the family car than they used to do 15 years ago, according to a study made by the business research department of the B. F. Goodrich company. In that period, travel-happy Illinois families have upped their average road mileage from 8,800 to 9,800 miles.

While average Illinois family incomes increased 188 per cent since 1940, replacement tire costs rose only 32 per cent. Today, Illinois families pay less each year to replace worn out tires than they spend on annual purchases of tobacco.

In driving 9,800 miles today, 1.5 tires, valued at $43.64, are worn out.

In traveling 8,800 miles in 1940, about 1.8 tires, costing $33.04, were worn out. Fifteen years ago, the proportion of Illinois family income going for tires was 2.2 times larger than the present figure.

Danger, Children at Play

A car traveling at 30 miles per hour is also going at the rate of 44 feet per second.

NEEDLE in the GROOVE

by PAUL LITTLE

Start that Rek-o-kut turntable spinning, power up the Scott 210-C amplifier and adjust your controls on the Jim Lansing Hartsfeld, lower the Fairchild arm and roll up the rugs for a terrific jazz session! Norm Granz has done it again—sent out a box of new releases whose hi-fi sound and jazz originality are tops! We'll start with the 12-inch Clef "Magnificent Charlie Parker," starring that sax great whose way with "In the Still of the Night" has the ballad style that's made him justly famed.

"Back Home Blues," the lovely haunting "Blues for Alice" and "K. C. Blues" along with "Star Eyes" and "Au Privave" (a tricky tune you'll want to hum) comprise a really solid album. And then another super 12-inch Clef, "Count Basie Dance Session, Album Two," which features the Count's wonderfully rhythmic and creatively conceived pianistics, backed by a splendid combo of alto, tenor and baritone sax stars, Wendell Culley's clean trumpet, Ben Powell's blithe trombone and Gus Johnson's beautifully paced drums.

WE PICK "Stereophonic" as an outstanding proof of why the Count is one of the most gifted jazz thinkers in the land today, and we'd cite also "Sixteen Men Swinging" with its complex rhythms resolved in topnotch musical style, as well as "Slow But Sure." A great disc!

As if this were not enough, Norm Granz smiles and follows through with his 12-inch Clef special "Jam Session Number Six." Read this roster: Dizzy Gillespie and Roy Eldridge, trumpets; Buddy de Franco, clarinet; Flip Phillips with his gorgeous tenor sax; Bill Harris' dynamic trombone; Oscar Peterson's wonderfully styled piano; Herb Ellis' rhythmic guitar; Ray Brown's inspired bass; and Louis Bellson's imaginative drum styling. There's just one number and it takes both sides: "Stompin' at the Savoy." But in the process, you hear each of these jazz greats do solos and riffs and combos which puts this wonderful jazz classic through its paces!

Tree Spraying Not Harmful To House Paint

About now, across the nation, householders are readying their weapons for the season's opening skirmish against insect enemies. The initial attack is against sap-sucking scale insects. This may be blunted somewhat by a popular misconception that spraying ruins the paint on house, garage, automobile and fence.

Not so at all, say Davey tree experts.

That might have been the case 30 years ago when lime and sulphur sprays were used. Today insecticides and fungicides boast ingredients that leave no permanent mark on painted surfaces.

The first spray fusillades of dormant oil to curb the scale pests are due at this time because applications must be made before buds open. Dormant oil can be applied at great strength because the tree has not yet sprung into real growing activity.

In the spring and summer, when ferbam fungicides are used, buildings and cars may become streaked with residue. Water and some elbow grease will remove the film. Some residual sprays, such as DDT used to control the beetle carrier of Dutch elm disease and leaf-chewing insects, mark auto finishes . . . again only temporarily.

These sprays, specially designed to cling to foiliage and resist rain, can't easily be washed from painted surfaces. However, the standard car cleaners will do the trick.

Buyers of Homes in Unincorporated Areas Warned of Health Hazards

The Cook County health department has issued a warning to prospective purchasers of homes in the unincorporated areas of the county.

Dr. John B. Hall, director of the department, warned buyers to exercise great care in buying a home or homesite in any area not served by public water supply and sewage systems.

DR. HALL said health department sanitary engineers have investigated many complaints of malfunctioning of wells and septic tanks.

Commented Hall: "This investigation leads us to the conclusion that private water supply and sewage disposal systems, even under the best of conditions, are not an adequate substitute for municipal-type water supply systems and sanitary sewers and sewage treatment works."

Dr. Hall recommended the purchase of extra lot area in order to permit expansion of the septic tank seepage system or even complete replacement and relocation if necessary. The doctor warned that "relocation or expansion is not possible if all of the available area has already been utilized for the seepage system."

HE EMPHASIZED that the required approval of a septic tank by the county health department is in no way to be considered as a guarantee that the system will give indefinite, trouble-free service.

Dr. Hall said his warning "is directed primarily to families who have been served by public facilities and who assume that the water flowing from a faucet is safe to drink and that they can discharge a practically unlimited volume of sewage down the drain without any difficulty.

Brick Sizes

A score or more of different sizes of brick have been found in Mesopotamia, in the Indus valley, in Palestine and in Egypt. They range from the Sumerian brick of Ur, which was a very thin version of a standard brick today to the Canaanite brick used in a fortress in Palestine, 42 inches long, 21 inches wide and 6 inches thick.

Easter Flower Shows At Chicago Parks

Annual Easter and spring flower show of the Chicago park district will open in Garfield and Lincoln park conservatories Sunday, April 3, and continue through Sunday, April 17. The conservatories will be open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. every day, including holidays, and admission will be free.

At Garfield park more than a thousand Easter lilies of the Croft strain from Washington and Oregon will be the star attraction. A special feature this year will be a collection of 6000 Holland grown narcissi in 25 varieties; these include large-cupped and small-cupped narcissi, double narcissi, and Tazetta hybrids.

The show at Lincoln Park conservatory will have as its theme a spring garden with a splashing waterfall, a trickling stream flowing beneath a rustic bridge, and a green lawn to add interest. Familiar and popular garden flowers such as pansies, primroses, nasturtiums, daffodils, bleeding heart, French hydrangaes, and many tulips and hyacinths will be used in this array of beauty and color.

National Foods Salute 10 Year Sales Growth

A spirit of teamwork and cooperation between shareholders, directors, and officers, which probably has a lot to do with the record growth of the National Tea Co. was prevalent at the annual shareholders meeting of the company March 21, as management reviewed the past year's operations and outlined the company's plans for the immediate future in a friendly atmosphere of tranquility and unquestioned confidence in results for 1955.

Presided over by H. V. McNamara, president, the meeting took place at the company's headquarters offices at 1000 North Crosby st., Chicago.

McNamara freely expressed his great pleasure in meeting with the company's shareholders and called attention to the ten year financial summary in the company's operations as contained in the annual rport as "The Best Ten Years of Our Lives."

DURING THESE ten year, under McNamara's executive management, 1945 to 1954 inclusive, company sales have increased from less than one hundred million dollars to $520,300,324, and profits have increased from less than a million dollars to $6,519,436.

In commenting on the company's growth in sales and profits, McNamara announced that, at the present time, every branch in the company is operating at a profit, and all branches are showing an improvement already this year over last year's record accomplishment.

For the 11 weeks ending March 19, company sales were $117,118,159 as compared with $105,287,504 for the same period of 1954, which is an increase of 11.22%.

McNamara stated that in addition to the 20 new stores already opened this year, the company now has an additional 94 new stores under lease in the planning stage, of which 69 will be new locations, and 5 will be relocations.

Of the 94 new stores under lease, 70 are planned for opening yet this year, with the other 24 stores planned for opening early in 1956. (BB

Bright Outlook For No. Illinois Gas Co.

"Our prospects for future progress are excellent" summarizes president Marvin Chandler's remarks to stockholders in Northern Illinois Gas Company's first annual report which was issued recently.

Chandler pointed out that in 1954 total operating revenues increased 17.4% over 1953 ($52,800,000 to $62,043,000) brought about from connecting a new one-year record of new customers (28,504); extension of house heating service to 17,623 customers; greater use by existing customers, and from the higher rates effective February 1, 1954.

Based on the company's present capitalization, Chandler went on to say, earnings per share of common stock were 84 cents for the 11 months of 1954, beginning February 1. Extended over a full year the earnings would have been 95 cents. Furthermore, he said, if the rates and gas purchase costs in effect at the end of 1954 had been in effect the full year, earnings would have been 11 cents per common share higher.

At the end of the year, the gas company had approximately 2,400 employes, Chandler said, and now has more than 140,000 stockholders, and over 480,000 customers.

Name Arlington Man Head Of Paraplegics Manufacturing Company

Paraplegics Manufacturing Company, Inc., of Franklin Park, announces the election of Dwight D. Guilfoil Jr., Arlington Heights, as president and Wendell Howard as secretary of the recently organized company. As in the past, the company will continue to provide employment for the seriously handicapped.

Mr. Guilfoil, immediately upon being elected president, announced the company policy would be to continue to promote the unique "Duofonic" high fidelity system engineered by this company and to develop and market additional electronic items.

This unusual company, which was organized four years ago and employs principally paraplegics and others with serious physical handicaps, started with about a dozen employees doing electronic sub-contract work.

Today they have 75 employees, a majority of whom became stockholders when the company was reorganized. The company has been active in developing and promoting new electronic products and in doing contract work for the government. (BB

In the Shadow of + + + The Steeple

by William O. McGill

Up from the backcountry came the Teacher, making one of his rare visits to the Big City. Somehow, despite the lack of adequate press and television coverage, the word had gotten around that he was arriving. Soon a crowd began to gather along the way.

The Big City was crowded with visitors; it was just like a convention. All the time they had been in the metropolis, these visitors had been hearing undercurrents of rumor and other stories about this Teacher. He was being compared to a variety of teachers—not the least of these was the latest before him.

The last prominent teacher had been widely associated with this one in conversation. He had been a violent agitator who had been condemned because of his attacks on the government. True, there had been whispers that royal family intrigue had also been involved. These whispers only served to add a filip of spiciness to the speculations.

This Teacher was a different type, but he was also regarded as subversive. None of the authorities could be persuaded to make a public statement in support of him. And it was no wonder, the things he was saying about them!

As the procession wound through the city, it came in through the new "heights" subdivision, and then down through "old town," the slums, working its way up to the "center of the world." All along the way, men who should have been at work, children who should have been at school, women who should have been doing their housework, all began to gather and come along with him and his small group of friends. The crowd was singing songs, waving banners.

The police department was alerted but fearful of making a move which might excite the people into a riot. The public officials were concerned but each was trying to assure another that the responsibility for action was in "your department."

Many of the visitors were joining the crowd from the slums and the shops. What was to be done? Here they were, thousands of them, right there at the heart of the city. All the Teacher had to do was say the word, and the police and public officials would have been helpless.

But he did not say it. He said to the police, when they asked for quiet, "If these people were quiet, the stones would cry out." He said cryptically, "Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who stone the prophets, how I would have held you close like a mother her baby, you would not be held."

And then, as suddenly as he had come, the Teacher disappeared. The police heaved a sigh of relief. The people milled about and talked with each other—but without the Teacher there was no likelihood of a large-scale riot. The public officials gathered to consider the plan. He had certainly played into their hands. Given a little time, they might yet take care of their problems. This was the advantage which agitators and reformers gave to the practical children of this world. They didn't know when the time was right—reformers went off too soon, or waited too long.

They smiled one at another, Jerusalem would yet stone another prophet.

At Iowa State

Mary Kingsley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Kingsley of Rand road, Arlington Heights, has been named to the Veishea high school program committee for the 1955 Veishea spring festival to be held at Iowa State college May 12-13-14.

Work on the annual Veishea has been under way since late fall to make the 1955 show an even bigger and better one than those in the past. Over 4,000 students will be working on the open houses, floats, skits, musical productions and the three-mile-long parade.

At Knox

Miss Ann Jung, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erich H. Jung of Mounted Route 2, Palatine, was recently initiated into the Illinois Beta-Delta chapter of Pi Beta Phi at Knox college in Galesburg.

Following the initiation ceremony was a dinner honoring the new initiates and attended by alumnae and members of the active chapter.

Miss Jung has also been elected publicity chairman of the Illinois Beta-Delta chapter. Her duties in the office begin with the spring academic quarter.

At Knox

Miss Erica Jung, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erich H. Jung of Mounted Route 2, Palatine, has been elected recording secretary of the Illinois Beta-Delta of Pi Beta Phi at Knox college in Galesburg.

Previously Miss Jung has served Illinois Beta-Delta chapter as publicity chairman, historian, outstanding pledge, and outstanding sophomore. Other campus activities include editor of the college newspaper, treasurer of Whiting House council, and secretary of the Women's Recreation Association.

Miss Jung, a junior at Knox will be installed in her office at the beginning of the spring academic quarter.

At Grinnell

James Schwolow of 318 W. Slade st., Palatine, was elected to the house council of his residence hall at Grinnell college. His position on the council, which is responsible for the administration of the hall, will be as secretary-treasurer. He will be in charge of the hall's records and money.

Chosen by the hall members, he will take office in the middle of April after spring vacation, and will serve until that time next year.

Schwolow, a junior at Grinnell, is a 1951 graduate of Palatine Township high school.

At Grinnell

LeRoy Jacobs of 1211 N. Belmont ave., Arlington Heights, was elected to the house council of his residence hall at Grinnell college. His position on the council, which is responsible for the administration of the hall, will be as secretary-treasurer. He will be in charge of the hall's records and money.

Chosen by the hall members, he will take office in the middle of April after spring vacation, and will serve until that time next year.

Jacobs, a junior at Grinnell, is a 1949 graduate of Maryville academy, Des Plaines.

At North Central

Ann Swisher and Marlene Hayes have been selected as co-chairmen for the annual water ballet show to be held April 22 and 23 at North Central college, Naperville. Miss Swisher has taken part in the show for the past two years and now a junior, she finds the show presents many problems. There will be over 30 girls participating in the production, all members of Mrs. Helen Thornton's ballet class.

As yet, a title hasn't been selected for the show but the theme of the show will revolve around the four seasons of the year. There will be about ten numbers besides the finale.

At Valparaiso

Bernice C. Germer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kurt A. Germer, of Route 2, Palatine, has pledged Alpha Xi Epsilon sorority at Valparaiso University, and Kay Lu-Ann Bressner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. J. Bressner of 1416 E. Highway, has pledged Kappa Tau Zeta sorority. Miss Germer is a freshman, and Miss Bressner is a sophomore.

SCARSDALE

$35,900

ONE OF THE MOST BEAUTIFUL subdivisions in the northwest suburban area. A beautiful Tackett built 6 room home with many fine features, including 2½ ceramic baths, 3 twin size bedrooms. The living room newly carpeted, has a fireplace and built in bookshelves; the dining room, also newly carpeted, is 13x14 with French doors opening to screened porch. The large kitchen has GE dishwasher and disposal. Also a first floor laundry with space for deep freeze and breakfast room, paneled in mahogany. The recreation room is paneled in wormy chestnut and has a fireplace. Gas heat with year around Sunbeam air conditioning, yard fenced and beautifully landscaped. This home with its fine location and wonderful features cannot be duplicated either in a new home or any other home we know of at the asking price. SEE IT TODAY!

COUNTRYSIDE

Red face brick ranch on 3/4 acre, $22,000

VERY ATTRACTIVE LARGE RANCH with attached garage has living room 13x24 with large Thermopane picture window, exceptionally large 16' birch cabinet kitchen, tile bath. 3 bedrooms, 11x16, 12x15 and the 10x12 being pine paneled may be used as den or boys room. Death Notices

IN MEMORIAM

In fond memory of our dearly beloved wife and mother who passed away 2 years ago today.
She had a nature you could not help loving;
A heart that was purer than gold,
And to those who knew her and loved her,
Her memory will never grow cold.
William Blume and family (*

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Albert E. Kiehne, our son who passed away April 4, 1947.
To us he is fondly remembered;
Sweet memories cling to his name.
We who loved him so dearly in life,
Love him in death just the same.
His memory to us is a keepsake,
With which we will never part,
Though God has him in His keeping
We will always have him in our hearts.

Route 12 To Be Widened In Spring

An early start on widening and improving Rte. 12 from Volo to the north edge of Fox Lake is expected this spring.

Rights of way have been obtained from Volo to the intersection of Rte. 59 and state highway representatives are now getting property from that point north.

Minister's Wife Tells How She Runs Prize Winning Household

"Homemaker of the Year" is Mrs. Dorothy Stephan, attractive mother of 9 children and wife of the Rev. Luther Stephan, Arlington Heights. The family consists of, from left: back row, Stanley, 19; Thomas, 16; Gloria, 17; Daniel, 20; middle row; Robert, 12; Mrs. Stephan; Reynold, 9; Pastor Stephan; Luke, 13; on parents' laps, Sydney, 5; Ingrid, 7.

by CHARLES HAYES

The "Homemaker of the Year" admitted this week that she lives on a schedule.

It comes as no surprise.

Mrs. Dorothy Stephan is a pastor's wife, mother of 9 children, full-time kindergarten teacher, Sunday school worker, and manager of a church-owned 10 room house at 315 N. Highland ave. Arlington Heights.

But she's not interested in sympathy for the load she carries.

On the contrary, she feels sorry for people who haven't the good times and interests that she and her family enjoy.

The schedule?

"Oh, it's a flexible one," chuckles Mrs. Stephan. "It has to be in a pastor's home. But we try and keep as close as possible to our schedule."

Named Sunday as "Homemaker of the Year" by the Modern Living Exposition from among 82 entrants from the Chicago area, Mrs. Stephan won a number of prizes including modern home appliances and a trip to New York City.

"For once in my life I was completely surprised," said the attractive brunette. "I always thought no one could fool me."

She came in "head and shoulders ahead of other finalists," declared judges of the Chicago Metropolitan Home Builders association. They considered Mrs. Stephan after she was nominated by the Arlington Heights Herald at the suggestion of Mrs. Ridgely Jackson, 645 S. Belmont.

How does Mrs. Stephen manage such a large home with her other responsibilities?

A TYPICAL day in the Stephan home starts at 6:30 a.m. when the family rises.

While Rev. Stephan makes the coffee, children do pre-school chores, which include making beds, straightening rooms, and feeding a variety of pets; two cocker spaniel dogs, a canary, and tropical fish.

Breakfast is a family affair.

"I insist on a good breakfast," said the prize homemaker. "It's the most important meal of the day."

Typical menu: hot cereal or eggs, fruit juice.

Older children recite their catechism to Pastor Stephan as he shaves.

Before the youngsters leave home in the morning, they must have brushed their teeth, be scrubbed, neatly dressed and well groomed.

"I am most particular about this," reported Mrs. Stephan.

Five of the children attend St. Peter school. Gloria is in high school, while two of the boys are studying for the ministry at Concordia college in Malwaukee. Another boy is a law student at University of Illinois.

At noon, the children eat at school.

"The Pastor and I eat lunch at home," explained the homemaker. "It's our time to be alone during the day."

After school, she spends an hour relaxing before starting to prepare dinner.

The children play outdoors until 4:30, then spend an hour on homework until 5:30.

Dinner is the big meal of the day at the Stephan home. She prepares this herself.

"MUCH FOOD is prepared in advance," she explained, adding that she's a firm advocate of freezer living.

"I don't care for canned foods, but I do live from the freezer."

To make the budget stretch, she buys in quantity.

Considerable time is spent in meal planning.

"I believe in a high-protein diet with simple but healthful, nourishing food."

As a result, she has never missed a day of school and her children have never been sick.

After dinner, the family spends several minutes in a religious devotion, which Mrs. Stephan feels is "most important, regardless of faith."

She and the children, who take turns clearing the table and running the dishwasher, clean up after the meal.

Television is carefully controlled.

"I don't let it become a habit. Programs are screened for the young ones so unwholesome, excitable shows are eliminated."

Her teenage daughter has her own room, is provided enough free time for homework and school activities.

"TEEN FRICTION is caused in many homes because youngsters aren't given enough time to do their work."

The "Homemaker of the Year" straightens and dusts the house each day after school.

"A minister is always having unexpected visitors."

Saturday mornings the whole family pitches in to do a thorough house cleaning.

Mrs. Stephan thinks a house should look "lived in."

"A mother shouldn't be spotless at the price of a happy, relaxed family."

The younger children are put to bed at 8 p.m. Either Mrs. Stephan or her husband tuck them in each night and read to them.

Reading is emphasized in the home. She listens to the smaller ones read orally while she irons or sews.

Ironing, incidentally, is Mrs. Stephan's "dullest" task.

"Who ever invented ironing?" sighed the homemaker, adding that she's always relieved when it's out of the way.

To relieve this tedium, she plays classical records and radio music. This serves a double purpose, since it helps develop an appreciation and taste for good music among the children.

MRS. STEPHEN thinks it most important for homemakers to keep abreast of current events and community affairs.

She takes two daily newspapers, the Arlington Heights Herald, and a dozen magazines.

The day starts with a radio news broadcast.

Shopping is done once a week by two of the boys who purchase from a list prepared by their mother.

This saves her time and also provides the boys with some good experience.

The family's favorite dish is home made breads and coffee cakes. She does all her own baking each Saturday, freezing the bread to be used during the week.

Her children are kept busy with hobbies of their own choosing and financed by themselves.

Allowances are given with the understanding that it is not pay for work around the house. "It is to teach them the value of money—how to save it, how to spend it."

Being mother to 9 children isn't easy, and Mrs. Stephan is the first to admit it. But she adds that all 9 are treated equally with no partiality shown to any.

"Each child is treated as an individual, however, we try to meet their special needs."

Delinquency?

The Stephans have no such problem.

"Juvenile crime is definetly the parents' problem. I believe in discipline. There is a paddle behind our kitchen stove. Although we seldom have to use it, it CAN be used. The children know it. It acts as a curb to misbehavior. When reason and persuasion fail to get obedience, I use it.

A STANDING RULE of Mrs. Stephan is that her children must always tell when they leave the house where they are going, who they will be with, and when they expect to return.

Her home is a meeting-place for children of all ages—"and we want it that way."

Rev. and Mrs. Stephan try to go out as a couple once a week., except during busy church seasons.

"Too many parents forget they're a couple, others forget they are parents. We try to strike a balance between the two."

The Stephans have lived in Arlington Heights 12 years. They met at Oklahoma A & M while she was a student and he student pastor. She is a native of Stillwater, Oklahoma.

Mrs. Dorothy Stephan, "Homemaker of the Year," is still stunned by her honor.

Her favorite hope: that she may bring some measure of dignity to an award she is certain others are more deserving of.

Mouth Odors Of Dogs May Indicate Trouble

An offensive odor from the mouth of your dog may be a sign for you to consult your veterinarian.

Dr. A. G. Schiller of the college of veterinary medicine at the University of Illinois points out that bad odors from a dog's mouth can usually be corrected.

Many times too much tartar collecting on the teeth will produce an odor. If gum diseases and sores on the lips are causing a mouth odor, they will require special attention.

Mouth odors resulting from kidney trouble can be very serious. The animal may die if it is not treated.

If mouth odor persists; it's best to play it safe and see your veterinarian, Dr. Schiller says.

A softener that requires any attention whatever for regenerating is NOT automatic.

In the Rainbow Automatic, the nuisance of regenerating has been entirely eliminated. A simple, dependable electric timer does this for you — while you are sleeping.

Regeneration occurs during the night once or oftener each week, depending on how much soft water is required and the use of a Rainbow Automatic is as convenient and trouble-free as an automatic water heater.

Needs salt only 2 to 3 times yearly. Softens - Filters - Removes Iron and Corrosive elements. This new type of regeneration is the greatest advancement in water softening since its discovery. Our backwash method keeps tanks and zeolite clean and fresh for years.

A softener that requires attention is as old fashioned as a water heater that needs to be lit.

No other automatic softener approaches the Rainbow Automatic in simplicity and dependability. Old methods of regenerating have been discarded and our new and improved method takes over.

For those who want the Single Tank Softener, we have them. Our low overhead permits us to offer this Sensational Buy which can be purchased with no money down.
